THE DAILY EAGLE.

READING, PA.

MONDAY, MARCH 22, 1869.

THE Eagle Book Store, ADLER office, DAILY EAGLE and READING GAZETTE & DEMOCRAT have been removed to 542 Penn street, Schmucker House building, opposite the Keystone House.

MR. JACOB R. SCHREYER is our authorized agent to obtain subscriptions for the DAILY EAGLE, the GAZETTE AND DEMOCRAT, and the ADLER. He is now canvassing the county.

TRASHY PUBLICATIONS.

MAYNE REID, NED BUNTLINE, AND OTHER "SENSATION" WRITERS.

The number of trashy publications now in the market appears to be on the increase, and the amount of injury they are causing can scarcely be overestimated. Instead of endeavoring to acquire useful information, too many of the rising generation, of both sexes, spend their leisure hours in reading publications which are full to overflowing of the most silly and impossible deeds and sayings of imaginary heroes and heroines, of gallant idiot spies, heroic pirate chieftains, and mythical guerrillas. The young man or young woman who reads this class of books and newspapers soon becomes unfit for the real duties of this life. The youth despises his honest employment and becomes a worthless wanderer over land and sea, or goes to seek his fortune and find his ruin in some large city. The girl acquires a distaste for the duties of home life, and anxiously waits for the nobleman in disguise who is to be her future husband, and the consequence is that she either leads a discontented and fretful life, or else becomes the prey of some well dressed libertine and ends her days in a brothel or an almshouse.

Among the many works of this kind we may mention Mayne Reid's magazine, "Onward,"—a work which we are sorry to see respectable newspapers commending to the attention of their readers. It pretends to be published for the good of the young men of America, when in truth [illegible] to lead misstatements in regard to our late war, which the writer, though a boastful soldier, took no part in, because, as he says, he was "absent from our shores." That a man assuming to possess so much courage and patriotism should remain "absent" four long years at such a time, is rather a strange circumstance. It seems as though he is either a coward or a man who cared but little what the result of the conflict might be. At any rate, a writer who was absent from the country during the entire war is very poorly qualified to act as a critic in regard to the actions of armies and their officers.

His tales of Mexico and South America are equally trashy and improbable. He wastes many words in his efforts to make himself appear a hero, and almost as many in his attempts to convey the impression that he was a dashing cavalry officer. In truth, he was a mere captain of New York volunteer infantry in the Mexican war, and if he was anything of a horseman his friends have yet to discover the fact. His statement that Gen. Kearney was a New Yorker disproves his claim to an acquaintance with that brave, but imprudent soldier, who was a native of New Jersey, a commander of a New Jersey brigade, and a resident and property owner in New Jersey at the time of his death, and for years previously, at various times.

Reid garnishes his works with a smattering of bad Spanish, to exhibit his superior knowledge of languages, and describes in glowing terms the beauties of South American life, without endeavoring to warn the youth of our country against the terrible epidemics, the annoying insects, the deadly serpents, the ferocious beasts, and the indolent, treacherous and dangerous natives of that land of negro equality. Many an unfortunate wanderer over the sandy wastes and malarious hot-beds of rank vegetation in Mexico and South America, has cursed such authors as Mayne Reid and Ned Buntline, for imbuing his youthful mind with a desire for a roving life amidst the imaginary delights (!) of a tropical climate.

Instead of commending the works of such authors, every respectable newspaper should denounce them, and warn its readers against their evil effects.

We shall have more to say upon this subject hereafter.

BEAST BUTLER continues to quarrel with his fellow-Radicals in the House. In a quarrel with Schenck, last week, the Vienna Humbug used such language that any one but a coward like Butler would have resented it on the spot. On Thursday he quarreled with Kelley, of Pennsylvania, in regard to a "put up job" of furnishing nickel to the government, in which both were pecuniarily interested. The Beast is despised by all, even by his own party, who hate him while they use him as a tool.

"Will the coming nation feed on straw?"—Revolution.

If the "coming nation" consists of Radicals, they should be fed on straw and thistles exclusively—the usual food of other donkeys.

The Public Credit Bill.

The "Public Credit bill," as it is generally called, the proper title of which is "An act to strengthen the public credit of the United States," has passed both houses of Congress and has been signed by the President, and is therefore a law. The bill is as follows:

"Be it enacted, &c., That in order to remove any doubt as to the purpose of the government to discharge all just obligations to the public creditor, and to settle conflicting questions and interpretations of the laws, by virtue of which such obligations have been contracted, it is hereby provided and declared that the faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment in coin or its equivalent of all interest bearing obligations of the United States, except in cases where the law authorizing the issue of such obligations has expressly provided that the same may be paid in lawful money, or other currency than gold or silver; but none of said interest bearing obligations not already due shall be redeemed or paid before maturity, unless at such time United States notes shall be convertible into coin at the option of the holder, or unless at such time bonds of the United States, bearing a lower rate of interest than the bonds to be redeemed, can be sold at par in coin; and the United States shall also solemnly pledge its faith to make a provision at the earliest practical period for the redemption of the United States notes in coin."

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 20.

In the Senate, Mr. Fenton introduced a bill prohibiting secret sales of gold.

A bill fixing the status of judge advocate in the army was reported and indefinitely postponed.

A resolution was adopted for the appointment of a select committee of nine on political disabilities.

Mr. Sumner offered a joint resolution making the rates of ocean postage the same as those on land, which was referred.

The Tenure-of-Office Act was discussed.

The House was not in session.

THE WORKING PEOPLE.—The tin roofers of New York state that they are receiving $4 per day.

The Bricklayers' Union, of New York, state that wages in that trade vary from $4 50 to $6 50 per day.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

MONDAY, March 22.

The nominations of Wm. A. Richardson as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, and Joseph R. Smith as Revenue Assessor for the Second Pennsylvania District, have been confirmed by the Senate.

A delegation of Pennsylvania Congressmen, headed by Senator Cameron, had an interview with the President on Saturday, in relation to the distribution of offices.

In the Arkansas House of Representatives on Friday, resolutions were introduced vacating the office of Speaker on account of non-residence, and deposing the

At Havana, on Saturday, [illegible] of political prisoners for Fernando Po, was witnessed by thousands of people. Disturbances occurred, and a Cuban was shot dead by the soldiers. The people afterwards shot and killed Police Commissary Romera, and a thief was shot by court-martial.

In New York, on Saturday evening, Prince Louis, of Bourbon, was married to Miss Emilia Hamil, of Cuba.

A fight between white and colored troops, in which several were killed, is reported to have occurred at Fort Lyon, New Mexico, on Thursday night.

The revenue officials in Tennessee are seizing illicit distilleries in the mountain districts, with the assistance of United States soldiers.

A negro, named Cain, is in jail at Chambersburg, charged with an atrocious assault upon three young ladies, near that town. On Friday night a mob surrounded the jail, and threatened to lynch him, but were induced to disperse. The prison is now under guard.

Our Wernersville Letter.

WERNERSVILLE, March 22d, 1869.

EDITOR DAILY EAGLE:—Business has been very brisk generally during the past few days. A considerable amount of grain has changed hands here. Within a very short time G. M. Weber, dealer in grain, coal and lumber, has received about 3000 bushels of various kinds of grain. The prices were from $1.50 to $1.60 for wheat, rye $1.40, corn 80 cts., and oats 60 cts. per bushel. A large supply of the St. Clair shaft pea coal, an excellent article, is also being received by Mr. Weber. No lumber has arrived for some days. Business in other departments is also pretty lively, which makes considerable stir in our town. The limestone quarries are shipping largely, and employ a number of men. They are employed by Eyrich & Co. The marble quarry of Hiester & Co., will probably not commence operations before the 1st of April.

I regret to announce the death of our Brother John Yoh, who died on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. He is the third brother of this family who has died within a year. He was a faithful and respected member of the B. U. (H. F.) C. A. He will be buried on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, at Hain's Church—funeral to proceed from his father's residence—with appropriate ceremonies by the Lodge of which he was a member. Rev. A. C. Pauli will officiate.

The Order of B. U. (H. F.) C. A. is quite strong in this place, the Lodge having the most members of any one in the State, outside of Philadelphia. They are about building a large Hall, nearly a sufficient amount of stock having been sold to warrant the commencement of the work.

The roads, except the turnpike, are in a bad condition, on account of the deep mud, caused by alternate freezing and thawing. The bad weather has put our farmers back somewhat, as they are unable to haul their posts, rails, &c.

Moving has been tolerably lively for the past few days.

The election in this (Lower Heidelberg) township came off on Friday, with the following result:

Justice of the Peace—C. Spohn, Dem.; Judge—Isaac Yost, Dem.; Inspectors—F. B. Smith, Rep.; Nathaniel Moyer, Dem.; School Directors—Daniel R. Seltzer, Dem.; Samuel Stout, Rep.; Constable—Isaac B. Stout, Dem.; Supervisors—John A. Weitzel, Dem.; Daniel Greth, Dem.; Assessor—Wm. Beecher, Dem.; Treasurer—D. B. Bucks, Dem.; Auditor—Elijah Beard, Rep.

Yours truly, G.

TO PHYSICIANS.

NEW YORK, August 15th, 1867.

Allow me to call your attention to my PREPARATION OF COMPOUND EXTRACT BUCHU. The component parts are BUCHU LONG LEAF, CUBEBS, JUNIPER BERRIES.

MODE OF PREPARATION.—Buchu, in vacuo. Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebs extracted by displacement by liquor obtained from Juniper Berries, containing very little sugar, a small proportion of spirit, and more palatable than any now in use. The active properties are by this mode extracted.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists generally, is of a dark color. It is a plant that owns its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and gluttonous decoction. Mine is the color of ingredients. The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopœa, nor is it a Syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exists. In this you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.

Hoping that you will favor it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation, With a feeling of confidence,

I am, very respectfully,
H. T. HELMBOLD.

Chemist and Druggist ca. 16 Years' Experience in Philadelphia, and now located at his Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, New York.

[From the largest Manufacturing Chemists in the World.]

I am acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold; he, occupied the Drug Store opposite my residence and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.

WILLIAM WEIGHTMAN.

Firm of Powers & Weightman, Manufacturing Chemists, Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU, for weakness arising from indiscretion. The exhausted powers of nature which are accompanied by so many alarming symptoms, among which will be found, Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Memory, Wakefulness, Horror of Disease, or Forebodings of Evil, in fact, Universal Lassitude, Prostration, and inability to enter into the enjoyments of society.

The Constitution, once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity ensues.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU, in affections peculiar to Females, is unequalled by any other preparation, as in Chlorosis, or Retention, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus State of the Uterus, and all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudence, or in the decline or change of life.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH will radically exterminate from the system diseases arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or exposure; completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiva and Mercury, in all these diseases.

USE HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU in all diseases of the organs, whether in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, "immediate" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.

Those suffering from broken-down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that, however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect the bodily health and mental powers.

All the above diseases require the aid of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is the greatest Diuretic.

Sold by Druggists everywhere. Price—$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.

Address H. T. HELMBOLD, Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, N. Y.

THIS COMPANY INSURES ALL kinds of property against loss or damage by fire at rates as low as any other reliable Company and upon every plan known to Stock Insurance Companies.

Perpetual Policies issued requiring no renewal and upon which the amount of premium paid can be reclaimed at any time less a deduction of five per cent. The advantages of this method are worthy of the attention of farmers and others having first-class dwelling houses, barns and outbuildings, in town or country, as being the cheapest and safest.

Policies for one, two, three, five or more years, or for less than one year, issued and no charge made for Policy and survey when renewed or when insurances are transferred from other companies.

The citizens of Reading and vicinity, hitherto dependent mainly upon foreign companies, have now the privilege of protecting their insurances in a home institution, well organized, with an adequate capital in and guaranteed capital, presenting as strong a basis of security as that of any other company. The advantage of doing business directly with the Company and the importance of keeping some portion of the large sums paid for insurances in circulation at home, will be appreciated by all.
