DUNMORE.

The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church will hold its meeting at Mrs. John Krager's, on Cherry street, Thursday afternoon.

The society has had an increase of twenty members. The total membership is now 120.

Preparatory services will be held at the Presbyterian church Friday evening.

On account of this the Wednesday evening meeting will be omitted and the Monday evening Bible class will be held at the same place on Thursday evening.

Rev. Ralph Gilliam and his assistant, Mr. Bronson, will be present at the Friday evening meeting and the latter will take charge of the services.

Rev. D. W. Skellenger, of the Washburn street Presbyterian church, occupied the pulpit at the Presbyterian church last night.

Joseph, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Barrett, of Mill street, died yesterday morning. Funeral will be held today at 2 o'clock.

Some of the candidates on the Republican ticket in all probability will contest the late election. There have been rumors of illegal voting in some wards, which they seem to think are well founded.

Connellman Burke will leave today for England, and has given up his business at this place. Mr. Burke's departure will be regretted by all. He has made a good public servant and his conscientious opinions in all borough affairs received the approbation of all citizens.

Thomas Cleary has returned from a trip around the world.

The Young Men's Institute held a meeting at the library yesterday afternoon.

The annual election of First department officers will occur to-day.

Victor Burschel, O. P. Biglia, Emory Black, Michael Finerty, and Joseph L. Chapman will serve as jurors at the April term of court.

The Lenten services at St. Mary's church last night consisted of the rosary and sermon by Rev. Father Kernan; of Parsons followed by the benediction of the blessed sacrament.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The attraction at the Academy of Music Tuesday evening will be "The District Fair." It is a decidedly interesting meretricious play, well mounted and presented by a company of unusual excellence. There are five acts replete with realistic scenery and mechanical effects. The steeple chimes in the last act is a fitting climax. The people in the east are every one of them worthy of praise, for it would be difficult to find a better balanced company.

STRUGGLE OF LIFE.

One of the greatest attractions of last season was Walter Sanford's spectacular story of New York, "The Struggle of Life," with all its scenic splendor. Among the stage pictures are novelties that have created a decided sensation, some of which are Battery park in winter, Ritzler's slip in a snow storm, exterior of St. Patrick's cathedral, and a rescue from the sewer in real water. The play comes to the Academy for two nights, beginning Wednesday, Feb. 24.

NEW DUNMORE SCHEDULE.

For the Accommodation of People Living Along No. 6 Switch.

Beginning with this morning the schedule on the Dunmore Suburban line of the Scranton Traction company will be slightly changed. The change is made to accommodate the people living along No. 6 switch.

In future the Dunmore Suburban cars will run to the Pennsylvania company's office and thence around the switch till Laurel Hill Park line is reached. They will go back in the same direction. Transfers will be given from Laurel Hill park cars on the Dunmore Suburban cars good between the "Corner" and the junction of the two lines at No. 6. An extra car will be added to those now operating on the Dunmore Suburban line and cars will run every twenty minutes, beginning at 5.30 a. m. until 9.10 p. m., after which cars will run at 9.50, 10.30 and 11.10 p. m.

NEWS FROM WEST SIDE

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Hyde Park Readers.

A SATURDAY EVENING WEDDING

William Jones and Miss Bessie Jones. United at the Home of the Groom. David Jones Buried in the Washburn Street Cemetery—Beethoven Glee Club Organized and Officers Chosen.

The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 128 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.

A very pretty wedding ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. The contracting parties were Miss Bessie Jones, of South Lincoln avenue, and William Jones, son of Thomas A. Jones, of North Garden street. The ceremony was performed at the home of the groom, in the parlor, which was tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens. The marriage ritual was read by Rev. D. P. Jones, of the Tabernacle Congregational church, in the presence of the friends and relatives. The bridesmaid was Miss Sarah Jane Evans, and the groomsmen were Benjamin Evans. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served and the young couple received a shower of congratulations as well as the best wishes of their numerous friends. They will go to house-keeping on this side.

David Jones Buried.

The many friends of David Jones, the young man who died from injuries received in the Dodge mine on Wednesday last, gathered at the family home on Saturday afternoon, where funeral services were held. Entertaining No. 12, Loyal Knights of America, and the Dodge Mine Accidental fund, of which the young man was a member, were in attendance. The services were conducted by Rev. J. T. Morris, of the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church. There were many beautiful floral tributes, among them being a star and crescent from the members of the Enterprise lodge. Interment was made in the Washburn street cemetery. The pall bearers were John R. Jones, William Bessie Jones, William B. Jones and Thomas A. Jones.

Organization of Singers.

The Beethoven Glee club, connected with the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, held a meeting in the church yesterday afternoon and elected the following officers: President, H. H. Dale, secretary and treasurer, W. G. Dale. A committee consisting of Edward Bertine, John Jones and William Jones, were appointed to frame by-laws. The organization is composed of excellent talent, and is led by Professor William Jones. Meetings will be held in the church every Sunday.

Short News Notes.

The auditorium of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church was well filled at the services yesterday morning. A very impressive discourse was given by the pastor, Rev. D. W. Skellenger, who took his text from Matthew, xxv.

Rev. J. W. Williams, of Dunmore, occupied the pulpit of the Washburn street Presbyterian church last evening.

Miss Evans, of Danville, is the guest of Miss Kate Johns, of South Bromley avenue.

Mrs. E. Emperor, of North Sumner avenue, is recovering from an illness.

John Davies, son of Robert Davies, died on Saturday, at the home of his father on Bellevue street. The funeral announcement will be made later.

The members of the Sunday school of the First Welsh Baptist church will give a cantata in the near future.

Miss Daisy Pool, of South Hyde Park avenue, is visiting friends in Bloomberg.

Mrs. T. J. Powell, of Tenth street, is recovering from an illness.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY NEWS.

The Athletic association has adopted a new constitution, which entirely revolutionizes the management of athletics, and places them upon a more solid basis. The advisory committee created by the new constitution consists of H. H. McClure, Professor F. E. Rockwood and W. L. Gechar, M. D.

Civil engineering is among the new subjects just added to the curricula, and will be taught next year for the first time.

The new catalogue, consisting of 120 pages, is now in press and will be out soon. The registrar of the university has charge of its distribution.

Work in the Tustin gymnasium is quite active under the direction of Harry F. Smith and W. R. Harper. During the winter term all students are required to take work in the gymnasium.

The university has been made a residuary legatee of the estate of Dr. Chauncey B. Ripley, deceased, late of New York City. By the will of the late Elizabeth W. Moore, of Philadelphia, the institution will also receive $1,000 for the endowment. Two thousand dollars from the Logan estate, establishing the Lycoming county scholarship, have been paid over to the treasurer.

The matter of putting down a cinder quarter in the track on the athletic field is being agitated and it is expected that the same will be laid this summer.

Professor Lincoln Haller, A. M., of the University of Chicago, has assumed the new professorship recently established here.

DEATH OF JAMES H. KAYS.

It occurred on Saturday at His Daughter's in Danville, Va.

It is with much regret that THE TRIBUNE announces the death of James H. Kays, for many years a resident of this city.

Mr. Kays was born in Lafayette, Sussex county, New Jersey, and engaged in business in Providence in 1841. He made many friends and was greatly esteemed for his strict integrity in business. On account of failing health he lately sought the milder climate of the south, and made his home with his daughter in Danville, Va., where he died last Saturday in the 75th year of his age.

He is survived by Albert C. Loren D. James H. Kays and Mrs. George E. Stone. The remains will arrive in this city today at 12.30 p. m., and the interment will take place immediately thereafter in Dunmore cemetery.

Music Boxes Exclusively.

Best made. Play any desired number of times. Gentsch & Sons, manufacturers, 1090 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. Wonderful orchestral organs, only $5 and $10. Specialty: Old music boxes carefully repaired and improved with new tones.

TOLD IN POLICE COURT.

A Wife Beater and Other Evidences Interview Mayor Connell.

At an early hour yesterday morning John Ogden, of 1245 Capone avenue, came home intoxicated, beat his defenseless wife and threw her into the street with an infant in her arms, as a finale. Mrs. Ogden had only time to don a skirt and throw a shawl about her shoulders, otherwise she was unclad, and barefooted. A neighbor gave her shelter and telephoned the facts of the case to police headquarters. Officers Ridgeway and Palmer arrested Ogden and received a sentence of 30 days in the jail. Mayor Connell, who has no use for wife beaters, bestowed upon the culprit a very severe lecture which will probably last him longer than the memory of his fine.

John O'Donnell, of 428 Lee court, who has been drinking very hard of late, became delirious, and on complaint of his wife was locked up at police headquarters. Mrs. O'Donnell says she is afraid of him. The mayor ordered O'Donnell remanded to await the result his incarceration will have on his diseased mind.

John Kearny, of Adams avenue, and Frank McCarty, of Franklin avenue, while out skylarking were arrested for breaking a window while leaving a house of questionable character in Center street, on complaint of Charles White. On the question of the appearance of the complainant in the court the young men were discharged.

John Kearns, of Dunmore, ate a meal at Jordan's hotel, but refused to settle. He was fined thirty-five cents for the meal and $3 for his independence by Mayor Connell.

GILROY ON HIS MUSCLE.

He Selected an Unusually Pleasant Hour for His Exhibition.

Rev. Dr. Pearce's sermon on "Christian Athletics" was somewhat forestalled yesterday by Michael Gilroy, a busy blacksmith who resides at 410 New street.

Gilroy is intensely practical and has his own ideas of what constitutes "Christian Athletics." He also believes that "the better the place the better the deed."

Therefore when the congregation was dispersing from St. Peter's cathedral after the 9 o'clock mass yesterday morning, Gilroy stepped up to a number of young men who were after leaving the cathedral, drew his 200 odd pound of avoirdupois together and then let his heavy right fist fly out.

Strange to say this delicate manifestation of attention on the part of Gilroy was not appreciated, and a warrant will probably be issued for his arrest today. When he has made his peace with the court after a quarter sessions jury has disposed of the case, Gilroy will probably revive his ideas of what "Christian Athletics" are.

The unworthy character of the man, if not his utter cowardice, was shown by the time and place he chose for his disgraceful attack.

THE FIRST RAY OF SUNSHINE.

It Has Fitted in Upon the Poor Man's Aspirations.

To the masses, heretofore, the possession of a library has been but a fond dream, but disappointment, halls of state, universities, palatial homes and occasionally the professional man's sanctum were the abode of such luxuries. The advent of the Encyclopedia Britannica, in its present state of perfection, has put the dream of every poor man within the first ray of sunshine that fitted in upon the poor man's aspirations. It is truly a library covering fully and accurately all human knowledge. From a condensed encyclopedia for the convenience of people owning libraries, it has gone through nine revisions, each time being enlarged, until the present edition, completed in 1890, embraces twenty-five large quarto volumes, a total of 2,000 pages, besides, about 2,000 pages of supplemental matter written since 1890.

It is a happy union of encyclopedia and library, for by the disposition of alphabetical contents and marginal references it is rendered the most available of encyclopedias. Thus, in the history of a country, you can readily turn to the paragraph touching such points as mountains, rivers, lakes, productions, animals, birds, reptiles, races and tribes of mankind, etc., peculiar to that country. This system of classification extends to all manner of subjects treated. THE TRIBUNE's offer at $1.95 per volume must soon be withdrawn. Do not miss the opportunity. You do not mean to. Then why hesitate? Do as hundreds have done and do not wait till the last day.

Address THE TRIBUNE, E. B. Dept., 437 Spruce street.

Y. M. I. ENTERTAINMENT.

It Will Be Held in College Hall on March 15.

The Central City council of the Young Men's Institute will conduct an entertainment at College hall on the evening of March 15.

P. H. O'Donnell, of Georgetown, university, will be the attraction of the evening. His subject will be, "Ireland's Contribution to Civilization." The other numbers will be taken by some of the best known musicians in the city.

Mr. O'Donnell is a gifted young orator who has attracted much attention wherever he has been heard from the platform.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

A great revival is in progress at Brooklyn, Pa., in the Methodist Episcopal church, of which Rev. P. G. Ruckman is pastor. Rev. Ruckman is assisted by Rev. G. D. Moore, of Bridgeton, N. J., a former glassblower, who is a wonderful revivalist. The church is putting on new life and many are turning to the Lord. Brother Morris' home address is 71 Grove street, Bridgeton, N. J. Until March 5 his address will be Brooklyn, Pa. Any-one desiring his services for a short time during the month of March can secure him by writing to his home.

The mission Sunday school of the Second Presbyterian church, which is conducted by Charles Chandler and an enthusiastic corps of assistants, is in a flourishing condition. The pupils gather Sunday afternoons in a cozy little chapel which was erected near the Scranton Stone works at Dunmore some time ago through the generosity of friends of the mission.

The Johnson Place Methodist Episcopal mission has disbanded. The mission was under the direction of Mr. Swartz, of Dunmore, and was situated on Adams avenue, opposite the county jail.

The Wyoming conference will open at the Elm Park church in this city for its annual sessions on April 11.

Rev. Frank Woodward, formerly editor of the Dunmore Pioneer, it is said, is meeting with much encouragement in his work as a minister of the gospel in the south.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Many Tribune Readers.

A MUCH NEEDED IMPROVEMENT

Mr. Connell Endeavoring to Get an Appropriation for Improving the Pittston Avenue Culvert—Why Old Glory Is Flung to the Breeze—Entertainment and Concert Afternoon and Evening.

Among the appropriations that will be asked for from this section will be one for improving the Pittston avenue culvert, and the justice of the claim will be urged by Select Councilman Connell. The question of new improvements will be considered, the only work that was done being the fixing of the appropriations for the various departments. At the next meeting of the committee the question of new improvements will be considered, and Mr. Connell's constituents need have no fears but that their interests will be well cared for. His returns to council with increased prestige, and the experience he has already acquired will make him an invaluable legislator.

There can be no denying the fact that the culvert in question is very badly in need of protection. Precipitous banks on either side are a menace to pedestrians, and unless fences are erected some fine morning the newspapers will be chronicling a death that occurred at that point. Besides the loss of life that may cause intense sorrowing in some family circle, the city will have a very long bill of damages on its hands.

The Century Flag Flying.

Ever since election day when P. J. Hickey was returned to council from the Nineteenth ward with the largest majority on record, the Century Hose company has had "Old Glory" flying from the top of the 130 foot flagstaff that is in front of the quarters.

This not done in any burst of political enthusiasm for many of the members of the company are ardent Republicans while Mr. Hickey's Democracy is of the rock ribbed sort.

Speaking on this subject to a TRIBUNE reporter yesterday a Republican member of the Century Hose company said: "We put out that flag not so much because of Mr. Hickey's election, but because we glory in the fact that has been given to the ambitions and pretensions of the committee man from the First district. He has played dictator too long and now the younger members of the party propose to take a hand. At the next county convention we will demand that some young man more in touch with all the people be appointed and if we fail we will in all probability resort to the same tactics that we used last week."

Entertainment and Concert.

The handsome new organ purchased by the ladies of the Elm Park church at a cost of $750 and presented to the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, was used for the first time yesterday afternoon, when melody was evoked from the beautiful instrument by Miss Florence H. Richmond, the talented organist of the Penn Avenue Baptist church. Miss Richmond will be organist at two entertainments that will be given this afternoon and evening. The entertainment this afternoon will begin at 3 o'clock and the evening concert will be given by the choir and it will begin at 8 o'clock. An admission fee will be charged.

Shorter Paragraphs.

The services at the Polish church were very largely attended yesterday, and the sale of seats proved a neat source of revenue. The church, although greatly enlarged, having twice the seating capacity it had before, is still inadequate for the wants of the congregation.

Mrs. Hamm, wife of Contractor Fred Hamm, of Elm street, was lying at the point of death last evening. She has been ill two weeks and no hopes for her recovery are entertained.

A cow was ordered into a yard on Pittston avenue yesterday and broke its leg. The owner, Martin Golden, wanted to know what he should do with the animal. Asked what "butcher" then he was coolly informed that he could go to Guthrie and get his cow killed.

Four boys residing in the Nineteenth ward were arrested Saturday, charged with stealing gloves. They were reprimanded and discharged.

ETHEL FULLER AT WUNDERLAND.

A Clever and Pretty Actress in Productions up to Date.

This week the patrons of Wonderland will be treated to an opportunity to see Miss Ethel Fuller, a well-known star, as leading lady supported by the entire stock company. The first three evenings of the week will witness the production of "Stricken Bill," while the last three days will be devoted to "Under the Gaslight."

Miss Fuller is not an experiment; she is known by manager Davis to be a clever and finished actress and a charming and pretty woman. At the regular scale of prices, Wonderland's constituency will appreciate this latest effort to supply them with something new and up to date, which applies to both of these plays and the actress lady who will interpret them.

Matinee performances will be given every day this week, except to-day and Thursday.
