Advertisements are requested to hand in their advertisements as early in the day as possible, as our rapidly increasing circulation compels us to go to press about 2 p. m.

DEATH MENTIONS.—Our latest telegram from Washington, received two minutes and sixty seconds before going to press, announces that the Washington Hose Company arrived safely at that place.

The oddest is announced from Paris that fashion has determined to abolish children. What a fall that will be—my country—women!

Eggs and Easter-Sunday come in on the 23rd of March, this year. As April approaches, the best business to look after—your own.

The winter which has just departed, has been a benison to the poor—as the days were fortunately few and far between which were unfit for outdoor labor.

It is conceded by every one except our members of Council, that there are too many loose bricks in our pavements—those carried in here only trouble the heads of their owners.

Travel to this town is not very brisk at present—as we notice that the trains and stages are lacking their usual lively loads of passengers.

Some suggestions are made that for every foggy day in February, we will have a frost in merry May. We hope not—as the foggy days in faded February were numerous.

A large number of people were attracted to the depot here to witness the departure of the Washington Hose Company.

A row took place in a saloon in 7th street last night, and in the melee a man was knocked down stairs. To, four inches thick, was cut this morning.

Detective Lynch proceeded to Harrisburg this morning to investigate criminal affairs. Market was largely attended this morning. No change in prices. Butter and eggs plenty.

Another band is to be organized in this city. A volonteer rink will be opened in this city by a gentleman from New York.

The Express Companies are doing a lively business. Ladies who wait while a train of cars is passing at 7th and Penn streets, should not stand too close. We noticed yesterday that a lady came near being caught.

FIRE—DESTRUCTION OF BRASSWORKS HOUSE.—This morning about 4 o'clock, a fire broke out in the slaughter house, owned by Mr. Spook, situated in the vicinity of Third and Chestnut streets, and before the firemen could render any assistance the building was consumed.

A GRAND CONCERT will be given by the Opera House, on Monday evening next. See programme in to-day's Eagle.

FOUND DEAD.—On Monday morning a son of Mr. John Galt, residing at Marysville, near Boyertown, was found dead in his room.

OUR WORTHY TOWNSMAN, Mr. Fred. Lauer, receives the following notice from the Board of Commissioners of Saturday:

THE WASHINGTON HOSE COMPANY.—The Harrisburg Patriot of this morning contains the following notice of the Washington Hose Company's arrival in that city last evening.

THE RECEPTION LIST EVENING.—The Washington Hose Company of Reading, numbering about thirty men, accompanied by the Kingold Band of that city, arrived in Harrisburg on Monday evening.

A COMMENTARY.—Fruit trees in the State, suffer more or less from insects every year. It is a regrettable fact that while great care is observed in properly planting them and in making good selections, and while they blossom in the spring, they are generally unproductive.

OUR LEISURE LETTERS. Mr. Editor:—I have nothing special to report from this direction to-day, as your reporter has gathered all the news that is worth reporting.

MAD DOG.—A dog belonging to Mr. Abraham Meyer, of Perkiomen township, this county, near the line of Upper Providence, went mad last week, and bit a son of Mr. Meyer, a lad of about fifteen years, and also a young son of Mr. Michael Freed, who was severely injured.

DUEL.—Business on the railroads is very dull at the present time. There is not much passenger travel, and little coal is carried.

SECOND EDITION. LABORERS' STRIKE. (Special to Daily Eagle.)
