Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Hyde Park Readers.

FIRST SERVICES IN NEW CHURCH

The Members of the Westminster Presbyterian Church Worship Yesterday in the New Edifice—Clarke Brothers Pleasantly Surprised by Their Employes—Interesting Notes of the Day's Doings.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 128 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.]

The members of the Westminster Presbyterian church held the first services in their new church at Sumner avenue and Price street yesterday morning. As the seats are not in position in the auditorium the services were held in the lecture room. Excellent sermons were preached by the pastor, Rev. R. G. Jones, a zealous worker who is partly responsible for the rapid progress the church has made during the past two years. The structure is very imposing. The size is 48 1/2 by 80 feet, and is divided into two sections, namely, the lecture room and the auditorium proper. These two rooms are connected by means of a large archway which can be curtained when the services are confined to but one of the rooms. The wood work inside is finished in oak. The walls are of white. There are three entrance doors, two on Sumner avenue and one side door on Price street. The outside of the edifice is painted white trimmed with drab. The upper portion of the structure is finished with fancy shingling of next design. On the eastern side of the building the pulpit is placed. It is surrounded by a handsome oak railing and adorned with three large chairs finished in walnut. The rooms are illuminated by means of incandescent lights. The ceilings are thickly dotted with these lights, and the effect of their radiance is very striking. The windows are of stained glass. The large glass for the central front window representing 'The Good Shepherd' has not yet arrived. The seating capacity of the auditorium is 300 and the lecture room 250, making a total of 550. The building is heated by steam, large radiators being conveniently placed throughout. The hot water furnace is placed in the cellar. The pews are finished in walnut. They will be placed in position in a very short time. The inside doors leading from the entrances are covered with red baize cloth. The church is the recipient of a handsome bell, presented by W. T. Smith, owner of the Mt. Pleasant mine. The members are very grateful to Mr. Smith for this grand token. The building is fully finished, and can rank among the leading churches of the West Side. The building with the lot included, cost $8,000. Never before has any church on this side shown the perseverance that has been displayed by the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church. Two years ago it was a struggling congregation of a few, but now, through the strenuous efforts of Rev. R. G. Jones and Bezael Davis, it numbers 200.

Gift to Clarke Bros.

The employes of Clarke Bros' mammoth stores agreeably surprised the members of the firm on Friday evening by making each of them a nice present. Charles Helms, one of the popular clerks, made the speech and presented E. M. Clarke with a handsome cane and G. W. Clarke a smoking set. Both members of the firm responded feelingly.

During the evening songs were rendered by P. H. Warren, John Hogan, Charles Helms, William Mullen and Miss Kate Seaton and dancing and games served to pass away the evening. Those present were Miss Morgan, Miss Thornton, Miss Kate Gallagher, Miss Lena Foster, Miss Maggie Burns, Miss McDonough, Miss Walkin, Miss Kate Saul, Miss O'Donnell and Miss Coyne and P. H. Warren, William O'Connor, Joseph Joyce, T. P. Waldron, John Hogan, Frank Walters, Arthur Williams, William Griffiths, Thomas O'Boyle, Charles Helms, William Crimmins, Andrew Healey, John McManne, James Hudson, M. H. Lynn, John McHale, Price Thomas and William Miller.

Funeral of Edward Schoon.

Services over the remains of Edward Schoon, the young man who died at the home of his father, Simon Schoon, of Frink street, on Thursday last, were conducted yesterday afternoon at 2 30 o'clock in the Chestnut Presbyterian church, by the pastor, Rev. F. P. Pompe. The church was filled with the friends and relatives of the young man, who had assembled to pay their last tribute to one so loved. The floral tributes were many and handsome in design. The pall bearers were William Leonard, Jacob Gallack, William Jones, John Canterbury and William Witzel. Interment was made in Washburn Street cemetery.

Broke Her Leg.

Mable Derahimer, the interesting young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Derahimer, of Eynon street, sustained a severe and painful injury while skating on Saturday last. Miss Derahimer was on the Brickyard pond in company with several of her companions, while skating her skate caught on some article in her path and she fell to the ice. When picked up it was found that her leg was broken. She was removed to her home, and is now resting easily.

Dogs Engage in Combat.

Two dogs engaged in combat yesterday afternoon on North Hyde Park avenue, and great excitement prevailed for some time. Both animals fought savagely and were badly injured. A great crowd was attracted to the scene, and it took the combined efforts of three men to separate them.

TRIBUNE EMPLOYEES SERENADED

The Walter Lake Minstral Band Pays a Midnight Visit. The new year was ushered in at THE TRIBUNE office by a serenade from the band of the Walter Lake Minstral company which played to very large audiences at Music hall on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

RUN DOWN BY A TROLLEY CAR.

Little Sadie Burns Steps in Front of a Green Ridge Car. Sadie Burns, a 5-year-old girl, whose home is in Avoca, was run down and badly injured by car 46 of the Green Ridge line on Lackawanna avenue Saturday afternoon. The car was in charge of Conductor White and Motorman O'Donnell.

The child had been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Thomas O'Neill, in Green Ridge, and was with Mrs. O'Neill doing some shopping in the city. When in front of Merceran & Connell's store Mrs. O'Neill and her niece started to cross the street, and the little one, without knowing the danger, stepped directly in front of the approaching car. The motorman applied the brake so hard that the car wheels slid, and to this fact the child owes her life, for instead of passing over her body, the wheels pushed her along. She was carried into Matthews Bros. drug store, and Drs. O'Brien and Gardner summoned. It was found that no bones were broken, but the child was suffering from internal injuries. She was later removed to the hospital, and yesterday her parents took her home.

DINNER TO YALE MEN.

It Was Given by Joseph M. Boies in Honor of Mr. Cleland. A very pleasant dinner was given by Joseph M. Boies at his parents home on Clay avenue Saturday evening to the Yale men in town. The dinner was given in honor of Mr. Cleland who is spending the holidays with Mr. Boies.

The dining room was very tastefully decorated with Yale blue. Those present were Colonel Boies, Al G. Hunt, Joseph Archibald, Everett Hunt, Theodore Connell, Thomas Archibald, Nat Wallace, of New York, Joseph Boies, Paul Belin, James Archibald, Harry Boies, Ezra B. Connell, Guy Stevens and Mr. Cleland.

MRS. CATHERINE COLEMAN DEAD.

Passed Away at the Advanced Age of Seventy-six Years. Mrs. Catherine H. Coleman, widow of Alexander Coleman, died at 1 o'clock yesterday morning at the residence of her son, A. H. Coleman, on Jefferson avenue. She was aged 76 years and 5 months.

Mrs. Coleman is survived by two sons and two daughters. They are A. H. W. A. and Miss Hattie Coleman, of this city, and Mrs. C. L. Wheeler, of Cocheaton, N. Y.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH CHOIR

Tallie Morgan Chosen to Succeed Horace E. Hand as Musical Director. Horace E. Hand, who has been the musical director of the First Presbyterian Church choir for many years, has resigned, and Tallie Morgan has been engaged for the position for the coming year.

Mr. Hand has given the church most excellent service during his time as chorister and in many respects that he decided to resign. The church will have no choir for the present, and Mr. Morgan will direct the congregational singing, and Miss Stella Seymour will continue to act as organist.

GRAND FROST reception will be given by Jack Frost and his cortege of assistants on Jan. 1 and 2 in the Park Place Methodist Episcopal church, consisting of entertainment of recitations, vocal singing, instrumental pieces and conjuring art, gallery and conjuring lunch. Oyster supper will be served in five different ways during the evening. Admission free.
