FOREST CITY FLASHES. The Hum Drum of a Day Noted in Cheerful Paragraphs.

FOREST CITY, Pa., Jan. 16.—The Honedale correspondent for THE TRIBUNE in Monday's issue stated that Dr. and Mrs. Dwyer, of Forest City, attended the Ancient Order of Hibernian reception and ball held in Honedale Friday evening. However, this is a slight error, as the popular doctor has not yet become a benedict, but has been thinking seriously of taking unto himself a wife for a number of years past.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Gillett, of Gibson, visited with relatives Monday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Morgan last Friday, a daughter.

Last night three auctions were in progress at the following places of business: C. S. Alexander's, T. C. Manzer's and Park's branch store in W. J. Maxey's building.

George J. Benton, of Carbondale, spent Sunday as the guest of friends on North Main street.

A masquerade ball will be held in Decker's hall, Dundaff, Friday evening. A number from this place expect to attend.

Henry Box has been quite sick at his home on Railroad street for the past few days, but at present is better.

McCloud & Melville will present Edgar Selden's great comedy-drama, "Will O' the Wisp," at Davis' opera house tomorrow night, Jan. 17. It possesses a beautiful love story and is filled with humor of the most contagious character.

Salesman John M. Nealon, of Carbondale, was in town yesterday.

The Presbyterian fair was reopened last night. J. D. Caryl won the door prize, a bed spread.

DEATH SUPPLEMENTS REFUSAL. Couldn't Get Work and Immediately Afterward Dropped Dead.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Jan. 16.—Joseph Zekel, a miner, aged 28 years, applied for work today at the Nottingham mine in Plymouth.

On being refused he started off quite despondent, and before he had gone many steps he dropped dead.

THE NEWS OF NEARBY TOWNS

(Out of town correspondents of THE TRIBUNE should sign their names in full to each article, and for publication not to each against deception.)

REV. MR. GILLAM'S FAREWELL. This Evening's Service Will Be the Last of the Series.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

DUNMORE, Pa., Jan. 16.—Rev. Ralph Gilliam, who has been holding a revival at the Presbyterian church during the past week, will deliver his farewell sermon Wednesday evening, and tickets have been issued to those wishing to attend. Every one is admitted, but the ones holding tickets will be sure of a good seat.

Mr. Gilliam's labors in this section have been productive of much good and he leaves a large number of converts behind him as a proof of his zealous labors. Mr. Gilliam expresses himself highly satisfied with the work he has done and says his anticipations were more than satisfied as he never before undertook evangelistic work in a single church.

On all other occasions he has been engaged in union meetings, and from here he will go to Marshall, Mich., where he will commence a revival that will include the combined efforts of eleven large churches. A large building has been prepared for his use as was the tabernacle for B. Fay Mills, meetings in Scranton.

Mr. Bronson who assisted Mr. Gilliam has contributed in no small measure to the success of the undertaking and his bright face and sweet voice will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to attend the meetings. Services were held both this afternoon and evening and were largely attended.

STEPS INTO THE CELLAR. Painful and Possibly Serious Injury Sustained by Mrs. Clave.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

DUNMORE, Pa., Jan. 16.—Mrs. Clave, the mother of Thom a Young, who lives on upper Blakely street, met with a painful and what may be a serious accident at Mr. Young's home Monday night. She has been at her son's home for a few days nursing his wife, who is ill, and last night she started for bed. The door leading to the upper story and to the cellar are side by side, and mistaking the one for the other she stepped into the cellar.

She was carried to her room and medical aid summoned. It was found that both her wrists were broken and her neck and back slightly injured. Dr. Hopkins, who is attending her, entertains hopes of her recovery. Mrs. Clave is an elderly person and is well known throughout this section. Her accident will be deplored by a large circle of acquaintances.

DUNMORE'S DEATH HARVEST. Three Prominent Citizens Fall Victims to the Grim Scythe.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

DUNMORE, Pa., Jan. 16.—James Murray died at his home on Willow street Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The funeral of the late Mrs. Henry Quinlan took place Saturday afternoon and was largely attended. The services were conducted at the Episcopal church by Rev. Mr. Israel. Interment was made in Dunmore cemetery.

Mrs. Sibina McDonough, of Church street, died Saturday morning. The funeral of Finley Swingle's young child occurred yesterday. The remains were taken to Mr. Swingle's home in Wayne county via the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad.

The funeral of James Murray occurred from his late home on Willow street Monday afternoon.

CHRISTIAN WORKERS TO MEET. Programme of the Coming Convocation of Keystone Union.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

FACTORYVILLE, Pa., Jan. 16.—The second annual convocation of the Keystone Union of Christian Endeavor society that meets in this place next Friday announces an interesting programme: The afternoon session will open with devotional services, led by B. F. Thomas. A paper on the "Look-out Committee" will be read by Professor D. D. Harmon. One on the "Missionary Committee" will be read by M. Louis Herndon. Herndon, of these papers will be followed by discussion. An address on the "Relation of Christian Truth to Christian Living" will be delivered by Rev. S. D. Waterbury, Nicholson, followed by reports from each society.

The evening services will be begun by song, followed by an open parliament on "What Is Our Society Doing for the Mid-week and Sunday Evening Services?" The discussion will be opened by Rev. J. Fielding, of Dalton. An address on "Personal Work," by Professor E. Holly, will follow, after which there will be a consecration service, led by Rev. J. R. Angel, Dalton, thus closing the convention's work.

TIP UPS IN BIG DEMAND. Many Fine Catches of Pickered Reported in Wayne Lakes.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

HONEDALE, Pa., Jan. 16.—Pickered fishing is receiving a new impetus this season. It is reported that a Carbondale party caught 170 odd fish at Stanton's pond one day last week.

Friday 105 fishermen were counted on the ice fishing. A party of young boys from Honedale who were fishing on the pond that day brought home a catch of seventy-five fish, one of which was a pickered weighing four pounds.

Stanton's pond is receiving more than its share of attention, but notwithstanding its present strong attraction for fishermen, the other lakes in this vicinity are not neglected. Men with bundles of tip-ups can be seen going and coming from the lakes every day.

Good and Reliable Hood's Cured Malaria and Loss of Appetite.

The following letter is from a gentleman widely known in the section of Philadelphia where he lives, being a member of the I. O. O. F., Red Men, Order of Tont, and the Republican Club, and a popular speaker in public meetings:

"I dare say that I am more glad in taking Hood's Sarsaparilla than its proprietors are in selling it. I took it for malaria and loss of appetite, and the fact that we continued to use it in our family is sufficient evidence of our confidence in its efficacy. My food tastes better, and I feel more naturally. My wife and daughter say Hood's Sarsaparilla has also very much improved my complexion. We regard it good and reliable, and recommend it to all of our friends. JAMES JOHNSON, 551 E. Indiana Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

"Disfigured For Life" Is the despairing cry of thousands afflicted with Unsightly skin diseases. Do you realize what this disfigurement means to sensitive souls? It means isolation, seclusion. It is a bar to social and business success. Do you wonder that despair seizes upon these sufferers when Doctors fail, Standard remedies fail, And nostrums prove worse than useless? Skin diseases are most obstinate to cure or even relieve. It is an easy matter to claim to cure them, but quite another thing to do so. CUTICURA REMEDIES Have earned the right to be called Skin Specifics, Because for years they have met with most remarkable success. There are cases that they cannot cure, but they are few indeed. It is no long-drawn-out, expensive experiment. 25c. invested in a cake of CUTICURA SOAP Will prove more convincing than a page of advertisement. In short CUTICURA works wonders, And its cures are simply marvellous.
