DISCUSSING THE

The Attention of the Senate Occupied Yesterday with the Question.

A BOLD POPULIST HEARD FROM

Mr. Allen Argued That the Power to Issue Bonds Under the Resumption Act Was Not a Continuous One. Mr. Gorman Defends Generally the Democratic Position-The Debate Attracts Much Attention.

Washington, Jan. 31. THE resolution offered some days since by Mr. Stewart, Nevada, denying the legal authority of the secretary of the treasury to ccupied the attention of issue bond: the whole of today's session, the pr cipal speeches being made by Mr. Allen (Pop., Neb.), Mr. Hour (Mass.), Mr. Gorman (Md.) and the chairman of the finance committee, Mr. Voorhees (Ind.). Various other senators ook part in the debate. Mr Allen argued that the power to issue bonds under the resumption act was not (as Mr. Sherman had claimed yesterday) a continuous one, but that it ceased when the redemption of the greenbacks was completed under that act. Mr. Hoar, ex-chairman of the judic lary committee, declared with much solemnity of manner, that the pro-posed bonds would be illegal and would convey no constitutional or lawful ou

Mr. Gorman defended, generally, the Democratic administration and party, and discussed the question of responsi-bility for the deficit in the treasury. which he attributed to the revenue measures and extravagant appropriations of the Republicans.

Mr. Voorhees took a similar position and asserted that the secretary of the treasury could use the money obtained from the bonds in any way that seemed to him proper and conducive to the general purpose of the resumption act of 1875. The whole day's debate was foreible and it attracted close atten-

SITUATION AT RIO JANEIRO.

An Officer Is Injured on Board of the Detroit. WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 .- The only new phase of the situation at Rio Janeiro is that Secretary Herbert has called on Admiral Benham for a written report of his trouble with Da Gama to be sent by mail for use in any complications that may arise. It is probable that an-other cable message from Amiral Benham will reach Secretary Herbert today; at least, one is expected.

The report that an officer and a blue cket were injured on board the D troit during the threatened hostilities is confirmed at the navy department. They were not wounded by shots from Da Gama's ships, but through coreless handling of guns on board the Detroit. Their injuries are very slight, and it is stated that they ave only themselves to blame for the

ANARCHISTS AT MANSFIELD.

Mysterious Cave Filled to Overflowing with Inflammatory Literature. Arms and Amumnition Found.

MANSFIELD, Pa., Jan. 31.—Ten of the ingleaders of Saturday's riots were raptured at Tower hill this morning. Among them were the noted Anarchists Benzol Benish, Charles Perliech, Frank Chour and others. A dozen Germans and Slave escaped to the hills. The village appeared to be a hot bed of anarchists. In every house were found ctures of the Chicago anarchists and aflammatory literature of all kinds. Among the prisoners are three boys who have been identified as those who set fire to the Bridgeville tipple. One man said pathetically: "Take my wife and children too, I have no work and no grub, and if they lose me they will have no one to steal for

The greatest find was made by Deputy Sheriff Mowry, who burst open the door of the house of Benzol Benish, the sha anarchistic pictures. Benish was known and handcuffed immediately. As the was leaving they heard one of the children say: "Don't come out yet." They turned back to find out what was meant. The searching party discovered that there was a cave-like room under the house. The key was demanded, but was rea meeting hall. Guns, used. A threat produced it, however, and when the door was unlocked the officers started back in astonishment. The interior was arranged of which had been recently discharged were arranged about the walls. Here, too, the walls were profusely decorated with blood cardling pictures. Empty revolver cartridges were thrown about. Charles Perlisch was found hiding beneath a pedestal. He was secured and afterward! acknowledged that a meeting had been held in the place on Friday night, at which the leaders of the mob made known what they would do.

zilian Ports Unmolested.

Rio Janeiro, Jan. 31.-American essels that desire to come to the piers of the city, can now do so without be ng interfered with by the insurgents. The negotiations to settle the trou les between the insurgents and the government by arbitration, in which dmiral Benbam was acting as a private citizen, are at present at a standstill. This is probably due to the fact that Admiral Da Gama's nephew was killed early on Monday morning while ngaged in a foray along the shore on a promoter from Colorado, who reached this city recently, was Paisley, of this city, to recover gross fraud and swindling. Paisley mays be paid Chemberlain for 100 shares stock of the Fort Worth Park Plac+ company, which was absolutely worth-less. Coamberlain represented that the company own d 400 acres within . short distance of Fort Worth,

The circular of this concern set forth that it had a paid up capital of $1,000, 000 and the officers were H. B. Chamerlain, president; A. W. and F Chamberlain, vice presidents; W. H. Chamberlain, treasurer, and F. B. Gibson, secretary, It was a Colorado orporation, and according to the circular had branch offices at New York, Rochester, Fort Worth, Scranton, Detroit, Uties, San Antonio fand Corpus nristi. Texas, and in London and Nottingham, Eegland. This circular was a most alluring one and the descripon of the so-called property very elaborate. It was located within a mile and a half of the board of trade, close to an electric railroad, adjacent to a great boulevard, as well as posssing other extensive advantages. The cost of the land to the company was but $850 an acre, while property further out was worth $1,500 an acre on the market.

The result of this was that Raisley to be paid for in installments. He made his last payment, making in all, with interest, $5,175 in November, 1892. Paisley becoming suspicious went to Fort Worth. There he mat H. W. Tallard, one of the original promoters of the company, to whom one-eighth of the stock had been issued. Tallard told him that the company never owned any land nor a dellar's worth of property of any kind. He also informed aisley that ar the time he bought the stock the land was owned by Robert McCarl and William Capps, citizens of Fort Worth

The driver succeeded in getting within two feet of being out of danger. Everett B. Durfee a teacher in the school, and in charge of the party was sitting on a camp stool at the end, and on either side of him were Brooks Borden, son of Cal-onel Spencer Borden, and Ray Thorn-ton, son of Charles D. Thornton, while Oreon Swift, the 17-yehr-old son of M B. Swift, was sitting in the lap of Henry Hawkins

When the party saw the rushing train he members became terror stricken. Borden and Thornten jumped over the jump when he, too, was struck. Borden was hurled forty feet, his skull and dragged along in the wheels for 100 yards, his head and right hand being severed from his body. Swift was hurled twenty feet and was un conscious when picked up. He was taken home, but died shortly after he arrived there. Mr. Dorfee jumped with Clark Chase, jr., when they saw the train and they escaped with slight bruises, the train passing between them and the sleigh. Immediately after the accident, the terror stricken pupils jumped from their conveyance and the young ladies became frantic. The only injury done to the sleigh was the smashing out of the end about a foot square. The horses were going at a moderate gait and did not attempt to run.
