Purchasers of Silks and Dress Fabrics will secure great advantage in visiting our store at this time.

Experience of previous years demonstrates that the choicest and most desirable fabrics are always sold early—and not duplicated.

The only way to appreciate them is to see them for yourself. Our description may be all very fine and very explicit, but there is nothing as satisfactory as a look with your own eyes.

And no more convincing argument that we have the finest goods, the newest goods, the most stylish goods of every description, than the fact that an inspection of our stock always leads to a purchase.

TOPICS AT TAYLOR.

Passing Events in the Enterprising Borough Intelligently Written Up.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

TAYLOR, Pa., Feb. 26.—The borough council reorganizes on Wednesday night.

John Rundle leaves Wednesday for school in Ohio.

The Price Library association will meet Thursday evening for a short business session. This is also ladies' night for this week, and hereafter it will be every Wednesday night.

Dr. Timlin, of Old Forge, was a caller in town today.

William Goodman has been confined to his bed since last Friday with sickness.

Jennie Nichols has been hired as teacher in Taylor graded school, Miss Burke having been promoted no the Continental school in place of Martin Joyce.

Rev. W. W. Smith's farewell services at the Methodist church on Sunday were attended by large audiences. Mr. Smith felt sorry he was to leave, but was thankful for all the good that was said about him. He leaves tomorrow for his new home at Portland, Conn., and he leaves here with the well wishes of all, regardless of sex or creed. Resolutions of respect were adopted by the Christian Endeavor society and were presented to the pastor at the farewell service.

CONTEST THREATENED.

Possibility of a Strife in Court for Possession of Taylor Offices.

TAYLOR, Pa., Feb. 26.—Rumor has been circulated that several of the citizens recently candidates propose to enter a contest upon tax collector and one councilman, E. E. Weston. THE TRIBUNE correspondent yesterday interviewed one of the leading citizens upon the subject.

He said, "We could overthrow the whole election, as it was illegal. According to the Baker ballot law, candidates names must appear in full. Dr. Weston's name for council appeared on the ballot as E. E. Weston. John D. Jones was Jno. D. Jones. A candidate for two offices cannot appear on the ballot. If a contest was started Andrew Dole will be burgess, Alonzo Hendershot, tax collector, and C. H. Horn, justice of the peace."

The affair has received much attention, but nothing reliable can be ascertained as to whether a contest will be instituted.

Great on Unconstitutionality.

Pittsburg Times.

Taking his speeches as evidence, the new judge of the supreme court would decide that protection, the oleomargarine law, the anti-lottery law, the national quarantine law, are all unconstitutional. Maybe President Cleveland did not know that.

This May Be Regarded as Official.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The only certain thing about the presidential candidates for 1896 is that the one who secures the Republican nomination will have his mail delivered at the White House on and after March 4, 1897.

Price of the Dilly Daily.

Philadelphia Stockholder.

It is estimated that the inactivity of the senate upon the tariff question results in a loss to capital and labor of $10,000,000 daily.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only Fifty cents at Matthews Bros'. drug store.

Frank Williams and Joseph Farringer, of Scranton, called on Jermyn friends yesterday.

Miss Lizzie Roberts, of Third street, is the guest of Scranton friends.

Rev. E. Samuel Thomas conducted services in the Primitive Methodist church yesterday.

The Jermyn Citizen's band will give an entertainment in their new rooms on March 6, when all their friends will have an opportunity to see their new place of meeting.

The local institute to be held in Mayfield March 3, is to be the first of the series. The following programme has been prepared: Quartette, Martin brothers; primary numbers, Miss Miller; primary history, Miss N. Martin; arithmetic, Professor White; recitation, Miss Sweeney; history, Professor Bovard; quartette, Martin brothers; address, Superintendent J. C. Taylor; "Across the Continent," Professor Davis; fractions, Miss Mulholland; geography, Professor Martin.

Rev. F. Gendall will deliver an address before the Honesdale Ministerial association at its next meeting, Tuesday, March 6. Subject: "Encouraging Features of the Temperance Reform."

Miss Lizzie Rimron, of Uniondale, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Bray.

Yesterday Miss Mary Bloomer, of the East Side, returned from a few day's visit in Scranton.

Rev. Mr. Williams, of Peckville, occupied the pulpit of the M. E. church last night.

Members of the C. M. B. A. are busily engaged selling tickets for their entertainment, which will take place the latter part of next month. The $50 prize will be disposed of at the same time.

Samuel Brokenshire has resigned his position with the Jermyn Milling company.

The funeral of Stephen A. Taylor, who died Sunday evening, will be held today from his late residence on Fourth street. Interment will be in the family plot at Orvis corners. Mr. Taylor was one of the old settlers of Scott township, and was well known in the vicinity. Taylortown was named after him, he having lived there from boyhood. He was 81 years old at the time of his death.

The alarm of fire at 10.15 a. m. yesterday, caused considerable excitement when it was said that the school house was on fire. A water pipe in the basement was frozen and the and janitor in thawing it out used oil which set fire to some loose papers. It was extinguished with no damage except the scorching of the paper on the wall in the janitor's room.

POINTERS FROM PRICEBURG.

The Happenings in a Lively Locality Tersely Recorded.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

PRICEBURG, Pa., Feb. 26.—There are thirty-one applications for license to sell intoxicating drinks in the First ward of this borough, eleven of them being new applicants. Remonstrances are few in number. There are also seven applicants in the Second ward.

The Eagle Hose company held their fourth annual ball last week. It was a grand affair. Delegates from several out of town fire companies being present. The boys will realize a snug little sum from their social.

Giles Decker, of Scott, was a welcome visitor here on Saturday last.

M. F. Fadden and A. Corcoran, two good and true citizens of this borough, will serve as jurymen on April 2.

John Turner will be given a trial in some of the exhibition games next season as a professional ball player. John is a good all round player and may sign with some state league.

FOREST CITY FIRE.

The Lurid Flames Lick the Residence of James Doolittle.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

FOREST CITY, Pa., Feb. 26.—Between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock Saturday evening a cry of fire was heralded upon our streets. The house on fire proved to be that of James Doolittle, situated od Delaware street. It is thought the fire originated from a stove in the basement. The Enterprise Fire company connected their hose with the water plug in front of Dr. Blakeslee's residence, but, as usual, the water plug was frozen.

In a few minutes after this the Hillside Coal and Iron Company's Fire department had a stream of water upon the burning building, their hose being connected with the plug at the Forest City House. Soon the fire was extinguished, the interior of the house being quite badly damaged. This is the first fire Forest City has had in four months.

Not Necessary.

New York Press.

"She didn't love him, but she married him."

"Did she pretend to love him?"

"Oh, yes."

"Does she still pretend to love him?"

"Of course not. There's no need of that now since they are married."

Educational.

Detroit Free Press.

Lady (in a book store)—Can you tell me where Packer Institute is?

Clerk (trying to think)—I'm not sure, madam, but I should say it was in Chicago.

DOINGS AT DURYEA.

A Literary Society Organized—Burglars Are Again Abroad—Other Topics.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

DURYEA, Pa., Feb. 26.—Miss Sadie Benedict is attending school at the Wyoming seminary, Kingston.

Some of the popular young people of this place have organized a literary society called the Adginda. The society starts out with a goodly number of members and the following capable officers: D. H. Evans, as president; vice president, Miss Anna Mainwarring; secretary, Miss Anna Walch; treasurer, Mr. Patrick Gilboy.

The Temperance address given by Rev. James Mitchell Sunday evening in behalf of the order of Sons of Temperance, of this place, was largely attended, and ably delivered.

Rev. Mr. Stevens, of Princeton Theological seminary, will preach next Sunday evening in the Presbyterian chapel.

Burglars have again visited this town. A few months ago a number of business places were broken into but the thieves were not very well rewarded for their trouble. Last Friday evening the Pullman house was again visited, but they met with their usual luck in this town, and went away with two overcoats and a few packages of cigarettes.

HONESDALE HAPPENINGS.

A Brief Record of Passing Events in the Maple City.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

HONESDALE, Pa., Feb. 26.—Dr. Reed Burns received a telegram from W. S. Lambert, who is at Thomasville, Ga., Saturday afternoon, stating that his little daughter Helen was very ill with a fever and asking him to come there at once. Dr. Burns left for Georgia this morning. Mr. Lambert went to Georgia this winter with his family on account of his wife's poor health.

William Howe, of St. Paul, Minn., a former Honesdale boy, is in town.

Miss Anna Brown returned to Wyoming Seminary this morning.

Inspection of Company E at the new armory Wednesday night.

NICHOLSON NOTES.

Brief Mention of Current Events Tersely Reported for Live Readers.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

NICHOLSON, Pa., Feb. 26.—Miss Lucie Hartley died at Glenwood last Thursday. The funeral was held on Friday.

John Sherman intends to move this week on John Weaver's farm near Factoryville.

Last Saturday the thermometer stood at zero all day.

Last Saturday night Newell Snyder's boy was driving to town and in some way he fell out of the cart, the horse became frightened and ran down the mountain hill and dashed up Main street. Some one stopped him just as he was running by the postoffice. No damage was done.

Patrick Coyle goes to Philadelphia this week.

Charles Price is able to be out around after an illness of some time.

Criticising a Young Lady.

"She would be a pretty girl for but one thing."

"What's that?" asked Charley.

George—Her face is always covered with purple and red blotches.

Charley—Oh, that's easily enough disposed of. Used to be the same way myself, but I caught on to the trouble one day, and got rid of it in no time.

George—What was it?

Charley—Simply blood eruptions. Took a short course of P. P. P. I tell you, it's the boss blood corrector. The governor had rheumatism so bad that you could hear him holler clear across the country every time he moved. He tried it, and you know what an athletic old gent he is now. If somebody would give Miss Daisy a pointer, she would thank them afterwards. All the drug stores sell it. **

To the Point.

Dyspepsia Causes Much Suffering.

Pains and Distress After Eating Relieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"I must praise Hood's Sarsaparilla for the good it has done me. I was troubled with dyspepsia. I had severe pains in my heart, and the swelling of my stomach and distress after eating caused me much suffering. I tried different remedies without getting relief. Finally I decided to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial, being the first one in town to take it. After taking five bottles, I felt perfectly well and have enjoyed good health ever since. Many of the townspeople have asked me about the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I have cheerfully recommended it feeling indeed grateful for the good it has done me. Friends and relatives have also taken Hood's Sarsaparilla with good results." MILLARD A. STRINE, Strinestown, Pa.
