A MOTHER'S ANTIGENCE. A man finds he cannot make his way in the world without honesty and industry, so that, although his father's example may do much, he has to depend upon his own exertions; he must work, he must be ionest, or he cannot attain to any enviible rank. But the tender soothing of a mother, her sympathy, her devotedness, her forgiving temper—all this sinks deep in a child's heart; and let him wander over so wide, let him err, or let him lead the of virtue, the remembrance of all his comes like a holy calm over his heart, and he weeps that he has offended her, or he rejoices that he has listened to her disinterested, gentle admonition.

BAD PRACTICE.—It has been suggested that an usher be appointed for each of the soveral churches in this city, whose duty it shall be to stand at the entrance doors. and announce to the assembled congregations the name, age, sex, condition, qualifications, clothing, hat, etc., of each individual as they pass into the church. Such an arrangement would do away with the bad practice of looking around, and the danger of dislocating the neeks of two-thirds of the congregation, and gratify the curiosity so universally expressed. And then again a little arrange-ment should be made so that young men and young ladies need not linger about at the entrance. If a young man can not muster courage enough to step up to a disappearing; otherwise the community lady and take her arm—no danger of being refused—he should stay at home, and not be hanging about the stay at home, and not be hanging about the stay at home, and not be hanging about the stay at home. not be hanging about the church door of the B. & S. Edes, of Holon, Mass.

"Ear years I was a sufferer from Rolls, so that my life became wenisome through their frequent quent and persistent recurrence; finally a carbuncle formed in the small of my back. During its progress large places of decomposed floch were every day or two cut away, and the prostration and general disturbance of the system were great. Before I had recorded from this attack two smaller carbuncted from this attack is olong been subtracted with a recurrence of the sufferings to which I had so long been subtering to which I had so long been subtering to which I had so long been subtering the PERUVIAN'S FRUP. I continued taking it until I had used five bottles; since then I have have had nothing of the kind, for years I was one of the greatest sufferers. Other medicines gave me part'al and temporary rolles, but his remarkable remedy, with a kind of intuitive sense, wont directly to the root of the evil, and did its work with a thoroughness worthy of its established character."
