ROBERT BURNS' NIGHT

Caledonians Commemorate the Anniversary of Distinguished Poets Birth.

THE BANQUET AT THE WYOMING

Colonel Fitzsimmons' Eloquent Tribute to the Memory of Robert Burns.

The name of Burns. There is none more dear or more inspiring to the true son of Scotia than that of the gifted bard of Ayr, who first saw the light of day amid the rugged Ayrshire hills 135 years ago.

The banquet with which the Caledonian club commemorated the anniversary of his birth last night was served in the main dining hall of the Wyoming.

James B. Skocheb formerly opened the banquet and requested Rev. James McLeod, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, to say grace.

Rev. Dr. James McLeod, Senator and Mrs. M. E. McDonald, Judge and Mrs. H. M. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Phillips, Captain and Mrs. James M. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Turnbull, Mr. and Mrs. David McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Fryer, James B. Skocheb, Thomas Henderson, Captain B. E. Morris, Frank Baxter, Dr. Murray, Dr. Fulton, Napoleon Notaker, James Callahan, Alex. Dunn, Jr., John Simpson, Joseph Denning, J. S. Inglis, Armean Moses, James Skocheb, Jr., Thomas Barrowman, J. J. Alexander, Mr. Russell, Robert Wilson, W. H. Hayden, Evans, Robert Moir, John Moir, Robert Bishnell, D. Duhaig, Thomas Hazleton, John McMillan, Joseph Denning, Thomas Jeffrey, Robert Stuart, William Pickett, A. Evelyn, A. Hamilton, J. McMillan.

Before the speech making began Miss Julia Allen rendered a melody of Scotch airs on the piano. Brief but eloquent introductory remarks were made by the chief of the club, James B. Skocheb, following which the Caledonian Glee party sang Burns' song, "There Was a Lad Was Born in Kyle," with splendid effect.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen—The custom of annually assembling in social communion and by song and speech commemorating the memory of some eminent individual whose life made mankind happier, is indeed beautiful and commendable. Every nation has its hero.
