ANNUAL TURN-VEREIN FESTIVAL.

Christmas Exercises Held by the Society

In Its Hall. The Scranton Turn-Verein held its annual Christmas festival in the hall on North Seventh street Sunday evening. There was a large attendance and the affair was a most enjoyable one. At each end of the stage was a large Christmas tree towering up to the roof. They were very prettily decorated with ornaments and every tree bore about fifty small candles. On the floor of the hall tables and chairs were arranged and refreshments were served while the entertainment was in progress. The concert was given by the pupils of the turning school and the programme rendered was one of much literary and musical worth. Several first class tableaux were also presented. Those who took part in the entertainment were Margaret Fahrenhold, Grace Suydam, Julie Zinke, Alma Wehlauf, Margaret Hoesche, Anna Boebelkamp, Jennie Noth, Mamie Fuhrman, Belle Feinberg, Rose Kugler, Kate Bolz, Martha Boebelkamp, Helen Worman, Albert Hoffman, Carl Bahr, Victor Noth.

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Hyde Park Readers.

NEW YEAR'S DAY OBSERVED

The Incoming Year Given a Very Lively Reception—Columbia Hose Company's New House Inspected—Sunday School Officers Elected—Shooting Match at Taylor—Death of Mrs. Daniel Evans—Other News of the Day.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 123 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.]

New Year's day, as it was observed on this side yesterday will be one long to be remembered. The clang of the bells, and the noise of gongs announced the new year. A few moments later, the streets which were almost deserted, were filled with young men, blowing upon vicious fish horns and other articles capable of provoking noise. Small bodies of singers soon gathered and they went off in several directions to serenade the residents. Sweet melody floated on the air, and 3 o'clock had struck before the noise had abated. Services were held in some of the churches and were largely attended. The brick yard pond, a popular resort for lovers of skating, was completely covered with skaters during the day. On account of the great crush of people, several of the younger ones were knocked down and thus sustained severe bruises and sprained ankles. In the evening the celebrators went to the museum and various societies held throughout the city. Never before did the new year receive such a welcome.

Columbia Hose House Inspected. A meeting of the committees of the councils of the fire department was held yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the new Columbia hose house on Division street. The following were present: Select council, Captain William Kellow, chairman, F. W. Schwenk and O. P. Miller; common council, E. E. Robathan, chairman, G. J. Dahlgg and H. E. Farber, chief of the fire department. The meeting was for the purpose of looking over the building before accepting it. The meeting was held in the reception room, and the committee then went through the different rooms for the final inspection. This was done and everything was found satisfactory. Chief Farber stated the building was a model one and well adapted for such quarters.

Officers Elected. The members of the Sunday School of the Calvinistic Methodist church have elected the following officers for the ensuing term: Superintendent, W. R. Williams, vice president, David H. Evans; secretary, Ely Harris; treasurer, William Roberts; catechist, Rev. Hugh Davis, pastor; librarians, Gilbert Thomas and Reesa H. Williams. The teachers appointed were Reesa C. Powell, Morris T. Williams, Daniel Moses, D. C. Powell, Isaac Smith, Evan Miles, John Edward Jehu, Miss Lizzie Parry, Miss Diana Morgan, Miss Mary J. Evans, Mrs. Margaret Roberts and Miss Ellen Williams. Officers of the Scranton Street Baptist church have been elected as follows: Superintendent, William H. Morris; secretary, George Asbury; treasurer, Miss Mattie Watkins; chorister, Dr. T. M. Sanderling; organist, Miss Mattie Hutchingson; teacher of primary department, Miss Mattie Watkins; organist for the latter department, Miss Moore; librarian, Prindle Long.

Entertainment and Social. An entertainment and social will be given by Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians Board of Erin, on Jan. 5. The following carefully prepared programme will be rendered: Remo's, Chairman, T. J. Bilbow Piano Solo, Mrs. F. J. Mallott Vocal Solo, Laurence Ketrick Song and Dance.

Frank Mallott and Partner Address. John H. Carroll, Fall River, Mass. Recitation, Miss Mame Cooper Comic Sketch—"The Baggage Room."

Mrs. Daniel Evans Dead. Mrs. Mary Jane Evans, wife of Daniel Evans, died late on Sunday evening at her home on Avenue C. Bellevue. She was an earnest Christian woman, possessing many fine qualities. She was 53 years of age. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Services will be held in the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, by Rev. J. T. Morris. Interment in the Washburn Street cemetery.

A Shooting Match. About 2,000 people attended the shooting match in Taylor yesterday afternoon between Clem Marsh, of this side, and David Davis, of Taylor. Davis allowed Clem a dead bird. Fifteen birds apiece were shot at, out of which Marsh killed twelve and Davis killed eleven of the birds. Clem won by a bird. The prize was $100.

Funeral of George Evans. The funeral of George W. Evans, of 126 Chestnut street, who died on Saturday last, after a long illness, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late home. Interment will be made in the Washburn Street cemetery. Mr. Evans was 35 years of age, and well known on this side.

Personal and Otherwise. Don't forget the great bargains in real estate. At Forest House at 10 a. m. New Year's, J. M. C. Rank will sell his house and lot, 418 Vine, and office, 317 Spruce streets. Positive sale. See handbill. A visiting friend here. John H. Williams, of Wilkes-Barre, visited friends on this side yesterday. Mrs. Henry Colville, of Cincinnati, O., who has been visiting friends on this side for some time past, has returned home.

David Morgan, of Lafayette street, is recovering from the effect of blood poisoning. Mrs. C. M. Winscott, of Indianapolis, is visiting relatives on South Main avenue. Miss Carrie Long, of this side, is the guest of friends in Stroudsburg. A child of Mr. and Mrs. George Mose, of North Fillmore avenue, died yesterday.

Edward and Will Holton, of Kingsport, are visiting friends on this side. Miss Mabel Dersheimer, the young girl on Eynon street, who had her leg broken a few days ago by skating, is improving rapidly. Miss Kate Gregory, of Tenth street, is the guest of friends in Wyoming.

SCRANTONIANS IN CARBONDALE.

They Were Examining Carbondale's New Hotels in Billy Craig's Interest. Peter Ziegler, Conrad Schroeder, Charles Robinson and Victor Koch, of Scranton, were in the city yesterday afternoon. Their mission was to inspect the new hotel properties that are in process of erection. They came in the interest of Deputy Sheriff Craig who is contemplating the proprietorship of the Hotel American. In company with Mr. Craig they visited the new hotel and appeared delighted with its appearance and arrangement. These gentlemen are among the prominent men of the county seat and are the backers of Mr. Craig in his new departure.

It is generally understood that Mr. Craig has received the refusal of the houses at the time when a definite rental can be fixed upon. At present this cannot be arrived at, as the total sums required for the finishing and finishing of the structure are not known.

Mr. Craig is one of the most genial of men, a hustler in every sense of the word and would make an excellent landlord, having had considerable experience in the business. A consultation was had between the parties in interest yesterday, but no final decision was reached. Mr. Koch later visited the Hotel American in which it is hinted he would like to install his brother John Koch a hotel man of the widest experience. The latter will be remembered as the proprietor some years ago of the Central Park garden in New York, which was the fashionable resort of the city and where Theodore Thomas' full orchestra gave two concerts daily. Later he kept a celebrated restaurant in Paris which was the resort of all the leading men of the day.—Carbondale Leader.

WILSON TARIFF AND DISASTER.

The Manager of a Local Industry Expresses His Views. The American Economist recently wrote to prominent business men in all parts of the country for opinions as to the effect which would follow the enactment of the Wilson tariff bill in the present form. The issue dated Dec. 29 ult., contains the following letter from the manager of the Green Ridge Iron works:

"After carefully considering the proposed new tariff bill, of which I have a copy before me, I can only conclude that it would follow the enactment of the Wilson tariff bill in the present form. The effect upon the business of the country. The effect upon the iron industry, in which I am personally interested, will be disastrous. How can it be otherwise, with a reduced tariff of about $10 per ton, when everything excepting labor is at its lowest ebb at present? Wages will surely be reduced to the level of paper labor in England. Nothing will be more sure than this; and the purchasing power of the people will be at least fifty per cent less than it is today, excepting always the rich man, who has large amounts stored away in our banks. His purchasing power will be increased to the same extent. These are facts which I defy any freetrader to disprove. D. B. ATHERTON."

DEATH DUE TO HEART FAILURE.

Verdict of Coroner's Jury in the Death of William Kelly. Sunday afternoon William Kelly, of Archbald, was found dead in bed by his wife. Reports that he had been murdered were circulated and Coroner Kelly was sent for by the relatives of the deceased.

Yesterday afternoon the coroner held an inquest at the residence of the family in Archbald. It was discovered that Mr. Kelly had not been in good health for the best few days and that he had been a sufferer from chronic ailments for the past fifteen years. The jury retired and in about ten minutes returned a verdict to the effect that the deceased had come to his death by heart failure. The jury was composed of John Fitzsimmons, P. G. Roche, F. P. Holmes, Timothy Burke, Edward Burke and Thomas Duff.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

BAD TRIO UNDER ARREST.

Cyclone Kate and Her Boon Companions Caught by the Police. As a way of turning over a new leaf for the benefit of the community at large, the police Sunday afternoon raided a disorderly house on Robinson street kept by a family named Connors.

Kate Boylan, better known as "Cyclone Kate," was found drunk under a table. Mr. and Mrs. Connors were also gathered in. Maggie Montgomery was in the place, but when she heard the clang of the patrol wagon bell in front of the house she escaped by jumping from a rear window.

PRESENT FOR THE MONHAGENS.

Crystal Hose Company Will Remember Their Middletown Friends. The Crystal Hose company has had on exhibition in the display windows of C. B. Pratt on Lackawanna avenue, a large, handsome frame, containing cabinet portraits of all the members of the company. This frame will be presented to the Monhagen Hose company, of Middletown, N. Y., whose guests the Crystals were during the annual firemen's parade in that city. D. T. Newman, president of the Crystals and H. R. Madison went to Middletown yesterday and presented the remembrance.

The best place in Scranton to get a nice oyster stew or fry is at A. L. Van Horn's oyster house and dining room at 130 Franklin avenue. Shell oysters a specialty.

SCRANTON TRIBUNE.

WANTS HIS PASS RENEWED.

Application That was Received by General Manager Archer. The announcement in Saturday's TRIBUNE that ninety Traction company passes had been cut off by General Manager Archer caused a good deal of worry among those who were so fortunate to possess numbered bits of paste board during the past year.

The following application accompanied a 1893 street car pass, horribly mutilated, which was received by Manager Archer, Saturday afternoon: Its tattered and torn, this old street car pass. Its beauty and value are things of the past. It has served a good purpose you can see by the wear. That is marked over its surface, with dirt and with tear.

Like the year it was good for, 'tis forced to another that bears '04 on its face. For the year '04 is a memory now; With it pass that is useless I you now enow.

With prayers that are humble, overflowing with hope, its renewal is asked from the kind Traction. Their officials I'll bless from the first to the last. If they only will give me a '04 pass.

OFFICERS FOR SCRANTON CASTLE.

They Were Elected for the ensuing Year at Friday Evening's Meeting. The regular meeting of Scranton Castle, No. 137, was held last Friday, when business of importance was transacted prior to closing the term. The Castle will open the next term on Friday, Jan. 5, with an entertainment and refreshments for visiting knights when it is expected a very large attendance of sir knights will be present.

The following officers will serve the ensuing term: Sir knight commander, James Williamson; sir knight vice commander, G. Fenne; sir knight outside guard, A. Heim; sir knight recording scribe, A. J. Lehman; sir knight financial scribe, W. A. Andrews; sir knight treasurer, W. F. Loftus; sir knight assistant recording scribe, J. H. Gray; sir knight chief of staff, J. H. Decker; sir knight, assistant chief of staff, J. H. Fenne; sir knight inside guard, C. Kellerman; sir knight outside guard, W. S. Langstaff was duly nominated for school controller and Main Joyce was nominated for scribe. WILLIAM COUGHLIN, GEORGE W. KEYS, Vigilance Committee.

GRAND Frost reception will be given by Jack Frost and his cortege of assistants on Jan. 1 and 2, in the Park Place Methodist Episcopal church; consisting of entertainment of recitations, vocal singing, instrumental pieces and conundrum art gallery and conundrum lunch. Oyster supper will be served in five different ways during the evening. Admission free.

SCRANTON, Dec. 28, 1893. A Republican caucus was held in the Twenty-first ward, First District, on Thursday night. W. S. Langstaff was duly nominated for school controller and Main Joyce was nominated for scribe. WILLIAM COUGHLIN, GEORGE W. KEYS, Vigilance Committee.
