INSTITUTE AT ARCHBALD.

Teachers from Surrounding Towns Discussion Methods of Instruction.

ARCHBALD, Pa., Feb 4.—A very interesting local institute was held in the central school building last Saturday morning by the school teachers of Mayfield, Jermy, Scotts and Archbald.

Every seat was occupied when Professor E. N. Davis called the assembly to order at 9:30.

The national anthem was sung under the direction of Professor Martin, of Jermy.

Miss Sarah O'Connor then read an excellent prepared paper on "The Ideal School."

Professor Howard spoke on "Monthly Examinations" and discussed the question with Mr. White and Mr. Davis.

Miss Mary Quinlan's class gave a lesson in color and form, showing many combinations with colored pieces of wood.

County Superintendent Taylor was introduced and after a few words of encouragement to the teachers proceeded to read a paper on "Order in the School."

The recitation by Miss Myrtle Price which followed was enjoyed by all.

Miss Spence, of Jermy, read a paper on "Teaching Fractions" containing some valuable hints.

So-called "language" was spoken in by Professor Davis and the improper expressions common to this locality were quoted.

Miss May Duffy recited a scene from "Leads," and the institute closed with music under the direction of Professor Martin.

The next institute will be held at Mayfield.

DEATH OF MRS. LEONARD.

The Wife of Susquehanna County's Sheriff Dies of Grip.

MONROE, Pa., Feb 4.—Mrs. Leonard, wife of Sheriff E. A. Leonard, died at her residence at 11 o'clock on Friday evening, Feb. 2.

Mr. Leonard was elected sheriff on the Republican ticket last fall, and Mrs. Leonard was not well when they moved here, having been a sufferer from the grip.

She had brought with her the news of her death was a great shock to the people of the county.

The sheriff and his motherless children will have the sympathies of all our citizens.

BAILEY WANTS $5,000.

He Demands Damages for Injury from False Imprisonment.

STROUBSBURG, Pa., Feb. 4.—W. Bailey, who represents the New Jersey Building and Loan association of Trenton, has brought suit at Bedford for $5,000 against the East Stroudsburg National Bank, I. Irwin Johnston of Portland, and Cashier Lewis H. Nicholas, for false arrest and imprisonment, laying his damages at $5,000.

Bailey was in company with a young man named Pease, of Brooklyn, who recently passed forged checks. He denies all complicity in the crime, and now sues for damages.

FUNERAL OF S. E. RAYNOR.

The Well Known Carbonate Citizen Laid to Rest.

SPECIAL TO THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE. CARBONDALE, Pa., Feb. 4.—The funeral services over the remains of the late Samuel E. Raynor were held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence on Lincoln avenue.

Rev. Charles Lee, pastor of the Presbyterian church, preached the funeral sermon, taking for his text the following passage of Scripture: "Yea, with the spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

Rev. Mr. Lee, in a quartette composed of himself, Mrs. Vannoy, Mrs. M. E. Burr, A. P. Thomas and B. R. Hall, rendered sweetly two of Mr. Raynor's favorite hymns, "Asleep in Jesus" and "Abide with Me."

The pall bearers were selected as follows: The Presbyterian church, Dr. R. Ottman, J. E. Barr, S. Bolton, W. J. Male, John R. Hoyt, H. H. Major, George Morris, N. Mollis, P. H. Briggs and John Mulligan.

The funeral offerings were handsome and came in abundance.

The following out of town friends were in attendance: Rev. James Raynor, S. S. Raynor, Miss Fannie Reed, of Montrose; Louis Easton and Mrs. Taylor, of Hancock, N. Y.; Mrs. Chapman and Miss Chapman, of Wyoming; Mrs. Harris Weston and May Weston, of Hazleton; Mr. and Mrs. E. Bardick and Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Uniondale; and Dr. Mark Hunter, of Clifford.

The funeral of the late Mrs. J. E. Eldred was held from the home of her son, Charles, at 3 p. m. Saturday.

Miss Antonette Durand gave a sleigh-ride party to sixteen of her girl friends Saturday afternoon.

A hay-riding will covered with hay is the popular conveyance for young people of this vicinity to enjoy rides to the country these fine evenings.

Miss W. J. Barr, of Hazleton, a man college, Wilkes-Barre, is at home.

CLUB BILLIARD TOURNAMENT.

Interesting Games Played in Exchange Club Rooms—Charles Bentley Leads.

SPECIAL TO THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE. HONESDALE, Pa., Feb. 4.—Last Thursday evening the Exchange club inaugurated its billiard tournament. Much interest is taken in the game, not only by the club members, but by outsiders.

A fancy cup will be given to the winner. The players are divided into classes, each person must play every member in his class. A game constitutes 100 points, and the member scoring the most points in each class at the close of the tournament will be declared the winner.

The score up to 4 p. m. Saturday was as follows: First class—Charles T. Bentley, 300 points out of a possible 300; Samuel Brown, 89 out of a possible 100; George Smith, 206 out of a possible 300; G. W. Lane, 80 out of a possible 200; W. R. Wood, 216 out of a possible 300; Thomas M. Fuller, 222 out of a possible 300; William F. Briggs, 100 out of a possible 100; F. J. Tolley, 49 out of a possible 100; E. M. Spence, 283 out of a possible 300; W. C. Hawker, 100 out of a possible 100; Frank A. Hamm, 100 out of a possible 100.

In the second class, Dr. C. E. Foster, 100 out of a possible 100; Paul W. Gardner, 60 out of a possible 100; D. C. Osborn, 78 out of a possible 100; and R. A. Smith, Jr., 100 out of a possible 100.

It will be seen that Charles T. Bentley is in the lead, having won three consecutive games.

HIT BY A SLEIGH.

A Carbonate Lady Is Seriously Injured in a Runaway.

SPECIAL TO THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE. CARBONDALE, Pa., Feb. 4.—On Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock a serious accident occurred to Mrs. Isaac Jones, of South Church street, who was crossing Main street in front of George J. Benton's store. A heavy sleigh to which a team of horses was attached came along at a lively gait and the lady, not noticing the approaching danger, walked right in front of the team and was knocked down and run over. The team was stopped and the unfortunate lady was taken in the Central House close by, where her wounds were cared for by Dr. Lowery. A cut on the head was among the
