CITY NOTES.

Charles Samuelson died at the Lackawanna hospital yesterday.

Eugene O'Rourke in "The Weeklong Postman" will be at the Academy of Music this evening.

Wood's college does not suffer from the hard times. Nearly 600 students attend both sessions.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company will pay Sloan and Hampton nine employees today.

Mayor Connell yesterday signed a release for Sarah Gyzins, who was committed to the county jail Jan. 21.

The Keystone Dancing class of Olyphant, has postponed their social. It will be held on Feb. 6, at O'Brien's hall.

Some colored men applied to the mayor yesterday for license to conduct a boxing match at Meigs Hall. Twice not granted.

The Rev. A. Bergen Broome, of Sayre, N. Y., will preach in the Baptist church at Waverly tomorrow morning and evening. All are invited.

Marriage licenses were granted by Clerk of the Courts Thomas yesterday to Michael Walsh and Margaret Harris, Scranton; John T. Casey and Maria May, Scranton.

The students of the Young Men's Christian association educational department were addressed on Thursday evening by H. C. Shaffer, of the Scranton Savings bank.

James Danner and James Desmond were before Alderman O. E. Wright in police court yesterday morning charged with fighting. Each was committed to the county jail to serve thirty days.

A movement is on foot to establish a kindergarten in the mission chapel used by the branch Sunday school of the Second Presbyterian church, at the corner of Adams avenue and New York street.

John P. Snyder has been elected treasurer of the Lackawanna hospital by the directors of that institution. He will succeed the late E. C. Fuller, who was treasurer since the founding of the hospital.

A sleighing party from the store of A. M. Atherton & Co., Providence Square, visited Mr. and Mrs. William Atherton at their home, Woodview Farm, near Clark's Summit, Thursday evening, and were royally entertained.

The Elm Park Sunday school is now conducted on the plan known as the graded system, a feature in Sunday school work which is very attractive. A large number of visitors are present every Sunday to witness the exercises.

A match game of checkers will be played today at Henry Baker's, 355 Penn. avenue, by teams representing Scranton and Pittston. The local players will be E. C. Post, John Carmichael, L. Brown, Henry Baker, E. C. Mellon and John Lantz. The Pittston team will be captained by David McArt.

Rev. P. A. Hulbert, a prominent colored divine, and secretary of Livingston college, Salisbury, N. C., will be the speaker at the gospel meeting at the Young Men's Christian association tomorrow afternoon at 8:45. The song service will be led by "Fannie Morgan, left back; Williams and Tomkins, substitutes.

Secretary Mahy has secured E. F. See, W. E. Miller and George F. Warburton, of New York; W. C. Douglas, of Philadelphia; and James Logan Gordon, of Boston, five of the most prominent Young Men's Christian association secretaries in the country, as speakers for the anniversary exercises of the local association, which will occur early in April.

STORMY WAR OF WORD

Poor Director Gibbons and Attorney Scragg Exchange Compliments.

CHARGED WITH IRREGULARITIES

Mr. Scragg invites the Director from the South Side to Examine the Court Records and See Where the Irregularity Exists—Mr. Gibbons Invited to Repeat the Accusation Outside of the Poor Board Rooms.

The poor board met in regular session yesterday afternoon. President Langstaff was in the chair and all the directors were present.

Mrs. Swan reported that she had learned on reliable authority that Mrs. Burns, the old lady that Mrs. Sailer wished to be paid for keeping, did not have proper care. She wished to have Mr. Gibbons investigate the case. Mr. Gibbons stated that Dr. Manley had told him that Mrs. Burns was not fit to be removed to the home, and was very indignant when Mrs. Sailer's good intentions were assailed.

Mrs. Duggan, of the South Side, had five children who wanted some help. The board was perplexed somewhat as to its proper course of action. Mr. Gibbons stated that in similar cases help had before been given on the verbal report of Attorney Scragg. He thought if the attorney would furnish a written opinion the board would know how to act. The case was referred to Mr. Scragg.

Dominic McMahon had an order for relief. His wife is gradually becoming blind and her head is swelling. He has four children, the eldest of which is 10 years old. The case was referred to Director Gibbons with instructions to have Mrs. McMahon taken to the Lackawanna hospital and the children placed in some good institution if the case was as represented.

BEATEN ON HER DEATH BED.

Mrs. Duggan, of the Associated Charities, reported that in her travels she had come across a sad case in the seventh ward. The family was that of John Howley, of Garden street. His wife was seriously ill and Howley beats her while she is in bed. The case was referred to Director Tropp.

Superintendent Beemer's report for the month of January was read. It showed that Jan. 1 there were 163 inmates in the house; received during the month, 15; born, 1; discharged, 18; died, 2; total number of inmates Feb. 1, 167; males, 118; females, 49.

Outdoor Physician Gunster's report shows that he had made 87 visits; he had 15 old cases and 29 new cases, 1 birth and 2 deaths, 2 insane patients examined. Outdoor Physician Paine reported having made 69 visits to 15 patients, 1 insane examination. Outdoor Physician Manley reported having made 31 visits to 12 patients; had 1 death. Outdoor physician Marbury reported having made 29 visits and given 22 prescriptions.

Mrs. Pettigrew, relief agent of the board, reported that since the last meeting she had investigated eighty-four cases, fifty-one of which were found worthy. H. Von Storck and E. D. Ouel, auditors for the district, reported that they had found the accounts of the treasurer for the year 1893 to be correct, and fixed the directors' salaries as follows: John B. Gillespie, $62.50; Thomas Shotton, $187.50; John Gibbons, $250; W. S. Langstaff, $250; Mrs. D. W. Swan, $250; Ernest Williams, $250; P. J. Murphy, $250; Charles Tropp, $250.

Benjamin E. Evans, resident physician, reported that 124 patients had been treated, same 80 and insane 44; males 73 and females 49; number of patients in asylum Jan. 1, 135; received, 31; total Feb. 7, 138; number of prepared, 308.

Attorney Scragg announced that he had received $470 from Attorney Walter Briggs to apply on the Mary Bone case. There is still $514.35 due. He also reported that Attorney B. F. Kellan had stated that he would pay up what was due on the Mrs. Roney case in installments. Mr. Gibbons did not think this was exactly proper and made a motion to the effect that Attorney Scragg pursue the delinquent and secure immediate settlement.

FIN FOR THE DIRECTORS.

Attorney Scragg stated that he was present at the meeting of Jan. 19 as was possible and he had learned that after he left a member charged him with certain irregularities in the house of Mrs. Cunningham. He wished to state for the benefit of the member in question that everything was regular and as his papers from court would show.

Mr. Gibbons at once jumped to his feet and stated that he would not take back the words he had uttered, and that the attorney should have given an itemized bill to the woman's relatives when they asked for it.

Mr. Scragg stated that it was the members' privilege to cause an investigation if he saw fit, and he wished he would. One word led to another, and finally Mr. Gibbons asked the board's attorney why he did not have him arrested for defamation of character? Mr. Scragg replied that "he could not do so for what was said in the meeting but that he would if it was said outside."

"All right," answered Mr. Gibbons, "I will repeat it as soon as I leave this room."

"I dare you too," exclaimed Attorney Scragg, jumping to his feet.

"Well, I will," responded Mr. Gibbons, and then President Langstaff's gravel commanded order in the room and the debate was over for the time being.

President Langstaff appointed the following committee for the year: Howard Tropp, Swan and Williams. Purchasing—Williams, Shotton and Murphy.

Finance—Tropp, Shotton and Gibbons.

Rules—Shotton, Swan and Gibbons.

NEW ELMHURST BOULEVARD.

Proposals for its Construction Have Been Invited.

Bids for the construction of the new boulevard to Elmhurst will be received all next week. They may be addressed to Major C. G. Mattee, of the Lackawanna Iron and Coal company's engineering department, where the plans and specifications may be seen. Work on the boulevard will begin as soon as practicable and will be prosecuted with expedition.

The boulevard proper will be at Arthur avenue and Merry street and a high bridge over Nay Aug falls will exhibit this beautiful body of water to the traveler. Crossing over the tunnel, the road will cross the Erie tracks on an overhead bridge. Elmhurst will be reached by easy stages, the maximum grade being 3 per cent. The road will terminate at the residence of Chief Engineer Henry Wehrum, at Elmhurst. The road will vary in width from eighteen to twenty-four feet, and must be constructed in first-class style, with a top dressing of broken stone. The grade in either direction will be so light that a horse can trot the entire distance without difficulty.

The special features of the new road will be the direct approach from the city proper, the absence of dangerous railroad tracks and the entrancing scenic beauties of the territory through which it passes. The fact that the road is to be built at this time, when work is so scarce, is another feature to recommend it.

ANOTHER NEW INSTITUTION.

Names of Prominent Scranton Men Who Are Interested.

A branch of the Republic Savings and Loan association of New York was organized in this city yesterday in the office of Resident Manager S. N. Callender. The branch has 140 members holding $250,000 worth of stock.

The following representative citizens of Scranton were unanimously elected officers and directors of the branch: J. W. Peck, president; James M. Everhart, first vice president; Daniel U. G. Schoonmaker, second vice president; S. G. Kerr, third vice president; A. B. Clay, secretary; S. N. Callender, treasurer; Watson & Diehl, general attorneys and counsel; H. T. Koehler, C. M. Truman, A. R. Kanh, E. B. Franklin and Joseph F. Bussanier, appraisal committee. Directors chosen were J. W. Peck, J. M. Everhart, U. G. Schoonmaker, Samuel McEachen, S. G. Kerr, W. W. Watson, F. B. Foote, George D. Taylor, M. T. Keller, M. E. McDonald, Louis Conrad, M. J. Stone, J. E. Loveland, C. J. Lamb, Jacob Boaz, J. W. Lathrop, Dr. J. L. Fordham, C. M. Hathaway, J. L. Hull and W. S. Diehl.

TWO EXCELLENT LECTURES.

Subjects on Which Rev. Dr. MacArthur Will Discourse.

An event of much importance to the coming week will be the lectures by the celebrated New York divine, Rev. Dr. R. S. MacArthur, of the Calvary Baptist church.

The lecture at Elm Park church on Thursday evening will be on "Glimpses of Sunny Spain from Historic Hill-tops." This lecture is replete with interesting incidents in the life of the remarkable people of Spain, and will reveal a historic point in connection with Columbus and his relation to Ferdinand and Isabella, not generally known.

The lecture on the following evening at the Jackson Street Baptist church on "Chips from Many Shops" gives this eminent and popular lecturer full swing on the leading topics of the times. It will be one of the most interesting and instructive lectures ever delivered in Scranton.

FIVE DOLLARS GIVEN FOR THREE.

That Is What Shank, the Shoe Merchant, Is Now Doing.

The well known shoe merchant, Shank, of the Arcade shoe house, is now receiving the first of his spring goods, and has not enough store room for all he has ordered. There is only one thing for him to do and he has done it.

That is, get rid of the goods he has on hand at present at just what they cost. Not cheaper than they cost, because that would not be good business, and Shank, above all, is a good business man.

Therefore, during February, he will sell shoes that sell elsewhere for $5 to $2, and all other goods will be sold at proportionately low prices. But remember, these cost prices will not prevail after the 28th of February.

SCHANK'S ARCADE SHOE STORE.

ANOTHER MORTAL TIRED OF LIFE.

Samuel Hall, of Waverly, Shoots Himself at an Early Hour.

Samuel Hall, a clerk in Bedford & Son's drug store at Waverly, committed suicide at an early hour yesterday morning by putting a bullet through his body.

About 5 o'clock Hall, who resided with his wife and family on Beech street, awoke and asked his wife to bring him a drink of water. To comply with the request Mrs. Hall went to the kitchen. While there she heard the report of a revolver, and hastening back to her bedroom, found her husband lying on the floor. He died a few minutes later.

Hall was 35 years of age and had suffered much from rheumatism. His sufferings probably unbalanced his mind. Coroner Kelly investigated the case yesterday afternoon.

Physicians Acknowledge There Is Less Diphtheria.

New York, Feb. 3.—Physicians have watched with a jealous eye the increasing popularity of the Sound Disc invented by H. A. Wales, of Ashland Block, Chicago, as patients who have been under their care for years, have in a week's time had their hearing restored by it, and they acknowledge that there is a decrease in the percentage of deafness from its use.

HANDCUFFED HIS MAN

Constable William Reese Received $1.50 for Humiliating a Prisoner.

HE RELATED THE STORY IN COURT

Judge Gunster Delivered a Stern Lecture to Such Constables—He Said Reese Should Be Indicted, Convicted and Removed from Office.

The Rowlands Declared to Be Guilty—John Walsh's Brave Conduct. Other Cases Heard.

Joseph Gerjunas, of Priceburg, was tried before Judge Gunster yesterday on a charge of having improper relations with Miss Annie Progalosky who was a servant in the boarding house which Gerjunas conducted. Attorneys Joseph O'Brien and C. Conroy defended the accused and ex-Judge W. H. Stanton assisted the district attorney as private counsel for the prosecution.

Miss Progalosky said she came to this country last March and in June was employed assisting Mrs. Gerjunas at the boarding house. One day in June Mrs. Gerjunas told the servant to take her little boy to the room occupied by Gerjunas and his wife, and again he wronged her. Some time later she left the employ of the Gerjunas, and in July went to visit them in company with another young woman.

A few nights afterwards Progalosky slept on one of the rooms occupied by Gerjunas and his wife, and again he wronged her. Some time later she left the employ of the Gerjunas, and in July went to visit them in company with another young woman.

Gerjunas was digging a well in the yard and she went to watch him work. She says the well was about twelve feet deep, and after she had been standing on the edge for a few minutes he pulled her down into the well and there had intercourse with her.

Gerjunas denied the charges made against him, and his wife went on the stand and said that on the day of the episode in the well she was standing on the edge for a few minutes, when she could see the well. Nothing of the kind described by Miss Progalosky occurred there. The young woman who was Miss Progalosky's companion says she went to the well with her. Miss Progalosky began throwing sand on Gerjunas and his playfully threw her into the well. She saw nothing improper.

Constable William Reese swore that he arrested Gerjunas on the warrant sworn out by Miss Progalosky, and at the request of Joseph Fendrick and the promise of $100 he agreed to handcuff Gerjunas after his arrest.

RESE GOT HIS MONEY.

Reese made the arrest, handcuffed Gerjunas and received the $100 agreed upon by Fendrick. This was done for the purpose of humiliating the accused. In commenting on the action of this constable, Judge Gunster said in charging the jury:

He came on the stand and testified that he made the arrest, that he was a constable and that he made a contract for $100 to put the handcuffs on the accused. Why this man went to be in blatant defiance of the law is not clear. He ought to be arrested, indicted, convicted, sentenced and removed from office. It's about time that kind of business was taken out of this country. We have protested in this court room term after term against such conduct as that, and if we learn of any more constables doing business of that kind we propose to place a heavy hand on them. Of what value is the oath of a constable who would sell his office for a bribe?

At 8 o'clock the case was given to the jury, but a verdict was not reported when court adjourned.

THE ROWLANDS' GUILTY.

Yesterday morning the jury in the case of the Rowlands, charged with assault and battery, returned a verdict of guilty. The boy, William Rowland, was returned not guilty.

Nolle prosequi were entered on payment of the costs in the following cases: A. E. Cooper and James White, aggravated assault and battery, John E. O'Malley, prosecutor; Emil Schmidt and Max Phillips, assault and battery, John H. Troy, prosecutor; Darby Dougherty, felonious wounding, John Boylon, prosecutor; Adam Kominsky and William Burcoo, false pretense, W. J. Adams, prosecutor.

In the case of S. Zeilins, charged with burglary by Richard Zeilins, the jury yesterday returned a verdict of not guilty.

The case of Baltassar Barber and Frank Rich, charged with assault and battery by Stanislaus Zeilinsky, was given to the jury at noon yesterday, but a verdict had not been agreed upon when court adjourned. A verdict of not guilty was taken and the costs placed on the county in the case of J. Granska and Veronica Granska, charged with false pretense by Randolph Schwartz.

HE WAS A BRAVE FRIEND.

Alexander Konkko, Roma Okmowitz, J. Redelevitz, Anthony Toroski and Paul Redelevitz were called to answer a charge of robbery preferred by Frank Walsh, of Carbondale. Konkko and Toroski were the only ones who appeared for trial. They were defended by Attorney A. McGinty and Attorneys J. O'Neill and R. J. Bann represented the commonwealth.

Walsh runs a livery stable at Carbondale and on the night of Oct. 7 last agreed to drive Roma Okmowitz to the Ridge at Archbald for $3. He took James Walsh along with him for company. When they reached the Ridge Roma began to yell in Polish and attracted a number of his countrymen. He told them Walsh had robbed him of $3 and they set upon him and gave him a terrible beating. He escaped with his life by giving them $15.

James Walsh was called to the stand and identified the two men on trial as ones who helped to pull Frank Walsh out of the carriage and afterward assaulted him. Seeing the danger his friend was in the witness drove to Carbondale and telephoned for help.

"Did you leave your friend behind in the crowd?" asked Judge Edwards in astonishment.

"Yes, sir," answered Walsh, "I went to Carbondale."

WHY HE DID NOT STAY.

"How far did you have to drive to Carbondale?"

"35, eight or nine miles."

"Why did you not remain and help your friend?" questioned the judge.

"Well, I did not think there was any use of my both getting killed," philosophically remarked the witness.

After the prosecution rested Judge Edwards said that the men could not be held for anything more than an assault, as it had not been shown they had anything to do with forcing Frank Walsh to give up money. The defense was an alibi, and at 4 o'clock the case was given to the jury. The jury agreed at 4 o'clock and will report its verdict this morning.

Patrick Cain was tried in the main

SOUR MILK BUBBLES.

The Cricket today will say: The rumor that William Connell, Everett Warren, William T. Smith and E. H. Ripple have sold their interest in The Tribune to Livy S. Richard looks confirmation.

Axious Inquirer: No, we know of no such firm in Scranton as Wood & Richard, newspaper proprietors.

It is perhaps on the whole, fortunate for the future happiness of THE TRIBUNE's young editor that the numerous flattering notices of him by others, reproduced in yesterday's TRIBUNE, did not begin, "My Dear Richard."

CHARMING FRIEND FRITZ.

The Manola-Mason Company Delights a Large Audience.

The Manola-Mason company in "Friend Fritz" played a return engagement at the Academy of Music last evening. A crowded house was drawn by the production. The exquisite scenes were well applauded and when the "Legend of Clairefontaine," "Song of the Wedding Ring" and the "Bachelor's Song" were rendered the audience demanded their repetition.

Certainly no organization is firmer established in the appreciation of Manola-Mason theater goes than the Manola-Mason company, and they can be assured of an enthusiastic welcome whenever they again appear in this city. The cast last evening was the same as upon the appearance of the company earlier in the season.

W. T. SMITH'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Warm Thanks Extended to a Generous Scranton Merchant.

Following is a copy of a letter sent to W. T. Smith, treasurer of Board of Associated Charities, by J. W. Wickler, of the Fashion. It is self-explanatory.

I am in receipt of your favor of the 23rd inst., enclosing check for $21.15, being your donation of 10 per cent. of your sales on Monday last, for carrying on the work of the Board of Associated Charities of our city, for which we extend our grateful acknowledgments. I note, with pleasure, that you expect to make your generous offer in the near future, and I trust it will be as successful as the first.

With assurances of appreciation $1 your kindly interest and assistance, I am, Very truly yours,

W. T. SMITH, Treasurer Board of Associated Charities

MONEY JUDICIOUSLY EXPENDED.

No Relief Granted Without a Thorough Investigation.

Mayor Connell's relief fund seems to be inexhaustible. Although only a trifle more than $1,000 was subscribed and distributed, there is still a balance of $270 to relieve the wants of the deserving needy.

Speaking on the subject last evening Mayor Connell said: "That fund is being very judiciously expended. Plausible stories are the applicant's evidence of the need of the applicant. The condition of every person who applies for relief is thoroughly examined, and if the investigation warrants, relief follows."
