NORTH END.

Mayor Connell has signed the Fifth sewer district ordinance. This announcement will give pleasure to 95 per cent of the people of the North End.

One of the most exciting runaways of the season took place on North Main avenue Monday. The team belonged to the Liberty Hosiery company.

Mrs. Anne Raines of Dacon street, died Sunday, aged 51 years. Interment will be made at Forest Hill cemetery.

Thomas P. Evans, of Carver street, was painfully hurt in Von Storch mine's Monday by a fall of rock. His wounds are of a serious nature.

Belle Fox, of Bloom avenue, aged 19 years, died Monday after an illness of three weeks. She was one of the most popular young ladies of this section.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

In "Lady Windermere's Fan," which will be presented by Charles Frohman's company at the academy this evening Oscar Wilde disappoints no one. People expect something out of the ordinary from him and they always get it.

A TEXAS STEEL.

Hoyt has never written anything for the stage so consistently and approximately funny as "A Texas Steel." Giving its initial metropolitan production over three years ago, this satire on Washington and Texas domestic and political life was forced from the stage of the Bijou theater, New York city, after a run of five months, to meet the clamor of out of town managers who said contracts for its production in their respective cities. Its return to Scranton for an engagement of one night, next Thursday, Feb. 23, will doubtless be greeted with a welcome that will solidly demonstrate its popularity. It would be singular if the theme hit upon by Mr. Hoyt did not furnish rousing entertainment.

HANDS ACROSS THE SEA.

That bright little sourette, Miss Dell Ellerson, is this season playing the role of Lucy Nettifield in "Hands Across the Sea," and the press speaks of her acting in the very highest terms. Miss Ellerson is not only a very clever actress, but is also a very handsome woman. The play will be seen at the Academy on Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday afternoon.

PLASANT SURPRISE PARTY.

It Was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Simpson by Their Friends.

George Atherton took a large sleigh load of friends from the North End to Olyphant on Saturday evening, the occasion being a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Simpson. The party consisted of the following: Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Price, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Keeling, Mr. and Mrs. Giles Decker, Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Hepler, Mr. and Mrs. Sanders of the Truth, Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, Mr. and Mrs. R. Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. R. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hayden, Mrs. O. A. Slocum, Mrs. O. J. Myers, Mrs. A. B. Moyer, Miss Cappel Cooper, Miss Mary Hawke, Miss Alice Labey, Miss Katie Lloyd, Mr. Arthur Melisier, Mr. Edgar Sanders, Mr. Ernest Slocum.

WORK OF THE LIBRARY

Trustees' Report for the Past Year Has Just Been Issued.

ADDRESS TO THE CITY COUNCILS

There Are Now 18,720 Volumes in the Library, of Which 4,538 Have Been Added to It During the Year.

The trustees of the Scranton Public Library have issued their report for the year 1893, which makes the third annual.

The address to the council is as follows: To the honorable, the select and common council of the city of Scranton.

The reports of the secretary and librarian, with the summary of the expenditures for the year 1893, tell their own best story. The rapid growth in the utility of the library may be understood from the fact that a maximum of over 1,000 visitors in one day has been attained, that 6,327 names have been registered as borrowers, and 3,653 books have been out at one time.

It is an estimate for the absolute necessities of the coming year, we have cut close to the line of rigid economy. The estimate is slightly increased, but we assure the council, and through them the citizens, that we make no pressure on them, which is not made upon us, by the facts and the hunger of our patrons, who are your wards.

Address of Welcome..... H. N. Dunnington, Secretary, Scranton Public Library, 135 W. Wyoming Ave. Address of W. W. Baylor "Garden Village" Quartette Stump Speech..... W. Hulbert Song..... John B. H. Brass Quartette from Germania Band Address of the Order..... District Deputy Grand Commander John H. H. Willis

For books, $250.00 per month.....$ 3,000.00 For pay roll, salaries and labor.....$ 840.00 For incidentals, $500 per month..... 3,480.00 Total.....$10,560.00

The summary of expenditures for the past year will be found among the reports herewith presented.

The accession to the book department during the year were 4,538, making a present total of 18,720 volumes.

The treasurers' report shows the following: Citizens' subscriptions due last January, $887; collected during the year, $741. The total of the citizens' subscription last year was $5,332 and the expenditures during the year from this fund were $3,791.07.

The number of book takers has proven large from the first and fully in excess of any prior anticipations. From May 30 to Dec. 31, 1893, a total of 6,327 names were registered and library cards issued to same as follows: City borrowers, 3,320; non-residents, 32; deposits and special, 14. There were surrendered or cancelled for one reason or another, 80 cards, leaving in force at the end of the year, 5,237. Of the 5,237 cards issued, 3,653 were to males and 8,847 to females; 4,659 were to persons aged 15 years and upwards and 1,458 to those under that age.

Particulars concerning the home circulation of books will appear in a summary appended to this report. Total issues from the circulating department for the seven months (170 days), number 83,021; a daily average of 500. This was exceeded, however, by the daily average in November, which was 1,018, on Monday, Oct. 2, Largest daily number out in the hands of readers was 3,653, on Monday, Dec. 1.

Percentage of circulation from the several sections of the library, other than Prose Fiction and Juveniles, has been higher than was originally expected and shows a large share of reading of most gratifying character.

Use of reference department has not been specifically recorded in statistical terms since, of 14,193 volumes at the close of that year. Accessions of 1893 number 4,538 volumes of which 628 were by gift, 690 by purchase from Citizens' Subscription fund and 3,805 by purchase from city appropriations.

Whether the library can continue to grow as vigorously in 1894 depends, in the main, upon the extent of the appropriations that year. Having now a good start and foundations well laid, it will be possible then to give special attention to the matter of duplicating, more or less, in the lines of most popular accessions and serials works, and of filling up any classes found deficient in quantity.

A "finding list" of books in the circulating department, up to the end of February, 1893, was printed in March and April, making a handy pamphlet of 294 pages in manila tag-board covers. Being in readiness at the opening of the library and sold to book-takers at the nominal price of 10 cents each, 1,921 copies have been taken up, to the close of the year. Two hundred and fifty copies remained for sale at the date, together with 1,000 number additional in tabular sheets for future use.

Lists of additions to the circulating department, since the printed finding list, have not been made on the type writer and posted on the bulletin boards at the library. During 1894 it will probably be desirable that those and subsequent additions be printed in the simplest form and supplied to the library patrons. While doing this it may be feasible, perhaps, to combine with it an author index to the entire contents of the library and thus supply a feature which was omitted from the original finding list for reasons of economy.

As usual, exchanges with other libraries and institutions have been carried on since the last report, resulting in the receipt of many catalogs, reports, bulletins and kindred matters of value and value. Various other volumes and pamphlets have been given to the library from sundry sources, as shown in list appended, aggregating 461 volumes and 436 pamphlets and current numbers, received by gifts during the year 1893.

LIST OF DONORS.

The following persons made donations to the library: Captain S. H. Stevens, New York; Henry Berlin, Jr., James P. Dickson, A. H. Winton, Colonel E. H. Rippe, William Weber, Pittston; Colonel H. M. Bales, Lomital, American, M. E. McDonald, Mrs. A. G. Gilmore, Jenkin T. Rouse and associates in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western coal engineer's office. Charles L. Rice, W. M. Dickson, Mrs. Kate G. Price, Miss Helen Price, H. J. Carr, C. C. Mattes, John Owens, S. B. Price, A. B. Reuby, N. L. Smith, Samuel H. Stevens, L. A. Watres, Frederick Witzel, W. A. Wilcox, Mrs. W. W. Winton.

SOUTH SIDE.

Michael Barrett, who was severely burned at the South works recently and taken to the Moses Taylor hospital, is in a critical condition. The hospital physician attending, Mr. Barrett's case told a TRIBUNE reporter yesterday that there was not much hope for his recovery.

Wedded Very Quietly. Immanuel Alplanaip, a popular street car man, and Miss Emma Loveland were married on Saturday last by Rev. Dr. Pearce, of the Elm Park church. Miss Minnie Levison attended the bride and William Loveland attended the groom. After the ceremony the happy couple returned to the bride's home, where a large number of friends had collected. Mr. and Mrs. Alplanaip are well-known. This was shown by the number of presents they received.

Shorter Paragraphs. A crash about of the booming engines at the South works broke early yesterday morning. The damage will be repaired this morning.

William Fink, who had his thumb injured on Saturday, was discharged from the hospital Monday evening. The doctors hope to be able to save the injured member.

The Young People's society of Christian Endeavor of the Hickory Street Presbyterian church have made all arrangements for a pleasant time at their entertainment this evening.

Miss Kate Ryan, sister of Patrick Ryan, of South Wyoming avenue, died at the Twelfth ward hospital yesterday morning. Miss Ryan has been ill for some time.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock at St. John's church. Interment will be at the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

Thomas Mack, a young man residing in the Twelfth ward, has been missing since Saturday. His friends were inquiring for him at police headquarters yesterday.

Miss Olien, from Jerusalem, lectured on mission work at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian association last evening.

The Heckman property on Cedar avenue has been sold to a man named McNulty of the central city, consideration $700.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS CELEBRATE.

Thirtieth Pythian Period Commemorated by Festivities at Castle Hall. The Fifth Regiment, Uniformed Rank, Knights of Pythias, representatives of the Wilkes-Barre and Pittston divisions, and many of the lodges in this county, made a gala affair of last night's celebration at the Castle Hall of Scranton lodge, 263, in Old Fellows building. The event was the anniversary of the thirtieth Pythian period.

A high class and very interesting programme had been arranged by the committee, and was rendered as follows:

Address of Welcome..... H. N. Dunnington, Secretary, Scranton Public Library, 135 W. Wyoming Ave. Address of W. W. Baylor "Garden Village" Quartette Stump Speech..... W. Hulbert Song..... John B. H. Brass Quartette from Germania Band Address of the Order..... District Deputy Grand Commander John H. H. Willis

The exercises were conducted by Sir Knight J. J. Shopland, assisted by the following committee: C. E. Robinson, T. A. V. Heigson, Martin Joyce, F. B. McIntyre, A. Ross, David Donaldson, John Blyth.

HELD FOR FELONIOUS WOUNDING.

Patrick F. McGuire Shoots Thomas Hughes Below the Ankle. Thomas Hughes, a young man employed in the law office of Willard, Warren and Knapp, was shot below the ankle while walking on Wyoming avenue yesterday morning.

The shooting was done by Patrick F. McGuire, an unmarried man who lives with his sisters on Wyoming avenue between Ash and Phillips streets. If he lives till next Thursday, Washington's birthday, will be 38 years of age.

There seems to have been no provocation for the shooting. Hughes had been at his home and passed McGuire on the opposite side of the avenue. McGuire claimed to have been hit with a stone on the jaw and imagined that he saw Hughes' hand descend as if it had propelled the missile. McGuire then whipped out a revolver and as he did Hughes exclaimed that he had been shot. He walked to Dr. Gibbons' office, but the ball was not probed and the wound is not considered dangerous.

Special Officer Meinzer arrested McGuire. He offered no resistance and was given a hearing by Alderman Wright in the afternoon. The weapon used was a Smith & Wesson, 32-caliber. It was bought for $11 a year and a half ago, and McGuire stated that he purchased it for use in the forest behind Forest Hill cemetery. He claimed that he had been struck with a stone five times during the last two years and he lost his temper when he was struck yesterday. The alderman placed him under $2,000 bail to appear at court. He is charged with carrying concealed weapons and felonious wounding.

The Ladies' Aid Society's Dinner. In accordance with their usual and exceedingly popular custom, the Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will serve their annual dinner and supper in the lecture room of the church on Washington's Birthday—Thursday of this week. Dinner will be served between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock and supper from 2 to 5 o'clock. The following excellent menu will be provided:

DINNER. Roast Turkey. Baked Potatoes. Stewed Onions. Corn. Cranberry Sauce. Celery. Dressed Cabbage. Pickles. Mince, Apple, Squash Pies. Plum Pudding. Cake. Ice Cream. Coffee. Tea. SUPPER. Cold Turkey. Cold Ham. Creamed Potatoes. Escalloped Oysters. Baked Beans. Dressed Cabbage. Olives. Stuffed Cucumbers. Bread. Raisin Oranges. Cake. Coffee. Tea.

WILL BE EXCITING BASKET BALL.

Interest manifested in the Coming Y. M. C. A. vs. Nanticoke Game. Considerable interest is manifested by Young Men's Christian association athletes regarding the coming basket ball contest with the Nanticoke team Thursday night at the armory. R. L. Weston, physical instructor, has kept the men in good training and practice and many felicitous and special plays have been perfected.

The prowess of the Nanticoke team is not underestimated. They have met all the high grade teams in this part of the state except the Bradford men. Neither Bradford nor Nanticoke have yet been defeated in a series. The Y. M. C. A. Christian association and Nanticoke teams have each won a game from each other and Thursday night will be the play-off of the tie. Each side has great pride in their record and the result of the game will place the victors in a position to play Bradford for the northeastern Pennsylvania championship; consequently, the contest will be replete with excitement and hard fought from the first blast of the referee's whistle.

THIRD ANNUAL MEETING.

County Teachers' Association Will Convene at Moscow Saturday. The third annual convention of the Lackawanna County Teachers' Association will be held at Moscow on Saturday, Feb. 24. Principal George P. Bible, of Stroudsburg; Principal F. M. Loomis, of Keystone Academy; Superintendent George W. Phillips, of Scranton; Superintendent J. E. Williams, of Danmore, and other good speakers will be present.

The question, "Should the Provisional Certificate Be Abolished," will be discussed by Superintendent Phillips, Superintendent Williams, Principal M. J. Lloyd, Principal F. C. Hanyen and others. The opinion of State Superintendent Schaefer on this subject makes it one of great interest.

The annual election of officers, the subjects of teachers' contracts and other matters of importance will come before the association. All the teachers in the county should attend. Trains leave Scranton for Moscow at 8 o'clock and 9:50 a. m., and teachers can return by a train leaving Moscow at 5:25 p. m., or later in the evening. All who are interested in education are invited to be present.
