CHICKEN THIEVES ARE AT WORK

They Paid a Visit to John Buckley's Hennery Early Yesterday Morning. Death of Mrs. Ebenezer Griffiths. Funeral of James Mawson-Entertainment for the Benefit of the Poor. Sleighing Party Goes to Olyphant.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON Thibune is located at 128 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt

For some time past thieves have been committing depredations on the hen cops in various portions of the West Side, but all efforts to bring the perpetrators to justice have failed. At an early hour yesterday morning thieves visited the roosts of John Buckley on North Sumner svenue and stole eight of the fowls. When Mrs. Buckley went to the coop for the purpose of feeding the hens, she was greatly sur-prised on finding a large pool of blood and the heads of several chickens trewn about. The thieves entered through a back gate, as the marks of a large pair of boots are imprinted in the snow. Other footprints show where they had tried to get in through the side of the shed. The marauders must have carried a bag to put the fowls in as there would otherwise been a trail of blood from the several necks. No cine has been obtained as to who the doers of the mischief are.

Death of Mrs. Ebenezer Griffiths. At an early hour yesterday morning Mrs. Rebecca Griffiths, wife of Ebenzer Griffiths, of South Main avenue, died after an illness of about six months. The deceased was 61 years of age and a native of Wales. She has been a resident of this side for the past thirty years. Mrs. Griffiths was a woman of sterling integrity and earn-est Christian faith, Her husband and hree daughters survive her. They are Mrs. Moses Morgan and Miss Mary Griffiths, of this city, and Mrs Thomas Evans, of Pittston. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from the family residence, 832 South Main avenue, at 2.30 o'clock. Services will be conducted by Rev. J. T. Morris, pastor of the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church. Interment will be made in the Washburn Street cometery.

To Benefit the Poor. A concert will be held in the basement of St. Patrick's church this evening for the benefit of the poor children of the parish. There will be no admission fee, but a collection will be taken, Professor Haydn Evaas will have charge of the concert, the programme of which will be as follows:

Yesterday afternoon the snow plough was sent to Taylor, and last evening the tracks were cleared so that the car could be brought to the city. In comsnow plough jumped the track at the curve just above the Robinson street switch and crashed into the side of a building. The building was damaged slightly but the snow plough was not injured in the least.

FLEET TROTTERS ON THE SNOW.

Well Known Lovers of Fine Horse Flesh Exercise Their Steeds on North Washington Avenue.

North Washington avenue presented a picture of animation yesterday afternoon with the fine array of elegant turnouts that were drawn by flyers up and down the thoroughfare. Nearly every style of sleigh was represented on the avenue, from the elegant Rus sian drags to the bobsled, and the fine sleighing was heartily enjoyed by all. The portion of the avenue between North Park and Green Ridge street was particularly lively as the speeding ground for the blooded stock owned by prominent Scrantonians, During the afternoon numerous scrub races took place, which were watched with interest by hundreds of appreciative spectators who sat in sleighs along the course of two blocks or stood upon the payement. Exciting trials of speed occurred between E. J. Goodwin, who drove Jim Corbett, and Corliss Smith, who held the reins over Frank Siegel's trotter. J. H. Sutherland, who drove Lysander, Alex Dunn, jr., Dr. Haggerty, Dr. G. E. Hill, Dr. Charles Hill, Walter Jer-myn, J. H. Lulwig, Frank Sontt, J. L. Crawford, Frank Armsbury, Alfred Harvey, Fred Cook and Frank Hannas also gave exhibitions of the speed of their horses.

Among the well-known lovers of horseffvan present were Ruswell H. Patterson, George M. Halistead, W. A. St. John, William Parke, Dr. C. R. St. John, William Parke, Dr. C. R. Parke, S Gathercole, Albert Swartz, William Boland, C. D. Jones, Professor F. E. Wood, Dr. N. Y. Leet, Louis Bunnell, W. H. Whyte, Dr. Wentz, Daniel Silkman, A. G. Thomason, Charles Weston, A. D. Blackington, Frank Phillian and Crampar Von Starch Frank Phillips and Cramer Von Storch.

Many ladies viewed the sport from the handsome turnouts owned by William Silkman, W. N. Gerheart, William Connell, Taomas H. Watkins, John Simpson, C. D. Jones, J. H. Phelps, John T. Porter, A. L. Spencer, Calvin Seybolt, E. N. Willard and others.

WONDERLAND'S EXCELLENT SCENERY With a Show That Corresponds with it in Every Way. There is one thing about the show at Wonderland this week that is noticed by everybody. It is the splendid scenery, an excellent interior scene of a circus tent. It is the work of Harry Thorne, the accomplished stage man ager of the Wonderland theater.

The show itself is one of the best seen here in some time, and the acts introduced by Ringmaster Brooks are all novel as well as good. The strong Thomas, Walter Jones, Emerson Owens | feats of the Grothe brothers are especially noteworthy.

INVENTORS OF A PRACTICAL TURN

One Man Who Has Devoted the Best Years of His Life to Courting Fortune-Others Whose Minds Run in Similar Channels-Work Progressing at New Dam-James Connell Lodge Rally-Shorter Paragraphs.

Since the location of the axle works n this section, many are the inventions that have been devised and are in contemplation. Every man connected with the establishment seems to be a genius in his line, and all are striving to turn their inventive faculties into some channel that will result in a har vest of golden shekels.

Prominent among men of an invent-ve turn is one who is familiarly called 'Old John," but whose full name is lonn Rollin. He is employed as a laborer, but the best years of his life have been devoted to inventing and he is still engaged at it. One of the con-trivances that he boasts of is a corrugated tire for street car wheels that can be put on and taken off at will. The inventor hopes to have a test of its efficacy at an early day. He caunot secure a patent on it for the simple reason that its essential features are covered by letters patent granted to the late J. W. Parmaise. Mr. Rollin has in contemplation a device for reducing the time employed in performing certain functions at the works to one-third of the time now employed in doing the same thing. Another g entlemen at the works is interested in constructing a wrench to be used in a rranging puleys that will be a simplification of resent methods and will be a vast improvement, while two other men have applied for letters patent for a corrugated wheel that will be put on in sec

Work Progressing at Dam. Notwithstanding the prevalent severe weather work at the new receiving dam of the Meadow Brook Water company that will be built at Degan's farm is progressing rapidly. Two large gangs are employed, one on either side of the road. The men are in charge of E. A. Simonson and James Connell and the work consists of 'removing stumps and debris preparatory to cleaning the bed of the dam. This latter work is expected to be completed next season and the work of constructing the dam and spillway will be proceeded with as soon as the weather is propitious. Odd Fellows Have a Rally. The James Connell lodge, Independent Order of Old Fellows held a rally at their rooms on Cedar avenue last evening. The hall was packed and an interesting programme was rendered. Instrumental music was furnished by Berghauser's orchestra and by Banjoist George E Carr. An address was de-livered by Joshua R. Thomas. It was listened to with much attention and many of the invited guests seemed to take his teachings to heart. As a result, an increased membership is expected at the next meeting. There is still work for the Associated Charities in this portion of the city as the following incident will show. A ady yesterday approached a South Side merchant and asked him for some provisions on her little home, off-ring a note in security. She has lived here thirty years. Her husband is unable to work and her son who is quite young can find no employment for which he is adapted. The North works will resume operations this morning after a ten days idleness.

The Harmony Building and Loan association met last evening. It has been in existence for seven years and ten Peter Snider, of Stone avenue, is awaiting a summons to Kingston where he will be employed as for-man in the construction of a large bridge across the Sugguehanna. John Kennedy has been made foreman at the Scranton Axle works. He is in charge of the laboring department.

DUNMORE.

Mrs. Spencer Martin is ill at her home on Cross street. At a meeting of the congregation of The Great Marvel of Dental Science St. Luke's Dunmore mission resolutions were passed regretting the resignation of Rev. Samuel S. Marquis. The resointions state that the reverend gentle-man's work has been highly appreciated and that the best wishes of the congregation will go with him to his new field of labor.

The success attained by Burke Bros , ontractors, shows what pluck and energy can do in business life. Start ing in a few years ago as poor young men, they have labored honestly and zealously until their reputation as contractors now extends not through out their own state alone, but to all of the eastern states Timothy Bucke, the elder of the brothers, who lives in the North Park section of the borough has just been honored by the Republican party by being nominated for the highest office in the borough. Mr. Burke's friends, who are innumerable, express themselves as being greatly pleased at the selection and look upon him as the next burgess.

Charlie Brown is on the sick list. The question of all night lights seems ts have been forgotten. If the borough fathers will only arrange to have the lights burn until morning, they will be blessed by all belated citizens who have to stumble along on dark, stormy nights in danger of bel places in sidewalks, and evil disposed rowdies.

The 1-year-old daughter of Jessie Sanders died Tuesday. George Allen spant yesterday afternoon in Avoca.

James Hastu, of Avoca, passed through town last evening. Miss Kate Curry is convalescent, Fred Atkinson is ill at his home on Pine street.

Any stranger coming into the place on Tuesday would have wondered why the people exhibited so much uneasi-ness and ill humor. He would have seen persons running from house to iouse eagerly interrogating their neighbors about a matter that seemed to affect them greatly. Big boys and little girls, men, women, master and servant were all on the qui vive. THE TRIBUNE correspondent noticing one little girl running toward a neighbor's, asked what the trouble was and received the following doleful informa-tion: "Papa didn't get his TRIBUNE before breakfast this morning and it made him awful cross. He said hateful things to mamma and me and open and open and open and Bridget and now I is go ing over to Mrs. Jones' and see if she won't let papa have her TRIBUNE, if it has come, so he will feel better." The above explains itself. When one has started to take THE TRIBUNE he is lost wthout it, and peace and harmony give place to grumblings and ill humor. THE TRIBUNE was snowed in along the line of the traction company and did not reach here until noon,

IN THE AID OF CHARITY.

Entertainment in Excelsion Hall by St Vincent de Paul Society. The Pine Brook branch of the St. Vincent de Paul society gave a pleasant entertainment and social in Excelsion hall on Wyoming avenue last evening. The large attendance taxed the hall to its utmost capacity. Chairs were at a premium and over a bundred persons were compelled to stand.

The entertainment was first class in every respect and thoroughly pleased the audience. The singing of Miss Maggie Harrington, Miss Doughbrty, Miss McHale and little Miss Geraldine Blewitt was appreciated and roundly applauded. The humorous impersona-tions and recitations by D. Edward Vail were excellent and Miss Jemima Jones, the elecutionist, was forced to respond to an encore when she recited Scotland's Maiden Martyr." playing of the Morse Mandolin and Juitar club was very good. After the entertainment the young people indulged in dancing to music furnished by Miss Nelite Currau
