AMERICAN POSTERS.

PICTURES IN WHICH THIS COUNTRY LEADS THE WORLD.

The Growth of Lithography and Its Relation to the Art of Advertising Theatrical Attractions—How the Business Has Been Built Up.

The American poster has utterly changed its standing since the printers have been producing their work by lithography. It has become an artistic creation.

With the advent of lithography into the business not only artistic drawing but brilliant color effects became possible.

The number of men who were competent to produce the American poster of today was very small indeed.

But the finished product of this foreign combination is as truly American as the posterprints and judgment that led up to it.

The fidelity of the likenesses to the originals in the theatrical bills is due to photography. There are no portrait painters in the new poster shops.

It has been said that nearly all the leading poster artists are foreigners. It is true therefore that a few are Americans.

Small, but Perfect. In sour paste, vinegar, the melt of a codfish, or even in water in which decayed vegetables have been infused.

Kept Him Busy. Mrs. Pennyroyal—Your mother tells me you went to church for the first time last Sunday, Bobbie.

The Mustache. According to an authority on the subject, there is a great deal of character in a man's mustache.

The earlier symptoms of dyspepsia, such as distress after eating, heartburn, and occasional headaches, should not be neglected.

IDEAL LIFE IN A CLUB.

What Membership in a Metropolitan Social Organization Means.

By union of financial and social forces, club conditions have been created that to individuals would be absolutely impossible.

Each one has the same right as the other. The house practically belongs to the members.

Letters are stamped as received to the exclusion of all other correspondence.

Good breeding, correct behavior and strict courtesy are the club atmosphere.

An Intelligent Animal. A country physician says that he was driving, late one dark night, over a strange road. A violent rain had been falling, and the highway was badly washed.

Now, at last the doctor alighted and went forward to reconnoiter. This was what he saw.

Trousseau's Heroic End. Trousseau became aware that he was the victim of a cancer, an "autodiagnosis," which Dieulafoy was sorrowfully compelled to affirm.

Agonies of Street Car Riding. Did you ever stand 10, 15, 20 minutes on the curbstone waiting for "your car"?

Beecham's pills are for biliousness, bilious headache, dyspepsia, heartburn, torpitude, dizziness, sick headache, bad taste in the mouth.
