LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Under this heading short letters of interest will be published, subject to the discretion of the editor. The writer's name and address will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.

Dr. Bentley Corrects the Truth. Will you please give me space to correct the impressions given by the reporter in Saturday's Truth of my remarks at the meeting of the board of health on Friday last upon the recent state sanitary convention. The Truth reported that I had misunderstood me or misconstrued my meaning. What I did say was this: "That the convention was a conference between the state board of health and the local boards throughout the state for mutual benefit and understanding. That it was largely for the benefit of the local boards recently organized under the act of assembly of 1892, giving thoroughness the right to organize boards of health. That the ground gone over was largely covered by the rules and regulations contained in the manual of the Scranton board of health, which is one of the ablest boards in the state, having been organized in 1878. That this convention was a great success, marking an era of decided improvement in sanitary conditions throughout the commonwealth."

Respectfully yours, JAMES K. BENTLEY.

LARGE FUNERAL OF BYRON R. WADE The Church Where the Services Were Held Was So Crowded That It Was Impossible to Obtain Admission.

Funeral of Mrs. Burgerhoff Saturday Morning—Socials and Receptions and Many Shorter Paragraphs.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 125 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.]

The largest funeral that has been seen on this side in a long time was that of Byron R. Wade, ex-chief of police, which occurred yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Long before that hour his many friends began to gather at the family home on South Sumner avenue, where a brief service was held. The remains were then taken to the Simonsen Methodist Episcopal church, where the cortege arrived. The church was filled to the doors and entrance was afterward impossible. The pastor of the church, Rev. L. C. Floyd, D. D., preached the funeral sermon. After reading the twenty-third Psalm he chose his text as follows: "In my Father's house there are many mansions; if it were not so I would have told you; and if I go to prepare a place for you I will come again," the floral tributes were of exquisite design. Among them were the following: A beautiful star of lilies and evergreens presented by the Scranton members of Odd-fellowship chapter, O. E. S., a large basket bouquet, by the family, a pillow by the Feter Williamson lodge, No. 323, Free and Accepted Masons, a star by Mrs. Frank Stead and a casket bouquet by Miss Bertha Jenkins. Peter Williamson, No. 423, Free and Accepted Masons, was in attendance, over 150 strong. The ritual at Forest Hill cemetery were recited by C. L. Van Buskirk, past master of the attending lodge, and he also spoke in eulogistic terms of the departed soldier and civil servant. The pall bearers were T. F. Wells, Everett Warren, H. C. Sander, George Mitchell, Frank Penman and Frank Barker.

Funeral of Mrs. Burgerhoff. The many friends of Mrs. Henry Burgerhoff, who died on Thursday, gathered at the family home on North Lincoln avenue Saturday morning to gaze on the remains for the last time. The cortege moved to St. John's German Catholic church on South Main avenue, where a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Father Fricker. During the services a quartet sang several beautiful selections. The burial of the remains was on the 11th of the month. Among them were "Gates Ajar," "Seals of Justice," by Mrs. C. D. Wegman, of New York city, a cross from the members of the Hook and Ladder company and a "cross and crescent" from the employees of Wegman & Burgerhoff. Among the out-of-town persons were Miss Annie Beer, of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wegman, of New York city. The floral bearers were: L. H. Stark, John J. Hughes, Peter Weiss, H. F. Ferber, Morris Walsh and John J. Thomas. Those who acted as pall bearers were Charles Schaefer, Louis Forgan, Otto Altman, Josiah Shaff, George Shaffer and John Miller. Interment was made in St. John's German Catholic cemetery.

An Evening Party. The home of Miss May Davies on Everett avenue, was a scene of brilliant splendor on Saturday evening, the occasion being a select party in her honor. The fair young hostess received from 8 until 9 o'clock, and many guests were present. The rooms were tastefully decorated and were shown to good advantage. During the evening games were played and piano selections were rendered by Miss Davies and Miss Hattie Sharkey. A male quartette sang. At a few minutes before midnight an excellent supper was served and the party dispersed. Among those present from Providence were Misses Eleanor De Pugh, May Evans, Hannah Edwards, Marnie Jones, Hattie Sharkey and Crad Morris, Louis Kline, and Edna Williams. From this side: Misses Lizzie Meredith, Jessie Owens, Ada Bright, Sarah Morgan, May Davies, and Will Collins. Robert Bowers, David Saunders, George Lowry, Arthur Meredith, Emerson Owens and Fred Kuhlman.

A Sudden Death. Luke Holly, aged 51 years, residing at 340 North Lincoln avenue, died very suddenly at his home at 1 o'clock on Saturday morning. He was taken ill on Wednesday, but no serious results were feared until Friday evening. A post mortem examination was made by Dr. Lindabury, assisted by Drs. Dawson and Sutch Saturday evening, which showed that death resulted from strangulated hernia. Mr. Holly came to this country eleven years ago and leaves a widow and five children. He was a member of lodge 109, American Protestant association, Ancient Order of Britons, and the Oxford Mine Accidental fund. The funeral will take place tomorrow from the family residence at 2:30 p. m.

His Skull Fractured. John Parry, a resident of North Bromley avenue, employed as a miner at the Oxford shaft, met with a serious accident on Saturday at 2 o'clock. Parry had primed a hole, lighted a fuse and retired to a place of safety, to await the explosion. There was a delay and thinking the fuse was quenched, he returned to examine it. As he became within range the blast went off, and large pieces of rock were hurled against him, the force of which badly bruised and mangled him. He was removed to the Moses Taylor hospital, where he still lies in a critical condition.

Mrs. Jane Williams Buried. The funeral of Mrs. Jane Williams, of Washburn street, took place on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. D. P. Jones, pastor of the Tabernacle Congregational church, officiated, and spoke in eulogistic terms on the excellent quality of the deceased. The floral offerings were of exquisite design, and included a star and crescent. The pall bearers were William Richards, John X. Davies, Daniel J. Evans, D. W. Morgan, William Jones and Edward Davis.

Shorter Paragraphs. James R. Hughes, son of John R. Hughes, of South Rebecca avenue, has been elected editor in chief of the Buck nel University Mirror, a college journal.

Harry Storms, a member of the Wilfred Clarke Comedy company, who has been visiting at his home on North Lincoln avenue, returned to join his company at Philadelphia today.

Rev. D. P. Jones, pastor of the Tabernacle church for the past seven years, closed his ministry yesterday. This evening the church will give Mr. and Mrs. Jones a farewell meeting. They will leave the city in a few days for Columbia.

Court Young Albion No. 33, Ancient Order of Foresters, of America, will give an entertainment and hop at Mears' hall on Wednesday evening.

The Welsh Philharmonic society held an interesting meeting Saturday evening in three rooms on South Main avenue. A continuation of the discussion, Resolved, That Electricity is the Motive Power of the Solar System, was held. The philosophical question, "The Conversion of Heat," was introduced by D. C. Powell, and a discussion on the question followed.

Professor George Howell will give an address this evening before the Hyde Park Literary and debating society in their rooms on South Main avenue. The subject will be, "Should Young Men Go to College?" The public is invited to attend.

Frank Stover, of Nanticoke, spent Sunday with his family on Lafayette street.

THE APPROACHING ELECTION. Court Appoints Election Officers and Names Polling Places.

Court on Saturday handed down a number of orders with regard to the appointment of election officers and fixing of polling places. H. T. Bradshaw was made judge of election of the Third district of the Fifth ward to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of James Lyshon.

C. C. Donovan and Louis Falot were appointed overseers of the First district and George Frable and John Metzgar overseer of the Second district of the Twelfth ward. J. C. Vaughan and John E. Mahon are appointed overseers of the First district and John Schwanmeyer and George J. Dubzig overseers of the Second district of the Sixth ward.

The borough of Taylor was divided into two election districts as follows: All north of the former Lackawanna and Old Forge township line shall be the second district, and the First district the polling place shall be at John E. Owens, near the Old Fellows' hall and John W. Reese is appointed judge, and George Powell and Daniel Gilvary inspectors of election. In the Second district the polling place shall be at Weber's ring on Main street, and William L. Hopkins and John Shields are appointed inspectors.

The polling place in the East district of Lackawanna township was changed from the Bellevue school house, now burned, to the poll-house to be erected on Delaware, Lackawanna & Western land right of the main road leading to Taylor, near the Lombard woods. David R. Mark appointed judge and Richard Lewis and Michael Hogan inspector of election.

The Tribune correspondent can say nothing more in regard to the letter published in John Moffatt's name Tuesday morning than to reiterate his article of Monday morning's issue. It may have been detrimental to Mr. Moffatt's self sustained cause to publish how much the announcement of his candidacy for the office of tax collector tickled the risibilities of all who heard it. It is not the province of the Tribune to publish facts upon its reporters to publish facts in regard to the feelings of the public in regard to it and that the probabilities are for his movement being successful. Therefore, Mr. Moffatt does the writer of the article a great injustice when he says that the readers are being misled by erroneous statements. As for his statements regarding Mr. James Young, the respected leader of the reform or Republican movement in this borough, it can be said that Mr. Young is too dignified and broad minded to take notice of Mr. Moffatt's ill-placed threats. That no statement regarding Mr. Moffatt's candidacy has been written in these columns that cannot be verified even though it includes the possibilities of his election. This concludes the Tribune's correspondent's defense, and no matter how much more Mr. Moffatt publishes no notice will be taken of it.

There are no voters within the borough limits who should work more as ardently for the success of the Republican ticket than those who live in the North Park portion of the Sixth ward, where they are treated by the present administration more like prisoners unable to escape than like respectable citizens.

DEATH OF MICHAEL J. MAHON He Was a Well Known Character in the Twelfth Ward—John Flaherty's Barber Shop Burglarized—Funeral of Mrs. Richard Zuleger—Professor Guth Angry Over Published Statement That His Daughter Eloped.

Michael J. Mahon, of Prospect avenue, one of the oldest and best known men in the Twelfth ward, died Saturday night at 11 o'clock. Mr. Mahon had been ailing for several years. He was troubled with some pulmonary complaint that bred of all medical skill and finally produced death. Mr. Mahon was a remarkable character and notwithstanding the ill he endured, he worked at his trade as manly as when ever it was possible to find employment. He represented the Twelfth ward in select council some years ago and made himself famous because of the tilt he had with C. F. Matton, representative from the Seventeenth. He worked at his trade as manly as when ever it was possible to find employment. He represented the Twelfth ward in select council some years ago and made himself famous because of the tilt he had with C. F. Matton, representative from the Seventeenth.

The funeral of Mrs. Richard Zuleger, of Alder street, took place yesterday afternoon. The services were very largely attended. There were representatives of three organizations present. They were societies with which Mr. Zuleger was connected, and took out as a mark of sympathy. The societies represented were the Fortbildungsverein, the Saengerbund and the Kriegerverein, and the pall and flower bearers were selected from them: These were Louis Hadrich, August Jabn, Charles J. Adelstein, Gustave Schultz and William Hanzguter. Flowers were sent from the lady members of the Saengerbund, from the Einigkeit, John Snyder, Jacob Hoffmeister, Mrs. Charles Coby and from the sisters and brothers of the dead woman. Rev. Mr. Weber conducted the services, and the interment was in Forest Hill cemetery.

Professor Guth Is Angry. Professor Jacob Guth, leader and director of the band that bears his name, was a much excited man on Saturday. The cause was a newspaper item that appeared last week stating that his daughter, a miss of 16, had been married in Binghamton some weeks ago. Mr. Guth called at the office of the paper printing the item, but could elicit no information. He then wrote a letter to Binghamton addressed to the clergyman who it is alleged performed the ceremony. Miss Guth denied the truth of the statement published.

Barber Shop Burglarized. The barber shop of John Flaherty, situated at Pittston avenue and Cherry street, was burglarized early yesterday morning, and the fact was not discovered until some time yesterday. The burglar left no clue as to their identity. Everything portable was taken; razors, strops, bones and a pair of opera glasses. Mr. Flaherty estimates his loss at $75.

Shorter Paragraphs. A child of Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Hara, of Prospect avenue, fell against the stove on Saturday and received a gash in the head that required Dr. Manien to put in five stitches.

Mrs. Rudolph George, of New York, sister of Richard Zuleger, attended the funeral of her sister-in-law yesterday.

Mrs. Penty, wife of Conductor Penty of the street railway, is seriously ill.

John Resp. of Maple street, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Resp, is dangerously ill.

Patrick Cook Fatally Injured in the Pine Brook shaft. Patrick Cook of Sand Bank was so severely injured in the Pine Brook shaft on Saturday that he died a few hours later at the Moses Taylor hospital.

The accident was caused by the running away of a trip of cars, which knocked Cook down and cut both of his legs off. He leaves a wife and six children.

Mr. Cook was 32 years of age. His funeral will take place Tuesday morning in the Catholic church at 9 a. m. Interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.
