CRAIG IS NOW THE DEPUTY.

The Formal Appointment Was Deolded on Yesterday. The agony with regard to the appointment of a deputy district collector r this district is over. Yesterday afternoon the matter was ettled by the announcement of one of

Collector Herring's closest friends that William Craig will be the deputy

A report was current last evening that the actual appointment had been made, but this statement was denied nat night by a Democrat who is thoroughly conversant with everything that franspires in the party. He assured the reporter, however, that the appointment had been decided upon and would be made at once.

brooklyn, addressed the city Christian Endeavor union last evening at the First Presbyterian church.

Rev. Thomas McLeod, D. D.

A song service conducted by the union's musical director, C. H. Chand-ler, began at 7.45 o'clock, and preceded the address of the evening. passage from the Scripture was read by the pastor, Rev. James McLeod. Prayer was offered by Rev. N. F.

Staht of the Green Ridge Presbyteriau harles E. Daniels, of the city union. Dr. McLood prefaced his remarks by throwing all the responsibility of an incomplete discourse upon his brother, Rev. James McLood, resident pastor. "James," he said, "has always exerted an authority over me and if in promising you a lecture without my knowledge, I throw all the blame on him if I fait to interest you by reason of being unprepared.

ORGANIZED FOR WORK Numerous societies, he wonched, night be obliterated without loss, as many of them are organized simply for the purpose of affording a presidency or secretaryship to persons who want to push themselves forward. He was glad to say, however, that the Christian Endeavor organization offered the best munifestation of the latter day life of the church. The Christian Endeavor society is not organized fun nor recreation, but for what the word "endeavor" means. He cited the words of Peter to Cornelius and family: "He went about doing Peter did not fly above terra firms, but was going about on the level doing and must do. READ THE BIBLE THOROUGHLY. Dr. McLeod thought that generally the reading of the New Testament was performed in too desultory a manner and merely skimmed over, while the daily walks and life of Christ ought to be studied and stamped upon the memry of endeavorers as a beacon light. tiet down to Peter's level," exclaimed

BUT THIRTEEN YEARS OLD.

Information on Which He Was Committed Was Sworn to by Merchant B. Rosenfeldt, of Priceburg-Justice of the Peace Lloyd of Priceburg Committed Boy-Case Will Be Brought to Attention of Court.

Frank Pavolosky, a 18-year-old boy. who has been incarcurated in the county jail since Monday, has awakened the profound sympathy of Warden Michael Grimes and the keepers at the jail as well as every one who has been made acquainted with his case. The boy has a married sister named Mrs. Josephine Buritzen, whose husband left her some time ago. he went away he was indebted to B. sum of $28 for groceries. Mrs. Bur-itzkn then took up her residence with Rosenfeldt, a Priceburg grocer, in the her mother at Priceburg. Mrs. Pavolosky was also a customer of Mr. Rosenfeldt. Her husband is in Chicago, and about a week ago he sent tickets for his wife, son and daughter to go to Chicago and take up their residence with him. The party made arrangements to go on Wednesday, THE BOY ARRESTED

Last Monday the boy wanted money from his mother to get tobacco, but instead of giving it to him, she told him to take her pass book and go to the store and get the tobacco. He says that he cannot read, and instead of taking his mother's book, took that of his sister by mistake. He secured the tobacco, but some time later in the day, was arrested on a warrant sworn out before Justice of the Peace William E. Lloyd, of Blakely, charging him with obtaining goods under false pretenses. At the hearing he alleges that his mother offered to pay for the tobacco, but that Rosenfeldt positively refused to accept the money. In default of ball the justice committed the boy to jail, where he has been ever since. He is inconsolable, and spends the greater part of his time

COURT WILL BE PETITIONED. This morning Ex-Judge W. H. Stanton, who has been interested in the boy's case, will bring the matter to the attention of the court and endeavor to have him released. It is claimed that the prosecution is the outgrowth of a desire on the part of Rosenfield to collect the bill owed by Mrs. Buritzku's Fusband. Mrs. Pavoloszy and Mrs. Buritzku became so frightened when the boy was arrested that they left the next day for Chicago, which makes the boy's plight all the more lamentable.
