POLICE AFFAIRS.—Last night the sky was perfectly clear of clouds and the stars shone down upon a quiet city, free from disturbance of any kind. The pollcomen went their weary rounds, and every hour reported that they had nothing to report. The night scened much longer, because without a single incident to vary its monotony. The Station House had for occupants 13 lodgers, who slept soundly until this morning, and then departed, thankful they had the where to lay their heads on this cold, frosty March night. After all, our readers will agree with us that it is pleasant to have nothing of weak human nature to report to day in the shape of drunkenness, &c. So may it always be. THE Commissioners of Berks county have appointed John C. Reed, of Marion township, as Mercantile Appraiser for 1859. This is a good appolutment, and is in keeping with the excellent judgment of our efficient County Commissioners in such matters. 	with delicious game and fish if they were properly protected.
