-- The annual meeting of the stockholders of the consolidated railways of the oil regions, known as the Oll Crook and Allegheny Valley Hailway, was held on Wednesday, and the fol lowing officers elected: President-Edward F. Gny; Vice President and General Superintendent -- B. F. Sweetzer; Secretary and Treasurer -F. A. Phillips; Directors--Wm. G. Fargo, Charles A. Lee, Wm. C. Moorehead, A. S. Diven, Charles B. Wright and Thomas A. Scott.

-A prominent Shator, who once before dis tinguished himself in a similar manner, appeared suddenly, a few evenings since, before the ladies in the parlor of the St. James Hotel, Washington, in his favorite dishabille costume, flourishing a revolver in a very careless manner. He was attired in nothing but a single article of raiment, and was, of course, intoxiented at the time. The sensation produced, however, was startling.

A correspondent writes thus about the Luited States Senate: "It is only a few weeks since one of its members was expelled for the fourth time from a temperance society; another has recently been shown to be deep in half'a dozen land swindles. I could name a duzen who have become millionaires under very suspicious circumstances; and now comes another corruption, smelling quite as strong as may of its predecessors.

-- The Legislature of Illinois as a "joke" recently passed a bill investing all politically civil and social power in the State in "the female portion of the population above the age of sixteen years." It is made unlawful for any male over twenty years old to be out after dark, unless protected by a woman qualified to vote.

--- A man danced a jig in a Memphis bar room with such vigor as to jar a pistol off a shelf behind the bar and explode it. Nobody appeared to be hurt, until it was found that a colored girl, sitting upright in a chair, was stone dead, the bullet having gone through her brain, killing her instantly.

-A good story is told of a German shoemaker, who, having made a pair of boots for a gentleman, of whose financial integrity he had considerable doubt, made the following reply to him when he called for articles: "Dor poots ish not quito done, but der beel ish inade out."

A minister named Murphy lately eloped from Putnam county, Indiana, with a Mrs. Hunter. The preacher left a wife and one child, and Mrs. Hunter a husband and six children. Both parties had formerly been highly respected.

-A locomotive on a new model has been built at l'eterson, New Jersey, for the New York and New Haven railroad. It is a "double ender," having a cow-catcher at each end, and being designed to run equally well in either

--- Mrs. Burdell Cuppingham is still living in California, and lately frightened an American traveller almost out of his wits, who met her in a lonely shanty in Lower California, on a stormy evening, where he sought a night's lodging.

-Application has been made by the relatives of J. Wilkes Booth for his remains for interment. Also for the return of the trunk and other effects which are supposed to be still in charge of the War Department.

-A determined youth of West Bond, Wis., on Wednesday, put his intended and his mother in the stage, and footed it after them to Fond du Lie, where his ambition to become a hus band was realized.

-A frightful railway accident occurred January 23, at Bhor Ghat, India. The train ran into an embankment, smashing five carriages. Fifteen natives were killed and 36 wounded.

--Syracuso street cars are furnished with gates, and conductors are made special police mon, with orders to arrest all who jump on or off before the car stops.

DR. JOHNSTON, Member of the Reyal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part o whose life has been spent in the hospitals o London, Paris, Philadelphia and olsewhere, has effected some of the most astenishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and cars when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prespects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a cortain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating
