HAS FACTORYVILLE A SPOOK? Very Peculiar Manifestations Said to Take Place in the Barn of Captain Gardner.

A genuine spook is said to be causing consternation in the vicinity of Factoryville. It appears that it makes its headquarters in the barn of Captain Gardner, about one mile and a half from Factoryville village, and various good citizens assert that it makes its presence known by many and peculiar manifestations. The twilight hour seems to be the favorite roving time of his or her spookship and stones and other missiles of the earth earthily are cast about by unseen hands in a most reckless manner.

WILKES-BARRE IN THE EASTERN. Frazee Bogart's Crowd Won't Play with Scranton This Season. The men who shove their hands down in their trousers' pockets to the extent of a thousand dollars or so every spring, so that the population of Wilkes-Barre may have a base ball club to hang on to the tail end of a league, have made the announcement that they don't want anything to do with the Pennsylvania State league.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Many Tribune Readers. OBSERVANCE OF WEEK OF PRAYER. Services That Were Held During the Week at the Young Women's Christian Association on This Side—Dr. King Makes a Correction of an Item in This Department—O. L. Hengel Tendered a Surprise Party.

The following letter from Dr. J. W. King needs no elucidation. Your article in this morning's TRIBUNE is erroneous. Dr. King at no time expressed himself as quoted. While the case is a most desperate one, it does not necessarily follow that one who cannot today cannot stand many such severe hemorrhages as the one he had from 4 a. m. until 11.30, the time when I left him. He has apparently safe. Scientific medicine is nowhere in it with "The Seven Books of Moses," and the ancient "Black Arts" of Arabia. It is only that you cannot today meet out the same deserving punishments as were administered to witchcraft in the colonial days in that great commonwealth, Massachusetts.

Sincerely yours, Dr. King. P. S.—You would do mankind a charitable service if you would delete tomorrow's TRIBUNE. My name attached. J. W. K.

A Week of Prayer. The present week has been one of prayer at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian association on Cedar avenue. The services were led as follows: Monday evening, Miss Margaretta Watts; Tuesday evening, Miss Ethel Flanagan; Wednesday evening, Miss Cora Turner; Thursday evening, Miss Flora Tompkins. Miss Lena Linn led the services last evening and Miss Kate Christophel will lead this evening. Tomorrow afternoon Miss Shawford, physical director of the central city branch, will lead tomorrow's service, and the topic will be "Purpose Meeting."

A Real Surprise. The birthday surprise party to O. L. Hengel, Thursday night, was a surprise in the most complete sense. The following persons attended: Mr. and Mrs. John Blatter, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kaiser, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. M. Ziesman, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. H. Armstrong, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. P. Arzbrust, Mr. and Mrs. A. Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hengel, Mr. and Mrs. P. Hiltz, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Peil, Mrs. James Croghan, Mrs. Alfred Tolmie, Mrs. Jacob Soutag, Miss Rosa Hand, Miss Minnie Hand, Miss Lulu Sunday, and Miss N. L. Croghan. Miss Hand, Dr. Kolb, Geo. Kyle, Henry Sunday, Theo. Ziesman, Jacob Miller, Richard Fraehlich, Milton Moore, Fred Croghan, Chas. Dippre.

No Alarm Sounded. At 2 o'clock yesterday morning the brick house owned by M. J. Lovren, situated on Stafford avenue, in the Nineteenth ward, was burned to the ground. The building was so remote, and there being no city water in the vicinity, no alarm was sounded. The house was built by Mr. Lovren several years ago, and a portion of it was intended for a photographer's gallery. Mr. Lovren is a very prominent citizen. The house has not lived in for some time. The house was tenanted, but the origin of the fire is not known.

Shorter Paragraphs. Owing to the intense cold, school in the higher grades of No. 3 was dismissed yesterday.

The Democrats of the fourth district of the Ninth ward have nominated John Brown as judge and Nicholas Sheridan as inspector of election, John F. Warren was nominated for register. Fred Tross who had his leg broken some six months ago, slipped and fell Thursday night and sustained a fracture in the same place that was broken before.

MONUMENT TO GEN. SHERIDAN. It Will Be Erected by Members of Phil Sheridan Rifles. The Phil. Sheridan Rifles held a meeting on Thursday evening and decided to erect a monument to General Sheridan on Court House square.

The following committee was appointed to take charge of the matter: M. G. Griffin, chairman; J. C. Vaughan, secretary; T. J. Moore, treasurer. The board of directors appointed were T. J. Moore, F. J. Johnson, M. A. Griffin, J. C. Vaughan, William Dawson, M. S. Downer, H. W. Bowman. Secretary Vaughan was instructed to apply to the court for a charter for the organization.

After Swearing Off. How many have taken vows of abstinence with the birth of the new year in which they had to estimate, but we now know that such efforts are futile against inveterate habit, a habit which has become a disease. There was a time when it could have been easy to quit, but they neglected to do so the habit continued until by the constant or frequent use of the poison there was forced a change in the nervous system, which made it not only possible to drink, but necessary. Then you could drink a good deal and not seem to get drunk, but you also found it necessary to keep you feeling good and you craved liquor because you had become diseased. Now that swearing off does no good and the pledge can't be kept, go and make your resolution good for all time by taking treatment at the Keeley Institute, 728 Madison avenue, Scranton, Pa.

The great people of this country who accomplish so much in the affairs of life have the peculiar fashion of executing whatever they come to them in the line of action on the spot. There is that pile of Harper's, Frank Leslie's, McClure's, Review of Reviews, North American, Century, etc., that you see ranging about a job forever, but not a thing of beauty. Our Mr. Schweicker can transform them so that they will become the brightest and handsomest volumes in your library. As soon as you read this you will not get all the numbers together, before they are lost or soiled, and bring them to THE TRIBUNE binder. A few calls will give you some beautiful books that will take the place of those rough and ragged magazines.

DR. C. C. LAUBACH, dentist, Gas and Water company building, Wyoming avenue, latest improvements. Eight years Scranton.

The three pictures, "Telephone Girl," "Good Morning," "Swinging" offered by THE TRIBUNE, now brighten hundreds of homes. The young men in the office are kept busy dealing out these gems of art.

ARGUING TO THE JURY

All the Testimony in the Roseagle-Handley Case Has Been Heard. THE DEFENDANT ON THE STAND. He Tells the Story of His Business Relations with Mrs. Mary Roseagle—He Denies That He Ever Told Her He Had $50,000 Worth of Stock in the Wyoming Manufacturing Company.

Ex-Judge Handley was on the stand in court for several hours yesterday and subjected a searching cross-examination by Attorney Soper as to his business relations with Mrs. Mary Roseagle, who is suing him to recover $3,000 that she says she lost on account of his misrepresentations concerning stock in which she invested.

Mr. Handley said that he first became acquainted with Mrs. Roseagle in 1867 when she employed him in the life insurance case she was prosecuting. He continued to act as her attorney until he was elected judge of Luzerne county. On Dec. 11, 1883, he received from Attorney H. W. Palmer $4,000, the amount of money paid in the settlement of the life insurance case. From this amount $1,000 was deducted for counsel fees and expenses incurred during the trial and witness fees remaining Mrs. Roseagle the $3,000 remaining. She wanted to invest the money and various forms of securities were discussed.

THE CONCLUSION REACHED. Attorney J. H. Campbell and Richard Evans were in his office at the time and he introduced Mrs. Roseagle to them. Mr. Evans was the engineer of the Wyoming Manufacturing Company and had just returned from a visit of inspection to the company's plant in West Virginia. Mr. Evans and Mrs. Roseagle had a conversation about the West Virginia property and she seemed so well pleased that she decided to invest her money in the stock of the company. She bought a portion of his at par and he guaranteed her a dividend of 6 per cent. on it.

Mr. Handley said he never told Mrs. Roseagle he owned $50,000 worth of stock in the Wyoming Manufacturing company. He paid the dividends regularly until the company's property was levied on. He declared that he never told Mrs. Roseagle that he owned $50,000 worth of stock in the company and that it was paying dividends.

EVIDENCE IN REBUTTAL. Several other witnesses were called, and then Mrs. Roseagle and others went on the stand in rebuttal. At 3.30 the closing arguments to the jury were begun. Attorney American had not completed his argument when court adjourned yesterday. It will conclude this morning and be followed by Mr. Soper, who will close for the plaintiff.
