

COMMERCIALS. Intended for publication in the Eagle must be accompanied by the name of the writer. The name will not be published unless so desired by the correspondent. Contributors should make their communications short and to the point. Our space is too limited for very long articles. Write only on one side of the paper, and plainly as possible, without flourishes. Correspondents who fail to receive their copy regularly, will confer a favor by sending notice of the office, where all complaints of irregularity or lateness of delivery will be promptly attended to. ADVERTISEMENTS are requested to hand in their copy for insertion in the Eagle before 10 o'clock in the morning. Copy must be in the hands of the printer not later than 12 o'clock. Single copy 5 cents. To press about 2 p. m. Payment in advance.

ENTRY CITIZENS. Especially every young man, should read the Valedictory of Ex-President Johnson, published in the Eagle. It breathes throughout the spirit of true patriotism—such a spirit as we would be happy to see prevalent throughout our country, instead of the wild fanaticism which is urging our nation onward to political and financial ruin.

WOMELSDORF.—In the matter of improvement of the beautiful Borough of Womelsdorf is not behind hand. Messrs. Bell & Schenker, Liquor Dealers, are completing a handsome double two-story brick residence. A handsome two-story frame residence is being finished—the property of Mr. Womelsdorf. The parsonage of the Methodist Church, formerly a brick house, is receiving the last coat of paint. It will be ready for occupation sometime next May.

The large three-story brick hotel at the depot, built by Mr. Isaac Kinsner, will be ready for use in a short time. It is built with all the improvements and conveniences that may be desired, and makes a handsome appearance, and reflects much credit upon its architect. Quite a number of houses will be built during next summer, and if the tide of improvement continues, in a few years Womelsdorf will rank among the larger towns in point of business and size.

The Hotel House, kept by Messrs. Bell & Schenker, is one of the best hotels in the town. It is supplied with accommodation for man and beast. Their bar is stocked with choice liquors, and the table well filled with all the market afford. Connected with the hotel is an extensive Livery Stable, guided thus having at command conveniences when desired. Omnibuses run to and from the depot. About the first of April, Mr. N. Knebel will assume entire control of the hotel, and we have no doubt will keep it up to its present good reputation.

TAX DUPLICATES SETTLED.—Harry Boyer, Collector of Antrim township, has settled his Tax Duplicate in full for 1892, for State and County Taxes.

OUR LOCAL.—Our local oamb to the conclusion this morning that this world is really made up of "ups and downs." He started out, determined to visit all his stations along the reportorial line; but he was obliged to change his program in a state of the weather. Coming to Ninth and Penn streets, wet and weary, and stopping a moment to take breath, all of a sudden a swoop of wind came along and he was carried to the air.

Bartholomew & Madolra, have just received a large lot of St. George codfish. People that advertise only once in three months, but that most folks cannot remember anything longer than a week.

Mrs. Grundy has returned to the city. All the news, and all the fresh inventions, will be issued in the speediest time.

The Reading Messenger will give another concert on Monday evening, March 20th.

An exhibition will be given by the Philadelphia School of Music, this evening, on Saturday next, March 13th, at the Union Hall, Boyertown.

Everywhere the welcome word is that what never looked better at this time of year. Travelers through all parts of our country concur in corroborating this pleasing report.

President Charles E. Smith, of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, has returned home to Philadelphia, after a residence of several weeks in the South for the benefit of his health.

Talking clubs are one of the latest fashions. They meet once a week, and some member talks fifteen minutes upon some subject, previously assigned to him.

Business men will be supplied with all kinds of job printing at reasonable rates by calling at this office.

Found parties are the latest new notion. Those invited are expected to contribute one penny at least of something to eat.

Our business men should keep an eye upon the Albany City National Bank, as counterfeits on the bank are in circulation. They are well executed and calculated to deceive good judges of money.

Teacher shows that among national monuments are ten pairs, horse bill, billiards, horseback and velocipede riding.

Four men sold one hundred and fifty boxes in one day in this city. A good business.

Why did people snip and snort over every little thing that married life does them no actual good, and makes all around feel disagreeable.

Everything in ladies' costumes now seem to be made of three materials—revel, velvet and heavy poplin. Silks were never less worn, while woools are obsolete.

Our exchanges agree upon the fact that there has been a steady decline in the price of flour for the past month. When it tumbles here we will make a note of it.

The demand for dwelling houses continues to increase throughout the city, and surrounding towns.

An Agricultural Convention is to be held in Harrisburg on the 10th of March; and we notice that delegates have been appointed to represent a number of County Societies.

Six families of this county will leave for the West on Monday next.

The extensive ore mines above Wernersville, on the Lebanon Valley Railroad, have suspended operations.

Several stables below the city have been robbed of harness within a few nights, the thieves leaving no traces behind.

Blue coats with gilt buttons are anticipated.

Mr. Gilbert bought of Mr. Samuel Bohler a lot of ground, situated in North Sixth street, for $3,000.

Mr. A. E. Grant sold his brick residence on Pine street, to Mr. Charles Weigand, a few days ago, for the sum of $1,200.

The City Hotel at Harrisburg was destroyed by fire this morning. Curious fortifications—the "Redoubts"—of the Reading Messenger, mentioned by a Reading Daily.

FRIDAY was pay day at the Depot, and money seemed to be plenty on the streets.

The housekeepers' market was not well attended this morning, owing to the disagreeable state of the weather. There was no change in prices.

PHILIP MILLER, Esq., will deliver the lecture of the Library Course on "The History of the Liberty of the Press," at 8 o'clock on Monday night. He has chosen as his subject, "The Liberty of the Press."

FROM YESTERDAY'S SECOND EDITION.

MICHAEL RINCE, a well known and highly respected citizen of West Brantwick township, Schuylkill county, died this morning, aged about 47 years.

PETRIFIED BODY.—The body of Mrs. Catherine Hippie, deceased, was brought from Kansas to Trenton on last Saturday by her son, Mr. John Hippie, in compliance with the dying request of John Hippie, Sr., who died in December last at his son's house in Trenton, for reinterment, in the lot in the Methodist B. cemetery, where Mr. Hippie is buried.

On Sunday afternoon the coffin was opened at the request of her sons, in the vestibule of the Lutheran church, where it was placed by the kindness of her many friends, awaiting a second burial. On the coffin being opened, although she had been buried for three years, the body was so completely petrified, and her features so preserved as to be recognized by her relatives and friends who gathered for the purpose of taking a view of her mortal remains. It was so heavy that six men could scarcely handle the coffin. —Pottsville Standard.

THE EAST MAINWAY TUNNEL, on the road between Tanques and Mahanoy City, Schuylkill county, has been widened so as to permit the passage of the wide passenger cars of the Reading Road. The work was done by the Company, under the Superintendence of Mr. John D. Breunan, and was accomplished in five weeks. The work was prosecuted day and night, with a force of some two hundred men, and the progress was rapid. The tunnel was completed on the evening of the 8th inst. and has a length of 1,100 feet.

FELL THROUGH A BRIDGE.—A man named Charles Longenecker, fell through a bridge some time last night, near Rohoboth, on the line of the Lebanon Valley Railroad, and was picked up this morning in an almost insupportable condition. He had been riding on the bridge, and had been thrown off by the sudden jarring of the car. He was hurt from the fall, but was suffering greatly from exposure. He was lying in the rain all night, unable to move, and would in all probability have died if he had remained there much longer. He was brought to this city, and medical aid summoned.

THE PENN. RESTAURANT, 702 Penn Street, has just been opened by Alton Leitinger. All kinds of the best eatables and drinkables always on hand. Meals served at all hours. The nearest bar-room in the city, with the best of wines, etc. Give him a call. —Mar 10-3d.

A YOUNG MAN, son of Solomon Rhoads, of Antrim township, Berks county, was considerably hurt, at Longswill, on Friday last. The horse becoming frightened at a passing engine, and starting suddenly, ran over the boy, cutting him severely about the head, and bruising him considerably about the body. —Montgomery Ledger.

A MODEL CONVENTION. Three Fights in One Day. PETERSBURG, Va., March 10.—The Republican State Convention of Virginia met at Petersburg, yesterday, Tucker, an opponent of Governor Wells, was declared temporary Chairman, whereupon a fight took place, which had to be quelled by the police. The Mayor then appeared, and appealed for peace to the rival candidates for Chairman. Another fight ensued, however, and the hall was cleared by the police. The Convention subsequently assembled at the African Church, where the disorder being renewed, the Mayor and police again interfered, and finally, under their supervision, a temporary organization was effected, after which the Convention adjourned until night.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS. WASHINGTON, March 9. In the Senate, the Public Credit bill was reported by the Finance Committee in the same form in which it passed last session. The supplementary Currency bill was also reported by the Commerce Committee.

Mr. Sherman moved to take up the bill to repeal the Tenure of Office act. The Vice President said it had been referred to the Judiciary Committee, and the only way to get it at would be to discharge the committee from its consideration.

Mr. Sherman made a motion to that effect, whereupon Mr. Sumner objected to its consideration, and it was laid over. Bills were introduced by Mr. Sherman, supplementary to the National Banking act; by Mr. Sumner, to secure copyright for paintings, sculptures, etc.; by Mr. Morton, granting right of way to the Memphis, El Paso and Pacific Railroad; and prohibiting Treasury sales of gold; by Mr. Ramsey, to facilitate telegraphic communication with Europe; by Mr. Corbett, for preservation of our harbors and navigable rivers against encroachments.

A message was received from the President, asking permission to withdraw his previous message in reference to Mr. Stewart's disability. On motion of Mr. Sumner, it was laid on the table, and on the motion of Mr. Springer, the request was granted.

The bill to protect fur-bearing animals in Alaska was passed in the same form as at the last session. In the House, the resignation as a member of Mr. E. B. Washburne, now Secretary of State, was presented.

Mr. G. Butler of Washington, was elected Chaplain. Mr. Maynard offered a resolution directing the Election Committee to investigate the Congressional election in Louisiana, which was adopted. Mr. Kelley re-introduced his bill for a new nickel coinage. Resolutions were adopted providing for a select committee on the census, one on rearmament, and increasing the number of the committees on pensions and Pacific railroad.

Mr. Boutwell offered a resolution, which was adopted, re-establishing the Committee on Reconstruction. Mr. Butler, of Massachusetts, offered a bill repealing the Tenure of Office act, which was passed—yeas 143, nays 16. The negatives, all Republicans, included Schenck, Jenckes, and Farnsworth. The House adjourned until Friday.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE. HARRISBURG, March 9.—In the Senate, about one hundred private bills were finally disposed of, among them the following:

By Mr. Davis, of Berks, an act for the relief of the Farmers' National Bank of Reading. Passed finally. By Mr. Davis, of Berks, an act to incorporate the Kutztown Savings' Bank. Passed finally.

By Mr. Wallace, of Clearfield, an act to incorporate the State Dental Society of Pennsylvania. Passed finally. An act fixing the pay of jurors in Berks and Lehigh at $2 a day and mileage. Passed finally.

An act regulating the pay of certain officers in Berks county. Passed finally. Adjourning to Wednesday morning. In the House, a number of private bills were read in place, and many others disposed of, among them the following:

An act to authorize the Auditor General to settle the claims of the Commonwealth for the bonus due on the capital stock of the Kaschwilliam coal company, upon the basis of the existing amount thereof. Passed finally. House bill punishing the buyers or receivers of scrap iron in this State, was passed and sent to the Senate.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY. WEDNESDAY, March 10. Major General Ames has been appointed to command the Fourth Military District. Walter H. Smith, of Ohio, has been appointed Solicitor of Internal Revenue, in place of Binkley, removed. David G. Gooding, U. S. Marshal for the District of Columbia, has resigned. Chas. A. Williams, a Post-office clerk in New York, has been arrested for stealing from the mails.

At Bridgeport, Ill., yesterday, the wife and two children of Maurice Fear were found dead in bed, and Fear himself was almost dead. They are believed to have been poisoned. Three men were killed and a fourth seriously injured by a boiler explosion at Nunda Station, Livingston county, N. Y., yesterday. The building, a flour and lumber mill, in which the boiler was placed, was partially destroyed.
