Another Hearing Asked for in the Thrice Tried Bartley Case. Judge Sittser, of Wyoming county came to this city yesterday to hear argument on a rule to show cause why a new trial should not be granted in the ejectment suit of Silas Hartiey against John P. Hull. The case was tried before Judge Sitter last April. A tract of forty seres of farm land in Madison township is the property in dispute.

Ex-Judge Jessup appeared at the ar-gnment yesterday for the plaintiff and Attorneys W. W. Watson and C. B. Caldwell. Garner for the defendants. The case has been tried three times in our courts. It was tried the first time before Judge Gunster and a verdict for the plaintiff returned. A new trial was; granted and the case was next tried before the late Judge Connolly, resulting in a verdict for the defendants. Again a new trial was guranted and last April Judge Sittster came over here and tried If he refuses to grant a new trial the case will go to the supreme court.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY CLUES. They Entertain a Large Audience at the Elm Park Chuich. The Glee, Banjo and Mandolin clubs, of Syracuse university, gave a very successful entertainment at the Eim Park church last evening. The collegians were greeted by a large audience. and their efforts were rewarded by very liberal applause.

The matagement of the Gles club exhibited good judgment in rendering only popular, joily college songs. No attempt at rendering classical selections was made, and as a result the audience was entertained and amused exceedingly well.
The Glee club consists of twelve members, and is well trained, giving the songs with much spirit. The Banjo and Mandolin clubs played very well The quartette for guitars, "Scottish Bells," as performed by H. H. Wads-worth, W. P. Grah am, C. S. Gager and W. C. Gavitte was one of the best numbers on a programme of fifteen selections.
