Criticising a Young Lady.

"She would be a pretty girl for but one thing."

"What's that?" asked Charley.

George—Her face is always covered with purple and red blotches.

Charley—Oh, that's easily enough disposed of. Used to be the same way myself, but I caught on to the trouble one day, and got rid of it in no time.

George—What was it?

Charley—Simply blood eruptions. Took a short course of P. P. P. I tell you, it's the boss blood corrector. The governor had rheumatism so bad that you could hear him holler clear across the country every time he moved. He tried it, and you know what an athletic old gent he is now. If somebody would give Miss Daisy a pointer, she would thank them afterwards. All the drug stores sell it. **

GENERAL NEWS OF INDUSTRIES

Mr. Cleveland Said to Have Been Badly Deceived by His Friends.

MEANING OF FREE COAL CLAUSE

The Claim Is Freely Advanced in New York That the Gentlemen Who Secured the President's Election Had a Distinct and Valuable Object in View—The Nova Scotian Syndicate's Fine Italian Hand Is Seen Through the Wilson Bill's Schedules—Miscellaneous Notes of Industrial Progress.

"Holland," in a letter to the Philadelphia Press, throws new light on the free coal clause in the Wilson bill. After showing how, in various matters, Mr. Cleveland has been deceived by his friends, he says there are reputable men in New York, eminent financiers, noted merchants, conspicuous tradesmen and professional men who have no doubt that some of those who managed Mr. Cleveland's campaign together with some of these who are said to have permitted Mr. Cleveland to reap some of the advantages of stock manipulations, and who are friends of his, had a perfect understanding during the campaign that whatever else was done in the way of tariff revision one thing should be secured, and that was the placing of coal upon the free list. Of course, Mr. Whitney's name is associated with this understanding. His friends are deeply interested financially in the enormous coal mines of the Canadian provinces. Mr. Whitney's brother, who is as able a business man as the New England States possess, seems to have given up most of his other interests that he may develop this gigantic combination. He planned new railroads, international in the territory to be traversed by them, whose existence would be useless but for this proposed coal traffic, and he planned these railroads and these great schemes were developed after Mr. Cleveland's election. Success in the venture is impossible unless the tariff is removed from coal; with the tariff off, the New England States and, perhaps, territory a little further west, will afford a rich and almost exclusive market for these mines of the provinces. None of the reports affect Mr. Cleveland otherwise than as showing that some of those who professed to be his friends have been cunning enough and without his suspecting it to overreach him, to influence his judgment, and, in the case of the Hawaiian Islands affair, to have done it in such a manner as has brought humiliation upon the American people.

The following table shows the pig iron production in 1893, the second half of the year being estimated:

	1st.	2nd.	Decrease.
First half	4,592,918	4,769,683	236,765
Second half	2,683,140	4,317	1,755,877
Year	7,19,358	9,157,093	1,992,642

The Wilkes-Barre and Wyoming Valley Traction company now operates 42½ miles of road. The gross receipts of the traction company for 1893 were $310,927 from passenger traffic, with a few hundred dollars from other sources. The operating expenses were $149,240, leaving net earnings, $162,759. The interest on bonds and loans was $93,306, leaving a surplus of $63,441. Average daily receipts for 1893, $51.85.

In view of the intention of the Reading management to launch another reorganization plan at some time in the near future, Mr. Rice's position assumes some importance. Mr. Rice asserted recently that reorganization was needless and that the Reading could extricate itself from its difficulties by wise and economical management. The concensus of opinion in financial circles in Philadelphia, according to the Times, is, however, that an early reorganization would be best for all interests, and it is believed that Mr. Rice will yield to this sentiment and confine his intention for the present to securing a judicial investigation of the alleged McLeod speculations and the punishment of the ex-president if the court adjudges him guilty of wrongdoing.

A report was current in Philadelphia yesterday that the Beech Creek railroad had cut the freight rate on bituminous coal to tidewater to 50 cents a ton. No official in position to speak with knowledge could be found, and opinion was divided as to the truth of the statement. If the reduction has been made the prices of pea and buckwheat coals will suffer in consequence, as bituminous will be given the preference, owing to its cheapness.

According to a current estimate, the city of Detroit now consumes 5,500 barrels of crude petroleum daily. Most of it is used in industrial furnaces, where coal heretofore supplied heat. The petroleum supply comes from the Ohio and Illinois oil fields, the principal centers of which are at Lima and Keystone respectively. It come by rail in tank cars which have a capacity ranging from eighty to 100 barrels. The principal consumers purchase directly from the oil fields in car lots, but there are two dealers who retail in less quantities, and whose aggregate daily sales are about 250 barrels. The cost of petroleum delivered in the city in car loads is about 70 cents per barrel, so that the annual consumption is in the neighborhood of $1,232,000. M. M. Fisher, a large manufacturer, says: "We tried soft coal for a time but it could not make steam enough. Crude petroleum was then used with satisfactory results up to the present time. I consider that the economy comes from the saving of labor, which is about $200 per annum, and the uniform energy of the oil, which is about 25 per cent. over coal."

MISCELLANEOUS GLEANINGS.

Transcontinental lines have reached no agreement yet in regard to passenger rates.

It is denied that Charles Parsons will form a voting trust in New England stock.

The foundation walls for the new round house of the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern railroad at Laflin are completed. The round house will house fifteen engines.

Falls of coal killed Michael Cheney and fatally hurt William Dengler in two Shamokin collieries.

Manufacturers of various classes in western Pennsylvania are endeavoring to unite their opposition to the Wilson tariff bill.

The new board of mine inspector examiners will meet at Pottsville on Feb. 17 to examine candidates for inspector to succeed the late Samuel Gay.

Ninety-nine employes of the Reading railroad car shops in Reading were suspended Tuesday night on account of slack work. Nearly five hundred men are still at work.

Several mills in the Phenix Iron works that have been closed for some time opened this week, and more men are going to work daily.

The Pennsylvania railroad has abandoned the transcontinental tours projected for this winter.

Henry Schoenhals foreman Henry Krug Packing Co., St. Joseph, Mo. uses Dr. Thomas' Eclectric oil with his men for sprains, cuts, bruises, chapped hands, etc. It is the best.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

Stocks and Bonds.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—After a rather weak opening and a decline of ¾ to ⅞ per cent. the stock market showed a little more strength owing to a rise in Sugar. This led to some covering in Western Union and other prominent stocks and the early loss was regained. Later on a demonstration was made against Manhattan which declined to 118¾. The stock was sold on the introduction of the bill at Albany to compel the company to charge but one fare on city and suburban roads. Northern Pacific issues, however, were really weak features of the day. The common sold down to 4½, preferred 13¾.

The foreigners sold these securities probably on the letter of Receiver Rouse, which shows that the immediate necessities of the company are even greater than at first supposed. Louisville and Nashville declined from 43⅝ to 41⅝ on the general belief that the company would pass its dividend. This was subsequently confirmed. The statement of the company issued by the directors late today showed a surplus of $1,108,102 for the six months ended Dec. 31, 1893, against $1,945,541 for the same period last year. Atchison, General Electric, Union Pacific, Western Union and the Grangers were all quite weak during the afternoon. The decline in these stocks ranged from ¾ to 1 per cent, and was most pronounced in Lackawanna, which fell 167 to 164 on sales of 100 shares of stock. In the final dealings there was a rally of ⅜ to 1¾ per cent. due to covering of short contracts. The market left off tolerably firm. New changes for the day outside of Lackawanna and Manhattan were ½ to 2 per cent. Total sales were smaller than yesterday, footing up 142,651.

The following complete table showing the day's fluctuations in active stocks is supplied and revised daily by LaBar & Fuller, stock brokers, 121 Wyoming avenue:

The Flour Awards

"CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The first official announcement of World's Fair diplomas on flour has been made. A medal has been awarded by the World's Fair judges to the flour manufactured by the Washburn, Crosby Co., in the great Washburn Flour Mills, Minneapolis. The committee reports the flour strong and pure, and entitles it to rank as first-class patent flour for family and bakers' use."
