KILLED IN THE DODGE MINES

David Jones Meets an Untimely Death by an Explosion—Funeral of Thomas Wagstaff—Miss Gertrude Becker Entertains Her Friends with a Card Party—Mrs. E. P. Eshelman Pleasantly Surprised—Other Interesting News Notes.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 128 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.]

A fatal accident occurred yesterday morning in the Dodge mines. David Jones, aged 22 years, and employed as a miner, was seriously injured while at work. He had prepared a blast and had lighted the fuse. For some reason the fuse hung fire and Jones returned to ascertain the cause. When he emerged from his place of safety and went to examine the blast the charge went off and he was buried beneath the pieces of flying rock. Assistance came and the unfortunate young man was removed to the home of his sister, on Bellevue street. It was found that both his lungs were badly injured and he suffered severely from other injuries. He died yesterday afternoon from internal injuries. Mr. Jones was a popular young man. The funeral announcement will be made later.

Thomas Wagstaff Buried.

The funeral of the late Thomas Wagstaff took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence on Lafayette street and was largely attended. Rev. M. H. Mill, rector of St. David's Episcopal church, assisted by Rev. T. J. Collins, of the Scranton Street Baptist church, conducted the service at the home. The Lackawanna lodge, No. 291, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, attended in a body. John Noble acted as marshal, E. D. Jones as noble grand, and Frank T. Sturgis as filled the canopy of chaplain and delivered the oration of the Odd Fellows rites at the grave. The pall bearers were Michael Bilekows, John Napo, Charles Watkins, John Davis, Anthony Long, Fred T. Krauter.

Death of a Respected Resident.

Thomas G. Jones, of South Hyde Park avenue, a highly respected resident, died at his home yesterday morning at 6 o'clock after a long illness. Mr. Jones is survived by his widow and six children, namely, Gomer, Gwilym, Jemima, Emlynn, Dora and Emira. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

A Card Party.

A very pleasant card party was held last evening in honor of Miss Gertrude Becker at her home on South Hyde Park avenue. The home was brilliantly illuminated and an enjoyable time was had for many hours. Those present were Misses Maud Vernon, Florence Gibbs, Josie Becker, Edith Richards, Bertha Jenkins, Gertrude Becker and Robert Walker, John Walker, Harry Decker, David J. Davis, Frank Mansfield and William Freeman.

A Pleasant Surprise.

Mrs. E. P. Eshelman, of Twelfth street, was fettered a surprise party by her many friends at her home on Tuesday evening. The hours were pleasantly spent in playing games and other diversions. Refreshments were served in due season.

Mrs. Davies Buried.

Services were held over the remains of the late Mrs. Owen H. Davies, of 224 West 11th street, on Tuesday afternoon at the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church on South Main avenue. The officiating clergyman was Rev. J. T. Morris assisted by Rev. Hugh Davies. The remains were conveyed to the Washburn Street cemetery for interment. The pall bearers were William Harris, William Jones, John Griffiths, John S. Davies, William S. Davies, and John Davies.

Interesting News Notes.

A George Washington entertainment and supper will be given at the Jackson street Baptist church this evening. Admission, 10 cents.

The Chi-Union society of the Presbyterian church has elected the following officers: President, H. B. Battin; secretary, Arthur Morse; assistant, Frank Thornton; treasurer, George Waters.

CHURCH DEDICATION TODAY

Memorable Services at the Polish Church Today—Many Clergymen to Be in Attendance—Death of Michael Barrett and of Mrs. Michael Young—Benefit to Nora Elwitt—Stabbing Affray Reported.

The dedication services at the remodelled Polish church today promise to be most interesting. Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Hara will officiate, and the reverend prelate will also deliver a sermon. The rector, Rev. R. C. Aust, will preach a sermon in the Polish language.

Ladies of the congregation were busy yesterday getting everything in readiness for today's services, and this morning the sacred temple will present an attractive appearance. The high altar will be beautifully decorated for the occasion, the services of Hojat Will having been retained for that purpose.

Father Aust expects forty clergymen to be present at the services and dinner will be served them in one of the class rooms. Another room will be fitted up as a sitting room, the parochial residence being too small to accommodate the visitors.

Many of the out-of-town clergymen arrived last evening. More than 100 persons, not members of the congregation, have been honored by invitations to attend the services. Seats will be reserved for all such. Members of St. John's choir will assist in rendering Leonard's mass.

Benefit to Nora Elwitt.

Some few years ago Nora Elwitt was injured by a car on the lines of the Scranton Passenger railway company. The little girl was a pupil in school No. 11 at the time and the accident was so serious that her limbs had to be amputated. At that time, kind-hearted neighbors contributed money and an artificial limb was purchased. The girl has grown since and the limb is now useless. Mrs. Pettigrew and Mrs. Duggan have interested themselves in the little girl's welfare and have arranged for a benefit for her. It will take place in Laurel Hill park and Mr. Archer will give the use of the grounds free of cost.

Death of Michael Barrett.

Michael Barrett, who was burned at the South works about two weeks ago, died of his injuries at the Moses Taylor hospital Tuesday night. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning. Mr. Barrett is survived by his wife and seven children.

Death of Mrs. Michael Young.

Mrs. Michael Young, an aged resident of the Twentieth ward, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Michael Conneron, of Fig street, early yesterday morning. Mrs. Young has been suffering with paralysis for two years, it having been superinduced by extreme age. The funeral will take place tomorrow from her daughter's residence.

Arrested for Stabbing.

Alderman Storr issued a warrant for the arrest of three Polish citizens of the Third district of the Eleventh ward yesterday. The men were lodged in the Alder street station house yesterday. They are charged with stabbing a special policeman on Tuesday night.

Shorter Paragraphs.

C. W. Westfall predicted on Tuesday night that the South Side would give a majority of 650 for the bridge. Mr. Westfall's prediction came true, and the majority was about 652.

P. J. Hickey, the Democratic common councilman from the Nineteenth ward, received the largest majority ever recorded for a candidate in the south ward. Mr.weeney's majority of 6 over Mr. Coyte is probably the smallest one ever received by any candidate when seeking a ward office.

RESULT AT BLAKELY.

Everything Republican in That Part of the County.

PECKVILLE, Pa., Feb. 21.—The citizens of this place lifted their voices in the interest of protection yesterday, giving handsome majorities to all Republicans. The result is as follows:

First ward—For congressman-at-large, Grow, 113; Hancock, 71; Morrow, 43.

Council—Windsor Porter, 100; Jaa W. Smith, 93; J. G. Ball, 71; Daniel Davis, 50.

Burgess—C. M. Hathaway, 41; Freeman Ferris, 71; W. S. Bloes, 79.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At a regular meeting of Division No. 6 Ancient Order Hibernians the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased Divine Providence to take from our midst our dearly beloved brother, the late William Gilheoly, to his celestial mansion of eternal glory, to wear the crown of immortality which his mortality gave for him.

Resolved, That the members of Division No. 6 Ancient Order Hibernians, of Providence, while mourning the unsearchable ways of an Omnipotent God, feel their very regrettable loss in the demise of so gentle, so amiable, so truly loyal and patriotic a brother, whose generous sentiments of paternal love and fraternal solicitude were ever predominant in his soul.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of this division, and that a copy of them be written and transmitted to the bereaved family of the deceased.

Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days in his memory and that a copy of said resolutions be printed in the Scranton Truth, Tribune, and Philadelphia Hibernian.

HEARD AT HONESDALE.

The Jingle of the Sleighbells Still Cheers the Frazzled Seekers.

HONESDALE, Pa., Feb. 21.—The people of Honesdale and vicinity are still enjoying sleighing.

Ed Burns is home from New York on a short vacation.

Miss Louise Hoff returned home yesterday from a visit with relatives at Randolph.

The funeral of Mrs. John Welch was held from her late residence at 3 p. m. today. Rev. C. A. Benjamin conducting the services. The prayers were read by Rev. E. H. Eckel, of West Pittston. Her four sons acted as pall bearers.

A Judge of Art. Spruce Moments. Madam—Well, Mary, what did you think of the pictures at the Academy?
