

THE Eagle Book Store, ADJACENT TO THE DAILY EAGLE AND READING GAZETTE & DEMOCRAT have been removed to 542 Penn street, Schuucker House building, opposite the Keystone House.

THE NEW PRESIDENT. The Maryland State Guard (Radical) compares Grant to Napoleon the First, because he can keep his own secrets. Perhaps he may be like that monarch in other respects, as our people may find to their sorrow. The Guard admits that the Republican party is powerful in the hands of Grant, in the following language:

"There is not to-day a man in the nation who can make a demand on Grant. The Republican party was forced to nominate him for President, and the Republican party will follow Grant in its policy of Government, or it will go to pieces."

Suppose Grant should adopt the policy of Andrew Johnson, must the Republican party "follow him or go to pieces"? Will the Grant explain? The idea is terrifying to "Joel" men!

NEW YORK ELECTIONS. At the charter election on Tuesday, Troy re-elected the Hon. Miles Beach (Democrat), for Mayor, and R. S. C. Jenks (Democrat), for Justice, unanimously, with an increased Democratic majority in the Common Council. The majority in the Nutseller Board of Supervisors is also largely Democratic. The county went Republican last November.

At Palmyra, Charles D. Johnson, Democratic candidate for Supervisor, was elected by 72 majority—a gain of 52 over the result of last year's election.

At Poughkeepsie the Democrat elected their candidate for Mayor, George Morgan.

At Yonkers the Democratic ticket was successful by large majorities. Elijah, Ovega and Hlea were carried by the Democrats.

The Republicans carried Rochester and Auburn.

At Onondaga the Democratic ticket carried the day. Hitherto the town has been Republican.

Lieut. JOHN C. BRAINE, late of the Connecticut Navy, has been pardoned and released. He immediately proceeded to Baltimore. He is completely broken down by his long imprisonment, and prematurely old.

GRANT'S CLAIM is made of very weak timber, and a poor job at that. Ellihu B. Washburn will continue to pull the strings which make the puppet dance, as heretofore. (Hah for Ellihu the First!

The present snow-bound condition of the Union Pacific Railroad is the best argument in favor of a more Southern route. Large quantities of mail matter are now detained, which much necessarily interfere materially with people transacting business over this route.

The Judiciary Committee of the Tennessee Senate is opposed to the State selling "General Jackson's" former residence, the "Hornings," and has reported in favor of the State retaining possession of it for all time to come.

The Dutch County Intelligencer says that since the passage of the gold contract bill by the House of Representatives, there is a "Greenback for Bonds" will be no more heard of. Perhaps not; if the Radical continue their present ruinous course, the cry will soon be "Nothing for Bonds," and the people will pay their taskmasters by the short and easy process of repudiation. If our rulers are wise, they will practice retrenchment, instead of merely preaching it.

"THE THUNDERER" is the name of a new and powerfully edited paper, published by Bromley & Co., 75 Gold street, New York. It contains many able written articles on national sins and follies, and tells many truths unwelcome to dishonest partisans. It considers the payment of the national debt impossible, and favors repudiation. It is likely to create a sensation. The address of the publishers is P. O. Box 4265, New York city.

The New Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, March 6. President Grant's Cabinet was confirmed yesterday, as follows: Secretary of State, Elihu B. Washburn, of Ill.; War, (temporarily), General Schofield; Treasury, A. T. Stewart, of New York; Navy, Adolph E. Borie, of Philadelphia; Interior, Jacob D. Cox, of Ohio; Postmaster General, J. A. J. Crosswell, of Maryland; Attorney General, Eben B. Hoar, of Mass. The President also nominated Columbus Delano, of Ohio, to be Internal Revenue Commissioner, vice Hollins, resigned; W. T. Sherman to be General; P. H. Sheridan, Lieutenant General; J. M. Schofield, Major General, and C. C. Auger, Brigadier General. All these nominations were confirmed with the Cabinet.

A woman called at a grocery store, in Norristown, recently, and in paying for some articles purchased, she offered some postage stamps for change. She didn't want any more stamps, for I don't want any more stamps, for I got some yesterday, and to keep them put them on the side of the house, but, the devil of one I could get off this morning."

So BUTLER SAYS.—There are sixty national bank directors in the House of Representatives. Hon. Wm. H. Burdett has been recommended for Congress by the Connecticut Democrat.

THE NEGRO SUFFRAGE BILL. After an unusual display of hesitation and inebriation on the part of both Houses of Congress, the negro suffrage constitutional amendment is now passed finally. The text of the bill is as follows:

Be it enacted, etc. Two-thirds of both Houses concurring, that the following amendment to the constitution of the United States be submitted to the legislatures of the several States, and when ratified by three-fourths thereof, it shall be a part of the Constitution. Sec. 1.—The right of the citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude. Sec. 2.—The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

It will now go out to the legislatures of all the States for ratification. The approval of three-fourths of them is requisite. This will require the radicals to control twenty-eight State legislatures. They have at this time not more than twenty-six in their power, and of these, there are several which cannot now be fully relied on to adopt the amendment. The radicals in Nevada will not ratify unless they have the assurance that Congress shall exercise the power conceded in the second section, as to exclude the Chinese from suffrage.

In Pennsylvania, it is by no means certain that this amendment will be adopted. It will have to be done now, for no succeeding legislature will be entrusted by the people with the power to transfer their rights to the general government. If the present legislature ratify it, the act will be as fraudulent an exercise of power as radicalism has yet ventured on. Its members were not chosen with reference to the question of this important amendment. Many of them owe their seats to sturdy denials that the subject of suffrage would be agitated. If they shall dare now to support its amendment, they will stand self-convicted of treason to their constituents, and of the violation of the most solemn duties they owe as representatives.

Every member of the legislature who shall vote to ratify this amendment, will vote to invite the people of the rest of the State to meddle in the most delicate and important concerns of Pennsylvania. The people of the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania await with thrilling interest the result in the Pennsylvania legislature.

Our readers can now see that our predictions all along as to the intent and purpose of the Republican party in regard to making the negro North and South a voter, were correct. They urged it on by step. Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Seward commenced by declaring, first, that the Government could not endure half slave and half free, and then, that "nobody was hurt," and then, by thinking that "little bell," which consigned scores of men to Fort Warren and Lafayette, then by "a Pope's Bull against the comet,"—then by putting the ballot into the hands of 750,000 debased negroes, fresh from slavery,—then followed the prostration of States and citizens of States,—then the giving negroes office and refusing even the ballot to tens of thousands of white men,—then came a reconstruction which put eleven States under the ban, "either be radical or come to be," was the command, and now comes the proposed amendment to the Constitution. Few people have descended so rapidly, and few have had such ocular evidence of how easy it is to raise the devil and how difficult to keep down his ghost. Where shall we pause? When shall we have peace in barnst?

Dissemination in Ohio, Ohio. On Thursday, the 11th inst., at Cadiz, Thomas Cowden, a colored man, was put on trial in the Court of Common Pleas, for the seduction under promise of marriage, of Lydia Amos, a white girl of 14 years. Previous to the trial the Sheriff of the county had attempted to do violence to the girl, and she fled to the Court to get up a posse and bring in the accused. The Sheriff accordingly armed a posse of men and the trial began. Miss Amos was put upon the witness stand and answered the questions of counsel with a flippancy and precocity truly remarkable, and admitted her criminality with a shameless effrontery equally remarkable. Immediately after the adjournment of Court for dinner, Miss Amos, in the presence of the Court, jury and bystanders, stepped up to the prisoner, presented a loaded revolver to his breast, snipped the cap, but failed to discharge the contents. She was immediately seized by the Sheriff and others and prevented from executing her purpose, although she struggled violently and made frequent attempts to do so, being a stout and muscular girl weighing probably 100 pounds. The Sheriff's posse were on hand and prevented the attempted violence to the prisoner by the other parties to the premeditated assassination, and quiet was finally restored. During the interval, Mr. Estep, who was attorney for the colored man, was notified to desert from further defense of his client and was threatened with violence in case of refusal. This Mr. Estep very promptly refused to do, upon the reassembling of Court Mr. Estep made a statement in open Court of what had transpired, and announced his determination to defend his client at all risk. At the conclusion of his remarks he asked to have the trial postponed until the prisoner could have a hearing. This motion was denied by the Court, and the trial proceeded without any further trouble. The jury returned a verdict of "not guilty." The prisoner was, however, tried immediately upon a charge of larceny and sent to the Penitentiary for five years. The charge was stealing goods (the girl's clothing) belonging to Mr. Amos, a respectable farmer with great sympathy for the colored race.—Stark Co. Democrat.

House or Revenue.—The officers of the House of Refuge get fifteen and one-half hours duty per day, one Sabbath a month, one-half hour for each meal, and starvation salaries. Is that the reason for the over-worked, anxious expression always on their faces?—Phila. Evening Star.
