

SCRANTON TRIBUNE. F. E. WOOD, General Manager. PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY IN SCRANTON, PA. BY THE TRIBUNE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE. SCRANTON, JANUARY 31, 1894. REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE, GALUSHA A. GROW, OF SUSQUEHANNA. ELECTION FEBRUARY 20.

PAUSE TO THINK. The millions upon millions of money annually spent by leading American merchants for advertising isn't thrown away. They don't do business on that kind of a basis.

THE HAWAIIAN specter will sit at a good many Democratic feasts. THE CITIZEN who murmured at the milldness of the season has taken to hugging the front room stove.

EVERY BANDIT in the land will feel himself morally indorsed by Democracy's adoption of the income tax. FEEDING THE WORKLESS poor with the sapless husks of rapid socialistic rhetoric may fool the voters once; but they won't stay fooled.

SENATOR VOORHEES predicts that the senate will act favorably on the income tax. LIKE OTHER things about us the movement in favor of forming a new county up in the vicinity of Forest City appears to have been snowed under.

IT IS A SCRANTON habit not to let a visitor go away disappointed. Since Mr. Herring's call we feel justified in predicting that the headquarters will remain.

INTERNAL REVENUE COLLECTOR HERRING is very popular with the local Democracy just at present; but wait until he gives the official plum tree a gentle shake.

MR. POWDERLY has good reason to feel satisfied with the loyalty of his neighbors and friends. Their steadfastness is a tribute offsetting all distraction.

IF COLLECTOR HERRING were only as generous politically as he is companionable socially, there would be few blood stains on his altar to the zory spoils feitch.

THERE MAY BE more acceptable men than Mr. Peckham to Senators Murphy and Hill; but it is not a quarrel in which Republicans are called upon to help either side.

THERE ARE hundreds of public men at thirty who lack the snap, push and vim of that enterprising youthful veteran, Galusha A. Grow. While as for brain work, just match him if you can.

AS A RULE the utmost good feeling has attended Lackawanna county's Republican caucuses this spring. This is decidedly as it should be. Reserve all the fighting strength for the enemy's benefit.

ABUSING the money sharks of Wall street may do very well among the Populistic rabble in the west, but it will not sell high priced bonds with which to tide over Democracy's ruinous extravagance.

TO HAVE the proposed new bridges will cost Scrantoniens just ten cents on each hundred dollars of assessed valuation. Is there any progressive citizen who would haggle over this trifling price?

IF IT SHOULD prove that active factors in Democracy's economic readjustment were working the free list game for purposes of revenue only, what, think you, would the harvest be? There is a suspicion to this effect which has not been wholly allayed.

ourselves without bread, we can eat cake and be jolly ever after. Meanwhile, vive la bagatelle! As we say along the Riviera, What does the country want of a revenue, anyhow? And if it doesn't need a revenue, why have a tariff? The only thing necessary to the common happiness is an obliteration of the custom houses, the unrestricted importation of foreign merchandise which nobody will be able to buy, and a wholesome influx of foreign patriots with whom nobody will be able to live.

THE CALL OF DUTY. There has not, in many a day, been a more serious situation in politics, in business and in the home life of our people than that which prevails at this moment. We assert this calmly, conservatively, and with no wish to stimulate alarm. But it is a fact which all can see, and of which each citizen is personally conscious.

AN INNOVATION just tried by Wilkes-Barre Elks with much success has been a ladies' reception. Inasmuch as Scranton Elks are foremost in jollity and chivalry, why wouldn't something of the kind be advantageous here?

MINOR FACTS AND FANCIES.

Captain John C. Delaney takes to stock in the suggestion: "Young man, go west." His experience in Oklahoma convinces him that the man who is not a rover by disposition would do an exceedingly foolish thing to rush away from the refinements of civilization merely to chase the uncertain phantom of wealth in the frontier wilds.

And, speaking of Hoke, those who have been led to infer from the captain's recent allusion that he has exhausted his ammunition upon the queer-named Georgian make a very serious mistake. The captain, if we may use the phrase, is simply "laying for" Brother Smith; laying for him with a deadlier equipment of rhetorical bombs, cannon balls, pistols and small arms than ever awaited a Lascar crew from behind the silent gunwales of a decoy man-o-war.

Another sterling Luzerne countian who is almost as well known in Scranton as he is in Wilkes-Barre, is Senator Morgan B. Williams, just arisen conqueror after a bitter catch-as-catch-can engagement with a gripper. The rugged vitality of this sturdy proponent of the tariff has successfully breasted the manifold cares of intricate business relations until it has landed him among the winners in life's material struggle.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The truth is the free trade, single tax, Populist element in the Democracy has practically got the whip hand. They control the party in the house. The tariff and the income tax are all in their hands and are sharp enough to see that if they cannot get it through that they will not let it pass.

Post Boyd Grows Fervid. Wilkes-Barre News Dealer. If these reconjulatory object lessons are lost on that peaky, obstinate and self-bumptious individual, Cleveland, he is more venemous, cantankerous and obstreperous than he ought to be. Get off your stiles, Mr. Cleveland, and be one of the boys.

Herring's First Ax-Stroke. News Dealer. It is definitely stated that Robert Buckingham, of Bloomsburg, will soon take the position of Deputy Collector now held by Capt. William Gable, and that Chief Deputy Gable will continue in the same position he now holds.

Prompt Action Wine Praise. Philadelphia Record. The block system is to be introduced on the Delaware and Lackawanna railway, beginning with the most dangerous points. The management is wise to heed so promptly the moral of the recent terrible tragedy at Hackensack bridge.

Tolerance Between Driver and Adiat. New York Commercial Advertiser. It is amusing to learn that Adiat's attitude toward the president now is one of "marked" reserve. There is some reciprocity about this.

One Important Oversight. Buffalo Evening News. Chairman Wilson has neglected to put through the free list. It is a great oversight. Mr. Cleveland and Queen Lill are greatly interested.

More Democratic Than Pacific. Lehigh Reporter. Democratic harmony at Philadelphia on Saturday night was nearly as harmonious as it was Democratic.

final supplicatory visit to the nation's money center, in search of purchasers for a belated issue of bonds which, had it been decided upon at the proper moment, would have commanded, not begged purchase.

OUR DEMOCRATIC contemporaries are wasting considerable nerve force in efforts to hypnotize Republican voters to slumber by repeated assurances that Hon. G. A. Grow will certainly be elected. The political elements are not favorable at this season for extension of harvest on chief. Mr. Grow will be elected, and by a majority calculated to paralyze tariff hikers, too, notwithstanding the desperate efforts of the Democratic press to create an impression that the election of a congressman-at-large is of no special importance.

AN ENERGETIC, determined and unyielding battle all along the line is as necessary this spring as if Mr. Grow were not sure of a six-figure majority. The exercise will come in good play when the November struggle is reached.
