

SCRANTON TRIBUNE
F. E. WOOD,
General Manager.

THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE.
SCRANTON, FEBRUARY 28, 1894.

Whatever the faults of our political administration, either in its domestic policies or in its foreign interests, the "venerable war cloud" is not an American institution.

CURE FOR HARD TIMES.

An economic locksmith who modestly masks behind the pseudonym "Antonio," has sent to THE TRIBUNE a curious "Key to Business Prosperity" and it is fitting, in this time of commercial depression, that we should give it wide publicity.

Mr. CLEVELAND will not find, in these Democratic journals which have the courage to tell the truth, much pleasant reading, these days.

THE TRIBUNE feels itself under no obligation to Postmaster Vandling, political or otherwise.

IT HAS remained for the mugwump Springfield Republican to decipher in Mr. Grow's plurality a big vindication of the Wilson bill.

THAT VIADUCT.
In suggesting the other day that transportation corporations which make street crossings dangerous ought themselves to pay for the precautions necessary to insure the public safety.

It is, of course, simply a beggary of the case to say that overhead electrical wires cannot safely be placed underground.

AT THE Pie Counter.
"Ah, dearest, this is love, indeed!"
The signal, a kiss and her cries.

Richard (at the Musicale)—There is something rich in the tones of Kathryn Moore's voice.

WIFE (who is a character student)—Observe that fine looking man sitting in the third row. I know he must be a person capable of arousing the innermost sensibilities of man.

Some-Passing Thoughts:
It is sometimes better to be a rolling stone than a moss-back.

Just as Applicable Here.
It has been demonstrated that electric wires give more reliable service underground than overhead, so that the chief objection long urged against the change has been shown to be no objection at all.

Unrecognized by Friends.
If any one knows of anything Democratic about the Cleveland administration its discovery has been kept a profound secret.

Neither Is Contented.
We wonder who is the unhappier, Lilliputian, who is out of a job, or Grover Cleveland, who wishes he was out of a job.

THE HUMMING TOP.
The top it hummeth a sweet, sweet song:
To my dear little boy at play—
Merrily singeth all day long—
As it singeth and spinneth away.

Will ever my dear little boy grow old,
As some have grown so most ridiculous,
Will ever his heart feel faint and cold,
When he heareth the songs of yore?
Will ever this toy
Of my dear little boy,
When the years have worn away,
Sing and low
Of the long ago,
As it singeth to me today?
—Eugene Field.

feeling that they are being bancoed twice by the same game.
It would afford us pleasure to give our readers some of the choice benefits of Mr. Nye's indefatigable research.

With the advent of steam locomotion and the electric telegraph. In our case the natural anomaly of an obsolescent scheme of diplomacy is yet further aggravated by a scheme of domestic partisan contention which every four or eight years overturns the whole foreign service from cellar to garret, and preserves it as a ludicrous kind of international kindergarten for ambitious politicians with a pull.

In the opinion of a growing number of observers, and these not all inerrigible radicals, the march of ideas, not only in our own country but in Europe, is away from medieval diplomacy. In the general spirit of the middle classes, this diplomacy has already lost that reverence and awe which it once inspired, and is tolerated largely because nobody is sufficiently concerned in the matter to propose a method of getting rid of it.

VIEWING RECENT events in the light of an arithmetical progression, Representative Foltz's Chambersburg Public Opinion thinks that by next November Pennsylvania's Republican majority ought to be well beyond the two hundred thousand mark. It can be put there by proper work.

THE SCRANTON merchant who, burned out on Sunday, opened with a splendid stock in a new store, on the following Tuesday, affords a solution to the question why Scranton has grown so rapidly. In the vocabulary of the genuine Scrantonian there is no such word as despair.

THAT WAS both a sapient and a witty Democrat who recently remarked: "Our party is only intended to be a minority party, and the chief end of the present congress seems to be to make that minority as small as possible."

It is, of course, simply a beggary of the case to say that overhead electrical wires cannot safely be placed underground. Wherever the experiment has been fairly tried, it has given general satisfaction.

Richard (at the Musicale)—There is something rich in the tones of Kathryn Moore's voice.

As Tris as Preacher.
Philadelphia Record, Dec.
Crimes against the ballot box are in their consequences more serious than almost any other form of fraud; but by some singular perversion of the moral sense the rascal who cheats the whole body of their fellow citizens are much more likely to escape punishment than are burglars or sneak thieves whose depredations only affect individuals.

College Athletics.
Philadelphia Times.
The colleges are beginning to reason that too much time given to sports may result in the students' practically making game of their studies.

A WEARY AND WICKED WORLD.

All of us are desperately wicked, and some of us more so. Not necessary to mention names—you know who you are, if we don't. If it wasn't for the few pleasures capable of being grasped occasionally, this world would indeed be "a vale of tears." But when our friends can avail themselves of a chance like this occasionally, prospects become slightly more pleasing.
