The Scranton Athletic club held a largely attended meeting last evening and decided to attend the funeral of their late fellow member, Edward McMahon, in a body. The club will assemble at its rooms at 1.30 p. m. today. The club will celebrate its tenth anniversary some time this month and the members hoped that they would be able to celebrate with unbroken ranks. The only other person to die, since the club was organized, who had any connection with it, was William Scholl, but at the time of death, he had ceased to be a member.

Royal Arcanum Hoisting.
When the Electric City Council of the Royal Arcanum was organized by Victor H. Laner, forty-nine gentlemen signified their willingness to become members. At the first meeting, when organization was effected and officers elected, only seventeen members were present. Since then, however, those who want in have been most persistent and have succeeded in inducing many of the original signers to enter into fellowship with them. At present the membership is thirty-five, and those that are in are determined to get with them, not only the fourteen who have proven unwavering, but they intend to make it the strongest council in the city.

That Impudent Tramp.
Mrs. Simon Sehener had an experience with the tramp that visited Father Christ's residence on Tuesday, prior to his visit at the parsonage. She offered him a cheese sandwich, but he refused the lunch and thought he would fare better at the priest's house. Michael Miller, the Cedar avenue undertaker, offered the same fellow work earlier in the day but was told to give his work to some one who wanted it. Father Christ's house seems to be the mecca for tramps. Three consecutive nights last week two different men called and asked the price of a night's lodging. The men got 25 cents each for three nights, but the two that came the fourth night fell into Officer Flaherty's hands and instead of silver they were treated to leather.

No Money to Spend.
A TRIBUNE reporter asked Park Commissioner Colonel Ripple yesterday if there was any work about the park that could be done to advantage. Colonel Ripple replied: "Men might be put to work, for the sake of giving them employment in blasting out drives and walks, but there is no money. Besides the money appropriated by the city, we have expended $2,000 that was given us by Mr. Cornell."

Personal Mention.
Motorman Thomas J. Gallagher has been confined to his room since Sunday with a severe cold. Druggist H. C. Haak has returned from a New Year's call on his parents at Pine Grove. The Carpenters' union and Badenser Vereln attended the funeral of Fridolin Seltraker yesterday. Michael Kelly is a candidate for common council in the Twentieth ward and promises to stay till the polls close.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP was used for years as a prescription by a successful physician. It is in all respects the best cough medicine made today. Sold by all dealers on a guarantee of satisfaction.

Davis, David Thomas, George Morgan, John Jenkins and John Edwards.

Car Collides with a Wagon.
The Swatland street electric car, No. 37, collided with the Eureka laundry delivery wagon on Swatland street yesterday morning. The laundry wagon was coming out of Decker's court and was unobscured by the motorman. Owing to the narrowness of the street the driver could not get out of the way of the car, which was coming down the grade. The wagon was badly damaged and the driver had a narrow escape from injury.

EDITORIAL, PEN A CITY BREVITY OR PERSONAL

Editorial, pen a city brevity or personal. Editor Boyd can compose verse of an excellent quality. Two of his compositions have been set to music and have been issued by Mr. Boyd. They are "Dancing the Baby," a bright, lively waltz song, with all the elements of popularity, and "A Letter from Mother," a ballad full of pathos and feeling. Both songs are of the popular order and can be whistled or sung after having been heard once or twice.

TWO WELL PLEASED AUDIENCES.

Fattinizz and Bask Hussar Produced by the Baker Company. The Baker Opera company produced the tuncful opera, "Fattinizz," at the Academy yesterday afternoon. The work of the principals was very good and was liberally applauded. One of the most pleasing features of the performance was the reading of Miss Brastle Howard in the second act. As an elocutionary effort it was excellent, and showed Miss Howard to be the possessor of more than ordinary ability as a reader.

In the evening a crowded house attended the production of "The Black Hussar." The leading members of the Baker organization were happily cast and the opera was sung with much vim. Arthur Woolley created much laughter by his admirable comedy work, in which he was ably seconded by Miss Josie Intropoli, who has created a very favorable impression during the present engagement by her clever methods as a comedienne of the eccentric order.

PROCEEDS FOR THE POOR FUND.

Show at Wonderland This Afternoon for This Special Purpose. This afternoon at Wonderland will be especially set apart for the benefit of the poor and the proceeds of the show will be turned over to Mayor Connell for the alleviation of the wants existing in all parts of the city.

The entertainment being given at this house this week is one of the best Manager Davis has ever offered the public and he expects to see a large crowd turn out to-day. The dancing of Lole Easton and the character changes and dancing of Kitty Smith are excellent. "Hankey Pankey," the comic pantomime of Harry Thorne, is a very laughable production.

RETURNING DEATHS AND BIRTHS.

Assessors Complying with the Provisions of the New Act.

The assessors of the county, outside of the cities of Carbondale and Scranton, are making their returns to the county commissioners of the deaths and births in their districts for the last half of the year 1893.

It is the first return of the kind the assessors have ever made and is in conformity with the act passed by the last legislature with regard to vital statistics. The assessors receive 5 cents for each birth and death returned. Carbondale and Scranton are exempt from the provisions of the act as they already have systems for obtaining vital statistics.

The Great Financier, Russell Sage,

Gives the following good advice to boys, which the parents might also read with profit:

"Boys, go to school as long as you can, and remember every hour spent in study in your youth will be worth money to you in after life. Read good books, make yourselves acquainted with history, study the progress of nations and the careers of men who have made nations great."

"Study religion, science, statecraft and history. Learn to read intelligently, so that you can turn to practical use in after-life the readings of your youth. Be sure you begin right. Do not waste time in reading trashy books."

Mr. Sage says further: "The boy who is wanted in the business world of today must be educated. If his parents cannot afford to give him a college or high school education, he must learn to study without the aid of a teacher in the early morning before business begins, and in the evenings after business hours. It can no longer be truthfully said that an education is out of anyone's reach."

This is the advice of a man who is one of the most copious business successes of our time, and who has amassed one of the largest fortunes in America. It cannot possibly be charged that he is in the pay of the Encyclopedia Britannica, and yet these words, given as the conviction of a life of unusual observation and experience, advise as strongly as words can, that you hasten to accept the offer of THE TRIBUNE and secure this greatest of books. The edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica offered by THE TRIBUNE fills every requirement of Mr. Sage's recipe for success. Who will be without these books now when ten cents a day will secure them?

On receipt of only $4.50 the entire set will be delivered to your home—the balance to be paid on easy monthly payments. It is an actual fact that these books are more strongly bound than the original at $8 per volume, of which these are a copy.

The books can be seen any day and Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings at 437 SPRUCE STREET, near Washington avenue.
