

READING, PA.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1892.

The Eagle Book Store, Adler office, DAILY EAGLE and READING GAZETTE & DEMOCRAT have been removed to 542 Penn street, Schmucker House building, opposite the Keystone House.

Democratic State Committee. In obedience to the desire of a majority thereof, the Democratic State Committee are requested to meet at Dolton's Hotel, Harrisburg, on Tuesday, the 30th day of March, 1892, at 7 o'clock, p. m., to fix the time of holding the Democratic State Convention.

WILLIAM A. WALLACE, Chairman. DAVID CALDWELL, Secretary.

ANOTHER THIRTY AT WORKINGMEN.

A bill is now before the State Senate entitled "An act further supplemental to the act relative to the elections of this Commonwealth." It requires that all elections shall be held in the fall—thus doing away with spring elections. As might be expected, this bill covers a deep-laid purpose of the Radicals to deprive the working classes of an opportunity to deposit their ballots, and to leave the voting in the hands of wealthy Radical idlers who can spare time to be at the polls at any hour during the day, and their hirelings whose expenses are paid for the same purpose.

Two sections of the bill are as follows: Sec. 16. For all elections holden under this act the polls shall be open between the hours of six and seven o'clock A. M. and be closed at six o'clock P. M.

By this bill the workingman, who cannot lose time to wait at the crowded polls after 7 A. M., or after his dinner hour, must either lose part of a day from his employment or lose his vote. Between 6 and 8 o'clock P. M., after the day's work is over, is the time chosen by workingmen to deposit their ballots, and as the great mass of the voting tax payers are Democrats, the Radicals hope to decrease the Democratic vote by keeping the working classes away from the polls. It is part of their programme to take the power of our State and National governments out of the hands of the working classes and confer it upon a few aristocratic paupers, and this bill is only intended as an entering wedge for further encroachments upon the rights of the masses.

We call upon our able Senator and Representatives at Harrisburg to watch this bill, and if the Radical majority insist on passing it, to show up its odious provisions and designs, so that the people at large may fully understand the faithlessness and treachery of those who were elected to protect their interests.

Our Wisconsin Letter.

MENOSHA, Wis., Feb. 20, 1892. Dear BROTHER:—I do not think there is any State in the Union that has such a mixed up population as Wisconsin. It would be hard to tell what the predominant nationality of the inhabitants is. In this place the Germans and Irish constitute three-fourths of the population, but in Neenah, on the opposite side of the river, the foreign percentage is very different. The citizens of that place are mostly from Pennsylvania, New York and the Eastern States. And when we look over the surrounding country we find it divided into settlements, as if the early settlers had divided the country amongst themselves by lot; each nation taking that part which had been allotted to them, and establishing themselves there, forming a nucleus around which has gathered so many large, prosperous settlements of enterprising farmers.

Amongst the first settlers in this country was a colony of Norwegians, who settled a few miles west of this, at a place called Denmark. There were but three or four families of them at first, but they have now become a large, wealthy settlement, and have some of the nicest and best cultivated farms in the country.

On the opposite side of Lake Winnebago, is a large settlement of half-breeds. They occupy a district of the best farming land in the State, and they have become tolerably good farmers. The rising generation have almost lost the dusky hue of their ancestors. They, young and old, stand up as straight as an arrow, and are tall and well proportioned. The women are not so tall, and some of them are rather thick and chubby. The older women appear to take but little pride in their dress, but the younger ones dress with more neatness and taste, and some of them are as good looking women as you can find in any country.

There is one thing that is retarding the progress of this country very much, and that is the fictitious prices which are placed upon the farming lands. This is driving some of the best inhabitants from this country to the States of Missouri and Kansas. Property is not held at a high price in the villages, but farming land twelve and fifteen miles from any market, with but ordinary improvements, is held at from $100 to $200 per acre, and land near the villages cannot be had for less than from $100 to $200 per acre, according to location and improvement. These prices are causing some of the farmers here to sell their farms, and go into the State of Missouri, where they can get a good land and as well located, for a much less figure, in a much milder climate. But still this country is fast filling up with population; and I do not think there is any place in this western country, that presents as good an opening for enterprising men who wish to embark in business as there is at this place. Here is one of the best water-courses in the world, in a town that is fast filling up with enterprising business men, and is surrounded by a rich agricultural country, which is being rapidly developed. Everything here bespeaks for this place growth and prosperity in the future.

I did intend to say something about the different manufacturing establishments in this place, but my space will not allow me to mention more than one or two of them. The mill and tub manufactory of E. D. Smith is the most extensive. He employs from 100 to 300 men and turns out annually more than a half million pieces of ware. His work is perfectly systematized. No one man lifts the same piece of work a second time. The lumber comes into the saw mill at one end of the works, in the log, and travels from one to another until it passes through more than twenty different hands, when it lands in the store-house, finished ware ready to be packed for shipping.

Webster & Lawson have a large establishment in which they manufacture hubs, spokes and felloes for wagons, and handles for brushes and brooms. They employ over 300 men, and the amount of work they turn out annually is astonishing. They ship every day from one to three car loads of finished work, besides what they sell at home.

Two youngsters of New York thought to steal a ride on the cog-catcher of a locomotive from the station to the round-house, but found themselves on an engine hooked for Poughkeepsie, and couldn't make themselves heard or get off until it stopped for water at Peekskill, 40 miles away. Then they tumbled off fainting.

PACIFIC RAILROAD NEARLY FINISHED. 1550 Miles Built.

THE UNION PACIFIC R. R. CO.

AND THE CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.

Have added Eight Hundred (800) Miles to their lines during the current year, while doing a large local passenger and freight business. The through connection will undoubtedly be completed next summer when the through traffic will be very great.

Forty thousand men are now employed by the two powerful companies in pressing forward the great national highway to speedy completion. Only 900 miles remain to be built, of which mostly are graded and ready for the rails.

First Mortgage Gold Bonds of the Union Pacific Railroad Company for sale at par and interest, and First Mortgage Gold Bonds of the Central Pacific Railroad, at 103 and interest. The principal and interest of both bonds are payable in gold.

WIZZ.—The remains of Capt. Henry Wizz were exhumed from the Arsenal grounds Wednesday afternoon, by order of the President, and delivered to Louis Schiele who, it will be remembered, was one of his counsel; they were taken to the undertaking establishment of Augustus Burdgett, where they were encased in a handsome walnut coffin, and will remain there until to-morrow, when they will be taken to the house of a friend, and will not probably be interred for a day or two.

WIZZ.—The remains of Capt. Henry Wizz were exhumed from the Arsenal grounds Wednesday afternoon, by order of the President, and delivered to Louis Schiele who, it will be remembered, was one of his counsel; they were taken to the undertaking establishment of Augustus Burdgett, where they were encased in a handsome walnut coffin, and will remain there until to-morrow, when they will be taken to the house of a friend, and will not probably be interred for a day or two.

A TRICKING affair occurred at Port Deposit, Maryland, on Saturday, in which several persons were shot and severely if not fatally wounded. It appears that a man named Mackison, a notoriously bad tempered individual, made an assault upon two young men named Obr with a pistol, both of whom were severely wounded. A constable named Lyons, who attempted to arrest the assailant, was also shot and very seriously wounded, fears being entertained of a fatal result. The assailant was finally arrested and lodged in jail.

SEEMS A BUSH.—Some patient correspondence from County Gardiner estimates the number of clovers in a bushel at 27,130,613, and of timothy at 31,830,117.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS. WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—In the Senate, a bill was reported, providing for a Board to consider the question of preventing obstructions of the harbors of the United States.

The bill exempting manufacturers of naval machinery from tax was passed. The Army Appropriation bill was considered.

The Suffrage Amendment was made the order for the day. In the House, Mr. Kelley's Nickel Coinage bill was passed.

The conference report on the Diplomatic Appropriation bill was presented, and rejected, and a new conference asked.

The conference report on the Suffrage Amendment was adopted, being the Senate proposition.

The Legislative and Deficiency Appropriation bills were considered.

Mr. Kerr's Minority Report in the Committee on Education and Freedmen in New York. The report is an exhaustive review of the majority report, and shows that the courts are free from all the imputations put on them by the majority of the committee; that the voting was not excessive, but the reverse; that the reporting was done by Republicans, man for man, for every Democrat that was voting. It is very long, but without any effort at rhetorical display, giving facts on facts.—N. Y. Democrat.

A BROWNER APPEARS.—The Harrisburg General says: Yesterday a bloomer appeared in the galleries of the Senate and House, took a promenade in the rotunda, visited the Library and the Executive Chamber, and appeared particularly anxious to see what was transpiring officially. She was dressed in green plaid, a skirt reaching an inch (not by actual measurement) below the knees, with trousers of the same material—making altogether a neat and jaunty appearance.

Mr. CHARLES ANT, of Cinwofordville, Ga., was found dead in his bed on Wednesday morning with his throat cut from ear to ear and his skin cut off. An illegitimate son of the deceased by a mulatto woman has been arrested as implicated in the murder. When arrested he was at the door of the wine cellar, about two hundred and fifty yards from the house. In the cellar a rest of the murdered man was found, and his pocket-book, containing $47, in the possession of the young arrested. The son had been severely punished by the father on the day preceding the murder.

WACEDONIAN OIL TRIUMPHANT.

WILL YOU PLEASE READ THIS!

Reading, Pa., Jan. 12, 1892.—Mr. Wm. C. Kross, No. 34 South 17th street, says the M. O. Oil is the only thing which has given strength to his broken arm—has used it in his family for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and frost-bitten feet, performing in each case a wonderfully quick and radical cure.

E. FOX, Proprietor of Keystone House, certifies that three bottles of the Oil cured a strain in a horse, valuing the cure at $100.

JOHN KEMP, Policeman, says the Oil cured him of a severe fracture of the collar bone.

The above named persons are well known in this vicinity, and are living witnesses. Having furnished such ample testimony at the times we advertised with the FOUR HORSE CHARIOT, giving those popular opinions.

CONCERN, I deem it unnecessary to add more names. The Magic Macdonian Oil Co. will forfeit.

$1000. If any dozen remedies combined will furnish any good certificates from prominent citizens in the city and vicinity, those who have been cured by the use of the Macdonian Oil—call on.
