THE NEWS OF NEARBY TOWNS

(Out of town correspondents of THE TRIBUNE should sign their names in full to each news letter, not for publication but to guard against deception.)

IN HONOR OF MR. GROW.

The Glenwood Sars Banqueted by Enthusiastic Neighbors. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

MONROE, Pa., Feb. 21.—Last night at the Tarbell house occurred the banquet given in honor of Congressman-elect, Hon. Galusha A. Grow, by Hon. James T. DuBois, assisted by the following committee: Executive committee—Wm. C. East, J. P. Taylor, F. I. Lott, T. J. Davis, John S. Courtwright, Hon. E. H. True, R. B. Little, S. S. Wright and Searle McCollum.

Blue Point Oysters on Half Shell, Celery, Cream Sticks, Baked Ham, Bread Sauce, Potato Dais, Chow-Chow, Worcester Sauce, Olives, Turkey Stuffed with Oysters, Cranberry Sauce, Roast Duck, Currant Jelly, Fillet of Beef, Mushroom Sauce and Peas, Westphalia Ham, Champagne Sauce, Potato Croquettes, Spaghetti, Sweet Potatoes, Radishes, Tomatoes, Cold Slaw and Lettuce, Roman Punch, Oyster Patties, Chicken Salad, Lobster Salad, Brown Bread and Butter, Vanilla and Strawberry Ice Cream with Pineapple Sauce, Wine Jelly, Black Cake, Angel Food, Macaroons, Lady Fingers, Kisses, Oranges, Bananas, Malaga Grapes, Assorted Nuts, Edam Cheese, Dairy Cheese, Banquet Wafers, Tea, Coffee and Chocolate.

After the number of the men had been discussed to the satisfaction of all speeches were made and toasts were responded to by Congressman-elect (Grow) Hon. James T. DuBois, A. H. McCollum, etc., and others. The banquet was attended by prominent Susquehanna county citizens regardless of party affiliations, and was an enjoyable affair throughout.

RESULT DOWN IN MONROE. The Majorities in the Democratic Stronghold Reduced. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

STROUSEBURG, Pa., Feb. 21.—The result of yesterday's election has proven one of the greatest surprises for years. This town can generally be depended upon to give safe democratic majorities, but yesterday's vote brought the old-time Democratic majority down to 4.

The Republicans elected Samuel S. Lee to the council and the Democrats a winning fight for Judge A. J. Heller, as was predicted in THE TRIBUNE a week ago. E. L. Dreher made a nice run for school director and was elected. Dreher has made a most excellent record as school director, and the people re-elected him because he was deserving of re-election.

B. F. Morey, editor of the Montrose Democrat, was also elected school director. The school directors elected yesterday, during the day, was made of chief burgess. James Edinger, the present incumbent, who was renominated by the Democrats, was defeated by Hiram W. Kister, the Republican candidate. Kister's majority over Edinger was 5.

The returns from the country districts are coming in very slow, but there seems no doubt at this writing but that Hancock has received only a small portion of the Democratic vote, and his majority over Grow may not reach 1,000. There was no enthusiasm for the Democratic ticket and nothing was done by the Democratic leaders to bring out the vote in the country districts.

Criticizing a Young Lady. "She would be a pretty girl for but one thing."

George—Her face is always covered with purple and red blotches.

Charles—What was I saying? I thought you were easily enough disposed of. Used to be the same way myself, but I caught on to the trouble one day, and got rid of it in no time.

George—Simply blood eruptions. Took a short course of P. P. P. I tell you, it's the best blood corrector. The governor had rheumatism so bad that you could hear his roller coming across the country every time he moved. He tried it, and you know what an athletic old gent he is now. If somebody would give Miss Daisy a pointer, she would thank them afterwards. All the drug stores sell it.

NICHOLSON NUGGETS. Republicans Carry the Town—Personal and Other News. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

NICHOLSON, Pa., Feb. 21.—Election at this place was quite lively. The town went Republican. E. S. Wheeler (Dem.) and Frank P. Stephens (Rep) were elected for school directors.
