GRANT'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

We publish to-day the Inaugural Address of General Grant. It was evidently written partly by himself and partly by some astute and tricky politician, as it is capable of conveying a meaning which does not appear upon the surface. He endorses negro suffrage, and hints at conferring the elective franchise upon the Indians also. The Inaugural has but one merit—its brevity. Further comment is unnecessary. We leave our readers to draw their own conclusions in regard to this singular document.

THE INAUGURATION OF PRESIDENT GRANT.

The inauguration of Gen. Grant, which took place yesterday at Washington, was witnessed by an immense crowd of people of all colors. The city swarmed with soldiers, and the "colored man and brother" was seen everywhere. Several companies of negro soldiers were in the procession. There were a large number of regular troops on parade, cavalry, artillery infantry and marines, and many volunteers. Grant's body guard was Company K, 6th U. S. Cavalry, with a full band. The morning was rainy, but before the procession moved the sun shone out and the weather became fine.

Gen. Grant was in citizen's dress, and rode in an open carriage, with Gen. Rawlings.

While the procession was forming, and indeed, before any part of the earliest of the organizations who were to take part in it had reached the various points of rendezvous, an enormous crowd of pedestrians had pushed past the counter current setting towards the White House, and made their way nearly to the entrance of the Capitol.

Lines of soldiers and policemen, however, were stationed a considerable distance from the various doors and approaches, and formed an impassable barrier to all except the comparatively few (about two thousand) whose official position or acquaintance with the disposing powers had procured them a ticket of admission.

The procession was in eight grand divisions. The first, under command of General George W. Wallace, escorted the President elect and the Vice President elect, and was composed of regular troops, with five bands, wearing imposing uniforms and equipments. Cavalry, infantry, artillery and marines were in line.

Next came the division under command of the chief deputy marshal, Col. Magruder, with fine volunteer military organization, among them the Washington Grays and National Guards of Philadelphia; the Albany Burgess Corps, with their imposing uniforms; Baxter's Fire Zouaves, of Philadelphia; the Lancaster Fencibles; the Eagle Zouaves, of Buffalo; and the Lincoln and Butler Zouaves. The last two were colored organizations.

The third division, under command of General Gallaton Lawrence, was composed of prominent Naval officers of the Government, Foreign Ministers, Grant and Colfax electors, officers of the Army and Navy, Marine Corps, Corporate authorities of the city and Georgetown, etc.

The fourth division, Major Howe commanding, was composed of Republican political organizations of Washington and elsewhere.

The fifth division, Gen. Jos. Epin, commanding, was composed of soldiers' and sailors' unions, Grant and Colfax clubs, Grant Invincibles and similar organizations.

Next to Gen. Grant's carriage came Speaker Colfax, Admiral Bailey and Senators Yates, Cragin, McCreery, and the House Committee.

The band struck up "Hail to the Chief," and the party drove to Pennsylvania avenue and took their place at the head of the procession.

A single gun was fired, and the procession started.

Upon arriving opposite to the White House a halt was made to await the coming of President Johnson.

After some little delay a message came from the White House to the effect that Mr. Johnson did not want to ride in a carriage with the procession, which moved on.

The streets were with the greatest difficulty kept clear of people by the police.

The windows of every house along the route were filled with ladies, who waved handkerchiefs and flags. To all these manifestations of good will General Grant rose and bowed on each side as the carriage moved along.

The marching of the various military bodies was very fine, considering the dreadful condition of the streets. The marine and artillery corps were striking features of the military part of the procession, and made a beautiful display.

The companies belonging to the District, and the several companies from Philadelphia, including the Good Will, Harmony, Taylor, Manfus Hook and Ladder, with beautiful decorated apparatus, formed a very handsome addition to the parade.

On the arrival of the head of the procession at the Capitol, General Grant and Mr. Colfax were conducted to the rooms assigned them amid loud cheers from the immense crowd.

Almost exactly at twelve o'clock Gen. Grant and Mr. Colfax entered the Senate Chamber, side by side, escorted by Senators McCreery and Cragin.

Gen. Grant and his escort took a seat in front of the Journal Clerk of the Senate.

Mr. Colfax advanced to the presiding officer and Mr. Wade then said:

"The 4th day of March, the day on which the United States will be inaugurated."

Mr. Colfax stepped up to the desk and spoke as follows:

[illegible] the duties of this office to the performance of which I have been called by the people of the United States. I realize all the delicacy as well as the responsibility of the position, presiding over a body whose members are in a large degree my seniors in age, and not chosen by the body itself. I shall certainly need your assistance and support and your generous forbearance and confidence. But tendering to you a faithful and inflexible impartiality in the administration of your rules, and being determined to co-operate with you in making the deliberations of the Senate worthy not only of its historic renown, but also of its importance as a part of the Government, I am now ready to take the oath of office."

GEN. GRANT'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

Citizens of the United States:

Your suffrage having elevated me to the office of President of the United States, I have, in conformity with the Constitution of our country, taken oath of office prescribed therein. I have taken this oath without mental reservation, and with the determination to do, to the best of my ability, all that it requires of me. The responsibilities of the position I feel, but accept them without fear. The office has come to me unsought. I commence its duties unframmeled. I bring to it a conscientious desire and determination to fill it to the best of my ability, to the satisfaction of the people. On all the leading questions agitating the public mind I will always express my views to Congress, and urge them according to my judgment, and when I think it advisable I will exercise the constitutional privilege of interposing a veto to defeat measures which I oppose. But all laws will be faithfully executed whether they meet my approval or not. I shall on all subjects have a policy to recommend, but none to enforce against the will of the people. Laws are to govern all alike, those opposed to as well as those who favor them. I know no method to secure the repeal of bad or obnoxious laws so effective as their stringent execution. The country having just emerged from a great rebellion, many questions will come before it for settlement in the next four years which preceding administrations have never had to deal with. In meeting these it is desirable that they should be approached calmly, without prejudice, hate, or sectional pride, remembering that the greatest good to the greatest number is the object to be attained. This requires security of person and property and for religious and political opinion in every part of our common country, without regard to local prejudice, and all laws to secure these ends will receive my best efforts for enforcement. A great debt has been contracted in securing to us and our posterity the Union. The payment of this, principal and interest, as well as the return to a specie basis as soon as it can be accomplished without material detriment to the debtor class or the country at large, must be provided for.

To protect the national honor, every dollar of government indebtedness should be paid in gold, unless otherwise expressly stipulated in the contract. Let it be understood that no repudiator of one farthing of our public debt will be trusted in public place, and it will go far towards strengthening a credit which ought to be the best in the world, and will ultimately enable us to replace the debt with bonds bearing less interest than we now pay. To this would be added a faithful collection of the revenue; a strict accountability to the Treasury for every dollar collected, and the greatest practicable retrenchment in the expenditure in every department of the government. When we compare the paying capacity of the country now with the ten States still in poverty from the effects of war (but soon to emerge, I trust, into greater prosperity than ever before), with its paying capacity 25 years ago, and calculate what it probably will be twenty-five years hence, who can doubt the feasibility of paying every dollar we now pay for useless luxuries? Why, it looks as though Providence had bestowed upon us a strong box, the precious metal locked up in the sterile mountains of the far West, which we are now forging the key to unlock, to meet the very contingency that is now upon us. Ultimately, it may be necessary to increase the facilities to reach those riches, and it may be necessary also that the general Government should give its aid to secure this access, but that should only be when a dollar of obligation to pay secures precisely the same sort of dollar to use now, and not before. Whilst the question of specie payment is in abeyance the prudent business man is careful about contracting debts payable in the distant future. The nation should follow the same rule. A prostrate commerce is to be rebuilt and all industries encouraged. The young men of the country, those who from their age must be its rulers twenty-five years hence, have a peculiar interest in maintaining the national honor. A moment's reflection as to what will be our commanding influence among the nations of the earth in their day if they are only true to themselves, should inspire them with national pride. All divisions, geographical, political and religious, can join in this common sentiment. How the public debt is to be paid or specie payment resumed is not so important as that a plan should be adopted and acquiesced in. A united determination to do is worth more than divided councils upon the method of doing. Legislation upon this subject may not be necessary now, nor even advisable, but it will be when the civil laws are more fully restored in all parts of the country, and trade resumes its wonted channels. It will be my endeavor to execute the laws in good faith, to collect the revenues assessed, and to have them properly accounted for and economically disbursed. I will, to the best of my ability, appoint to office those only who will carry out this design. In regard to foreign policy I would deal with nations as equitible law requires individuals to deal with each other, and I would protect the law abiding citizen, whether of native or foreign birth, wherever his rights are jeopardized, or the flag of our country floats. I would respect the rights of all nations, demanding equal respect for our own. If others depart from this rule in their dealings with us, we may be compelled to follow their precedent.

The proper treatment of the original occupant of this land, the Indian, is one deserving of careful study. I will favor any course towards them which tends to their civilization, Christianization and ultimate citizenship.

The question of suffrage is one which is likely to agitate the public so long as a portion of the citizens of the nation are excluded from its privileges in any State. It seems to me very desirable that this question should be settled now, and I entertain the hope and express the desire, that it may be by the ratification of the 15th article of amendment to the Constitution.

In conclusion, I ask patient forbearance, one towards another, throughout the land, and a determined effort on the part of every citizen to do his share towards cementing a happy Union, and I ask the prayers of the nation to Almighty God in behalf of this consummation.

On Friday night last Miss Nannie Sealey, a young lady residing at Bowling Green, Ky., committed suicide by leaping into the Barren river from a bluff nearly one hundred feet in height. She had been delirious for some days previously.

TO PHYSICIANS.

NEW YORK, August 15th, 1867.

Allow me to call your attention to my PREPARATION OF COMPOUND EXTRACT BUCHU. The component parts are BUCHU LONG LEAF, CUBEBS, JUNIPER BERRIES.

MODE OF PREPARATION.—Buchu, Cubebs, Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebs extracted by displacement by liquor obtained from Juniper Berries, containing very little sugar, a small proportion of spirit, and more palatable than any now in use. The active properties are by this mode extracted.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists generally, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and glutinous decoction. Mine is the color of ingredients. The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopœa; nor is it a Syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exists. In this you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.

Hoping that you will favor it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation, With a feeling of confidence,

I am, very respectfully,
H. T. HELMBOLD.

Chemist and Druggist of 16 Years' Experience in Philadelphia, and now located at his Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, New York.

[From the largest Manufacturing Chemists in the World.]

I am acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold; he, occupied the Drug Store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.

WILLIAM WEIGHTMAN.

Firm of Powers & Weightman, Manufacturing Chemists, Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU, for weakness arising from indiscretion. The exhausted powers of nature which are accompanied by so many alarming symptoms, among which will be found, indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Memory Wakefulness, Horror of Disease, or Forebodings of Evil, in fact, Universal Lassitude, Prostration, and inability to enter into the enjoyments of society.

The Constitution, once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity ensues.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU, in affections peculiar to Females, is unequalled by any other preparation, as in Chlorosis, or Retention, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus State of the Uterus, and all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudence, or in the decline or change of life.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH will radically exterminate from the system diseases arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or exposure, completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiva and Mercury, in all these diseases.

USE HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU in all diseases of the organs, whether in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, "immediate" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.

Those suffering from broken-down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that, however slight, may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect the bodily health and mental powers.

All the above diseases require the aid of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is the greatest Diuretic.

Sold by Druggists everywhere. Price—$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruze Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathising as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which, by a careful investigation and inquiries possesses true merit, is skilfully and fully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach or Intestines.

DEBILITY

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, Indigestion, Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the digestion is prompt, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms and give health and happiness to their declining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, for expression, to use their own words, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS:

Hon. Geo. W. Woodward,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 18..

"I find Hoofland's German Bitters" a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.

GEO. W. WOODWARD.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 18..

"I consider Hoofland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it.

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Phila.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined. But with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for purifying the system, and especially for the Complaints it is recommended to relieve, it is unrivalled. In some cases it may fail but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates Street.

From Rev. E. D. Kendall,

Author of "Water Cure and Chronicles," Phila.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.

Yours, truly,
E. D. KENDALL.
