

COMMUNICATIONS Intended for publication in the Eagle must be accompanied by a responsible name, as a guarantee of sincerity on the part of the writer. The name will be published unless so desired by the correspondent.

ADVERTISERS are requested to hand in their advertisements as early in the day as possible, as our rapidly increasing circulation compels us to go to press about 2 p. m.

TRIP MENTIONED.—Our latest telegram from Washington, received two minutes and sixty seconds before going to press, announces that the Washington Hose Company arrived safely at that place.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.—Is he with his daily report of crime, of folly, of sport? Let it be said, my dear friend, by passing along South Fourth street, we noticed a very dandy Thomas Cat endeavoring to cross the street, picking his way along very carefully until he arrived at the middle of the street, when he found it utterly impossible to avoid getting into the mud, and not wanting to soil his feet, he turned and came back, preferring, we suppose, to remain on the sidewalk.

MARKET was largely attended this morning. No change in prices. Butter and eggs plenty.

THE WASHINGTON HOSE COMPANY.—The Washington Hose Company, accompanied by the Ringgold Band, left Reading for Washington, Pa., this morning.

IMPROVEMENTS.—An example of the rapid growth of our city may be seen by a visit to the neighborhood of Eleventh and Elm Sts. Where but a few months ago were open lots and a few scattered buildings are now springing up in every direction, and the streets are alive with the sights and sounds of improvement.

FIRE—DESTRUCTION OF BRASSWORKS HOUSE.—This morning about 10 o'clock, a fire broke out in the slaughter house belonging to Mr. Spick, situated in the village of Park, on the corner of Wood streets, and before the firemen could render any assistance the building was consumed. The alarm was promptly obeyed by the entire fire department, but as much difficulty was experienced in reaching the place, the fire was kept under control, and the building was saved.

GRAND CONCERT.—A grand concert will be given by the Washington Hose Company, at the Reading Memorial Hall, on Monday evening next. See programme in to-day's Eagle.

FOUND DEAD.—On Monday morning a son of Mr. John Galt, residing at Marysville, near Boyertown, was found dead in his room. The deceased had been an invalid from epilepsy for several years, and recently suffered also from rheumatism.

COAL OIL LAMP EXPLOSION.—On Thursday morning a coal oil lamp in the cigar manufactory of Mr. D. S. Erb, at Boyertown, Berks co., exploded, scattering the burning oil in every direction.
