The Pennsylvania Lumbermen's Protective association, at Lancaster Wednesday, elected T. J. Snowden, of this city, vice president. It was decided to hold the semi-annual meeting in Philadelphia in July.

"A Study in Scarlet."

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

One of the notable comedies of last season was "A Railroad Ticket," which will be at the Academy this evening.

The company interpreting "A Railroad Ticket" is an excellent one and includes Arthur Monahan, James T. Kelley, Harry Blaney, James Bovins, Harry Porter, Anna Caldwell, Rosa Chesman, Hattie Waters, Jeannette Begard, Marie Back and the California quartette.

THE TORNAO. The claim is made for Lincoln J. Carter's new scenic play, "The Tornado," which will be at the Academy tomorrow night, that its realisms are of such an imposing nature that even the pictorial matter used in advertising the play do not do the piece justice.

LADY WINDERMERE'S FAN. The performance of "Lady Windermere's Fan" by Charles Frohman's company will be at the Academy Monday.

There are sixteen acting characters in the play, which is in four acts, three of which are in a pronouncedly ultra-social atmosphere. It was Mr. Wilde's original intention to call the play "A Good Woman," but it was afterwards found that "Lady Windermere's Fan" suited it better.

OFFICERS OF COURT ETHER.

They Were Installed at the Meeting Wednesday Evening.

Wednesday evening the following officers were installed for Court Ether, Ancient Order of Foresters: C. R. T. Hills; S. C. R. M. W. Flynn; financial secretary, J. H. Keast; treasurer, W. Johnson; J. W. A. Duro; S. W. J. G. Dierks; J. B. F. Banks; S. B. W. Kink; P. G. R. A. G. Hills.

The officers were installed by D. H. C. R. W. Johnson, assisted by W. Hills as air herald. The above court initiated twenty-seven members the last term and there are several propositions for initiation for the next regular meeting. An enjoyable time was held after the installation.

Important to Business Men.

THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographs views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon those whose names are desired in this edition and explain its nature more fully. We trust our live success men will give it their hearty support.

Those desiring views of their residences' in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

NEWS FROM WEST SIDE

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Hyde Park Readers.

MICHAEL NEE A DESPERATE MAN

He Escaped from One Officer and Threatened to Shoot Two Others. Marriage of Miss Lizzie James to John Thomas—A Bold and Daring Thief Arrested—Several Social Events—News in Brief.

(The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 128 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.)

Michael Nee, a shoemaker, who resides on Luzerne street, was arrested Wednesday by Constable Burschell for assault and battery, on complaint of his family. Nee, the "redward" escaped from the officers. The warrant was then put in the hands of Constable Jones, who, accompanied by Constable Davies, repaired to the house of Nee at midnight. He armed himself with a revolver and defied them to arrest him. He barred the door and then appeared at the bedroom window flourishing his revolver. At this point Officer Jones burst open the door and Nee rushed down stairs. He was grabbed by Constable Jones and a desperate scuffle ensued, but with the assistance of Constable Davies, the prisoner was overpowered and placed in the West Side station house. At a hearing before Alderman T. T. Morgan yesterday morning the prisoner was committed in default of $300 bail to the county jail.

Thomas-James Nuptials. A pretty wedding was solemnized last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John James, of South Rebecca avenue, at 8 o'clock. The contracting parties were John Thomas, of Luzerne street, and Miss Lizzie James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James. The ceremony was performed in the parlor by Rev. T. J. Collins, pastor of the Scranton Street Baptist church, only the immediate friends and relatives being present. After the customary congratulations followed and a choice repast was served. The evening was enjoyed and as a seasonable hour the guests departed. The young couple will go to housekeeping in their tastefully furnished home on Jackson street.

The Thief Captured. Japako Figula, an Hungarian, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable Burschell. He is charged by Arthur Heal, proprietor of the People's Dry Goods store on South Main avenue, with stealing a comfortable fur from in front of the store. The thief was seen in the act by R. J. Hughes, a merchant across the street, who gave the alarm. The Hungarian dropped the goods and ran, but was soon captured and taken before Alderman Orm for a hearing. He admitted his guilt and was committed to the county jail in default of $300 bail. Mr. Heal has had his goods stolen on several occasions, as was stated in Tuesday's issue of THE TRIBUNE.

A Pleasant Social. A most pleasant social was held last evening in Biers' hall, on North Main avenue, by several Hyde Park young ladies. The hall was tastefully decorated with Chinese lanterns and bunting and presented a very neat appearance. A pleasant time was had for many hours in dancing. Music was furnished by Miss Nettie Curran. About thirty couples were present. Those who had charge of the affair were Misses Lizzie Thomas, Jessie Hurlow, Jennie Owens, Lizzie Davies, Lizzie Lawrence, Lizzie Thomas, Johanna Davies and Gertrude Thomas. The Marquette club was in attendance.

Kicked by a Mule. Handel Jones, a young man residing on Washburn street, sustained a broken nose at noon yesterday while at his work in the Continental mines. Jones is employed as a driver and was urging his beast forward, when it kicked him in the stomach and upon the nose, breaking the latter. He was removed to his home on Washburn street and Dr. Moylan summoned to dress his injuries.

Short Items of News. The Bardie society of the West Side would like to know who is "Glan Carmant" who has a fine ode in this week's issue of the "Drych," one of the leading Welsh journals of this country. The poem is headed, "A Voice from a Hospital," and is signed Hyde Park, Pa. Answer through these columns.

A stereopticon lecture will be given in the First Welsh Congregational church on Monday evening by Rev. D. W. Skellinger, pastor of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church. The subject will be "The Journeys of Christ Through Palestine," and will be very interesting.

A pleasant social was held last evening in Biers' hall by Keystone lodge, No. 37, Loyal Knights of America. An enjoyable time was had by all who attended, music being furnished by Professor Johnson. The committee in charge was C. F. Koller and Isaac Harris.

Dr. A. Lindabury, of South Main avenue, is ill.

A class for the instruction of vocal music has been organized at the Jackson Street Baptist church under the leadership of William B. Owen.

A special meeting of the Ancient Order Knights of the Mystic Chain, will be held on Tuesday evening at the lodge rooms. Matters of great importance will be discussed.

NORTH END.

At a meeting of the Temperance Christian union officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Fred Harzill; vice president, Charles R. Hopewell; secretary, Charles W. Connolly; treasurer, Charles Constantine; sergeant-at-arms, Thomas Evans; general manager, Louis Kline.

Holy Rosary church was filled to overflowing Wednesday evening to witness the marriage of John T. Boyce, of Chinchilla, and Isabella Healy, of Green street. Thomas Healy was groomsmen and Bridget Jordan bridesmaid. Rev. Father O'Donnell performed the nuptial services, after which the party drove to the home of the bride to receive the congratulations of numerous friends.

Miss B. Hawley, of Pittston, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Mullens, of West Market street.

Michael Ford, of the Loggott's creek, was struck by a coal train at the Olyphant depot as he was alighting from a passenger train. The engine struck him on the forehead, inflicting an ugly scalp wound.

A farewell social was held in O'Donnell's hall Wednesday evening in honor of John May who is going to enter a Baltimore college. Mr. May intends studying for a priesthood, and will enter the order of Jesuits.

M. McManany, pitcher of the Eureka Base Ball team, will be married on Jan. 24 to a popular young lady of this place. Captain Walls, of Eureka, will be the best man.

The Marvin, Von Storch and Creek mines were idle on Tuesday in consequence of the breaking of the column pipe and bull pump in the Marvin.

C. Berry, late of the Sixth United States cavalry, intends to organize a bugle corps in the near future. Mr. Berry must be thoroughly competent, having served five years as trumpeter in the Regular army. It was he who performed the solemn duty of sounding "Taps" over the famous Indian fighter, General Crook, also ex-Secretary of War Belknap, and a number of other distinguished officials.

Patrick Gallagher, of 1708 Brick avenue, died Wednesday, aged 70 years. No. 23 school, to the dilapidated condition of which we have already called attention, now has 130 pupils attending it. The seating capacity is inadequate. Principal Costello endeavored to convert the cloak room into a class room, which can accommodate twenty-eight children, but it is overcrowded. Miss B. Norton has charge of this improvised room. Miss Anna Barrett has forty-four pupils and Mr. Costello from forty-five to fifty. The school and its location was condemned some time ago as being unhealthy by reason of its unsanitary condition and improper ventilation. The population of the district in which No. 23 is situated has increased 50 per cent since the school was built, and it seems likely to increase another 25 with a more commodious and sightly public school.

SMALL BLAZE AT PROVIDENCE. Shed in Rear of James Hagen's House Burned Last Night.

An alarm fire occurred at midnight was caused by a small blaze at James Hagen's, on Breaker street, in the North End.

A shed in the rear of the house caught fire in some unknown manner. The Liberty and General Phinney companies responded to the alarm.

LIMITED MAIL AT THE ACADEMY. The Popular Railroad Drama Pleases a Large Audience.

Elmer E. Vance's remarkably realistic play, "The Limited Mail," attracted an immense audience at the Academy of Music last evening. The audience applauded with great spirit, and the presentation as a whole was decidedly successful.

The scenery was very fine and the appearance of an apparently genuine steam engine upon the Academy stage was greeted with much enthusiasm. The dancing of Beatrice was very good. The company was entirely competent and put a good deal of animation into its work.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Many Tribune Readers.

BREEZY POLITICAL POINTERS

District Officers Nominated by Democrats in the Nineteenth Ward—Republicans to Caucus Next Wednesday Evening—Ferdinand Schmidt's Condition—H. J. Butler Injured. Shorter Paragraphs.

The Democrats of the First, Second and Third districts of the Nineteenth ward caucused Wednesday evening, with the following result: First district, judge, Martin May; inspector, M. J. Ryan; register, Henry Holiz. Second district, judge, Conrad Bollarsheimer; inspector, Martin Wyszner; register, Martin Biglin. Third district, judge, Hugh Caffery; inspector, Patrick Mulaney; register, William Eiden. At all caucuses the hearty support of the voters was pledged to H. Notz and P. J. Dennis, candidates for school controller and common councilman. The Fourth district caucus will be held this evening.

The Republicans of the Nineteenth ward will caucus at Workingmen's hall next Wednesday evening. The intention is to name a ward ticket, supplemented with exceedingly strong candidates in the various districts, to attempt to defeat the nominees of their Democratic brethren.

Ferdinand Schmidt's Condition. Ferdinand Schmidt, well known for many years as a leader in Nineteenth ward Republican politics is in a very precarious condition at his hotel in Roaring Brook township. In fact the attending physician gave him up and predicted that life would be extinct yesterday at noon. He was bleeding profusely in all efforts to stop it had been found unavailing. An old gentleman named Neula was called in as a last resort and succeeded in preventing the loss of blood. It is questionable if the cure is permanent. Mr. Schmidt, who was delicious, has recovered the use of his faculties.

Early Morning Blasts. Early yesterday morning an alarm of fire was sounded from box 57. The blaze was in the house owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Gibson and family, of Fig street, near the corner of Washington street. The fire was extinguished by the fire department. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Painfully Injured. Henry J. Butler, driving for Kelly & Casey's brewery, was painfully injured Wednesday, and in a manner that will confine him to his home for some time. While he was unloading a barrel of ale his foot slipped, owing to the frozen ground, and the barrel descended, striking full on his foot. Dr. Haggerty is attending him.

Shorter Paragraphs. Common Councilman Robinson attended the meeting of the lower branch of the city government last evening, and was warmly greeted by his colleagues.

O. L. Hehriguel was tendered a surprise party last evening, the occasion being his fiftieth birthday. It was a memorable event and will be long remembered.

Councilmen who are themselves seeking a re-election will find it rather an expensive pastime to interfere in the ward fights of their colleagues.

Miss Julia Kelly has not lost her sight, as at first expected. Yesterday she was able to discern objects that were held before her.

M. J. Coyne, the well known amateur comedian, will impersonate the part of a policeman in "Escape from Libby." The lines not being satisfactory Mr. Coyne will revise them.

Miss Maggie Cawley, of Irving avenue, was married to Mr. Burke, of Dunmore, at St. Peter's cathedral last evening.

Dennis Grimes, of Ashland, Neb., is the guest of Roger Grimes, of Stone avenue.

JAMES J. McCARTY PAROLED. He has been in the County Jail Since April 29, 1893.

Governor Pattison yesterday, in pursuance of the recommendation of the board of pardons, paroled James J. McCarty, who is serving a term of one year in the county jail for forgery. His sentence began on April 29, 1893.

The governor also commuted the death of a policeman in "Escape from Libby" county, to life imprisonment.

THE CORWIN'S ISOLATION.

It Gives Color to the Belief That Willis Ordered It.

Editor of THE TRIBUNE. Sir: Many conjectures have been published as to the reason for the action of the captain of the cutter Corwin, in so mysteriously remaining isolated in San Francisco harbor, but I have seen none which seems consistent with the facts which have been given out.

When the Corwin arrived a Lieutenant was sent ashore with Willis' dispatches in cypher, to be telegraphed to Washington. He went directly to the captain's home and informed his wife that her husband was well, but could not land until Thursday. Secretary Gresham is reported to have stated last Monday that neither the president nor any of the officials in Washington had given any orders to the Corwin to thus remain isolated, and they could not have delivered such orders before the lieutenant was put off with the cypher dispatches.

The rational conclusion in harmony with these facts is that as Willis' principal statement was sent in writing to be sent by mail from San Francisco, and that he knew it would require several days in transit, he gave directions to the captain to remain isolated until sufficient time had elapsed to have his mail reach Washington, so as to prevent erroneous or undesirable statements being obtained from those on board and telegraphed to Washington in advance of his communications. It seems to me that you would be justified in editorially assuming such to be the fact. Very respectfully yours, JOHN TORREY.

Honesdale, Jan. 10.

REGULAR FOOT BALL HAIR. Growth Displayed by Constantine Uravitz in Police Court.

Constantine Uravitz, a retired foot ball player or an anarchist, if the length of his hair is a good criterion, was charged in police court last evening with acting in a very disorderly manner on Charles street.

It was alleged Uravitz assumed himself by throwing stones through his neighbor's windows. When questioned as to the veracity of the charge he did not know whether it was true or not, so Alderman Wright fined him $5 on general principles.

"A Study in Scarlet."

The Leader. THE TRIBUNE Encyclopaedia Britannica covers every department of knowledge known to mankind.

The TRIBUNE Encyclopaedia Britannica is the most complete reference library the world has ever seen.

The TRIBUNE Encyclopaedia Britannica is the highest scholarship in every subject being the result of the labors of more than 1,200 scholars, each one a master specialist in his class and a recognized authority on the subject of which he treats.

It has been said of the Encyclopaedia Britannica that, "If all other books should be destroyed, the Bible excepted, the world would have lost but little of its information."

The president of Yale college has said, "he will defy anyone to buy 3,000 volumes like this."

The TRIBUNE Encyclopaedia Britannica library is furnished in the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The authority of the Encyclopaedia Britannica has never been questioned in any court of justice in this country or in Europe. Lawyers take it into court to speak for it or quote it with the same assurance that they would from a law book.

Nowadays everybody is expected to have an Encyclopaedia. If you act at once you can get the best in print for a song and a cent.

If you would become of the fortunate you should act at once. Only 10 cents a day, and it means success in life. Call at THE TRIBUNE E. B. department, 427 Spruce street, and see for yourself what a library is now within your reach.
