AT THE RECENT election in Reading, Dr. W. Murray Weldnian was elected Auditor by 111 majority. The Radicals had the best men of their party on their licket, made a desperate fight for them, not only on party grounds, but hat the new in-coning administration of Grant must be endorsed; that a radical defeat in Reading would already show a want of confidence; nevertheless all which, they were terribly defeated.-Lebanon Advertiser.

A NEW HALL-A project has been started to build a large hall in this city. We believe a stock company is to be formed. It is a good idea, and we hope the project will be carried out. All other large towns in the State are ahead of us in this respect.

GONE HOME AND PROMISED TO DO BETTER. - A few days ago we made mention of a disturbance having occurred at a house of ill-fame in the upper part of the city, and that in the melee one of the frail cyprians jumped out of the econd-story window. It seems that the irl hurt her foot severely in jumping. and having no money to pay her board or a doctor for attending to her injury, she was compelled reluctantly to let her parents know of her sad and unfortunate condition. Yesterday her father came to the city, and reclaimed his lost daughter. She is quite young, only fourteen, and very pretty and interesting. She ran away from home six months ago, going to Philadelphia, where she remaind but a short time, and then came to this city, and has over since been leading

Last ovening, about 9 o'clock, Olicer Lawrence found Frederick at the corner of 7th and Penn streets, with two hams in his possession, He gave no satisfactory account of him-self or the hams. He said that he worked for a man over in Lancaster county, and that he gave them to him; then again, that he found them tied up in a bag in a fence corner. These explana-tions, although very satisfactory to Frederick, were not so to the officer, and the latter invited Frederick to accompany him to the Station House, where a preliminary hearing was had this, morning. Frederick is retained for a further hear. ing. In this instance the query of "who stole the hams without the leave of me?" has not yet been solved.

CRAZED PEOPLE, AND WHY .-- Hall's Journal of Health says that more than onr-fourth of all the inmates of lunatic asylums are from the families of farmers and merchants, not wholly because they constitute the largest class of the com munity; so many of the former, not because the occupation itself is not healthful, but for want of montal culture, and their ignorance and inattention to the laws of their being; of the latter, because they grow up as the "olite" of the communities in which they live, but later on become so often bankrupt, the mind fails in the attempt to grapple with the difficulties of their changed condition. Ill health is the most prominent cause of insanity, induced by insufficient exercise, intemperance, over-eating, and yielding to trouble, care and mental anxloty : the always certain remody against these being a more general cultivation of out-door activities, a general attention to stirring business, giving proference to those occupations which are congenial, lieve that a word or two on our part in connection therowith will not be out of Hitherto we have been the friend and advocate of an efficient and active fire department, of which the city of Reading may proudly boast. We have endeavored to advance their interests on all occasions where there was an opportunity for so doing. These false alarms of fire, which are supposed to originate with "runners" of some of the fire companies, are causing much complaint, and many persons go so far as to blame the fromen thomselves. With due deference to the comfort and happiness of the com-munity, the Aremen should take every procaution in such cases, and provent a general alarm from being raised, and the apparatus of the department brought out. They should also endeavor to trace out the persons raising the false alarms, who-ever they may be, and have them punshed, for their own credit and the safety of our citizens. THE LANCASTER SHOEMAKERS.-The moomakers of Lancaster county are asking the Legislature for protection. They seem to regard themselves as un-able to compete with members of the craft elsewhere, and therefore they de-sire to shield themselves behind the friendly shelter of the protecting arm of the law. Evidently the shoemakers of Lancaster have mistaken their calling, nd they should retire from the business and give place to men who are able to make a living by attending to the under-standings of others. The idea of compelling a man to serve five years on a cobbler's bench before he cau "set up" for himself wabsurd. People ought to know when their shoes are well made, or monded, and should have the right to patronize any manufacturer they prefer. Why there should be any more need of protecting this class of nicohanics than all others we are not advised. If the shoemakers need protection why not the himnoy sweeps, wet nurses, and others ? Such triffing matters ought to be thrown out of the Legislature with a red-hot pitch.fork .- York True Democrat.
