A GREAT OPPORTUNITY.

A Whole Library in Itself—The Encyclopedia Britannica.

The world renowned Encyclopedia Britannica, which we offer to our readers at the unheard rate of only 19 cents a day, is a unique and splendid work. It has no peer among encyclopedias.

There is but one Bible for the Christians, one Talmud for the Hebrews, one Koran for the Mohammedans, and there is but one Encyclopedia Britannica for the people who speak and read the English language, and who turn to it as the one comprehensive, all inclusive and authoritative epitome of human knowledge in all its branches.

To possess such a masterpiece is to own a whole library and have access to information on every subject within the domain of human experience, study or inquiry. The extraordinary terms announced on another page upon which the great Encyclopedia Britannica will be supplied to our subscribers are only for a few days now.

Remember this fact: A few years ago the complete edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica cost nearly $300, thus preventing any but the wealthy from purchasing it. We are now able to offer a later, a better and more complete edition in twenty-five volumes, comprising a total of over 22,000 pages with 671 maps and plans, over 10,000 illustrations and 250,000 subjects.

We have confidence in it and we know our subscribers will be benefited by having this great work to consult. In proof of this we are willing to send the entire twenty-five volumes, with all charges prepaid, and allow you to pay $5 per month. Can we do any more?

There is no further excuse for not owning this great reference library. Take advantage of the offer now. Do not delay.

This greatest of libraries is now on exhibition at 487 Spruce street. Remember you have but a short time in which to decide.

DEBATING SOCIETY OFFICERS

Elected and Installed at a Meeting Held Last Evening—Special Music at the Washburn Street Presbyterian Church—To Ascertain Number of Public School Pupils Who Have Not Been Vaccinated—Many Brief Items.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 125 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.]

The regular weekly meeting of the Hyde Park Literary and Debating society occurred last evening at its rooms on South Main avenue. It was unanimously decided to hold a banquet at Fairchild's hotel on Monday evening, April 9. The following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

President, Phillip J. Davis; vice-president, John M. Edwards; recording secretary, Emerson Owens; corresponding secretary, Wallace Moser; treasurer, Will J. Davis; critic, Charles House; sergeant-at-arms, Arthur Davis; executive committee, Charles E. Daniels, John Hughes, Herbert Hall; membership committee, D. J. Jenkins; Walter Jones, David Owens.

After the officers had been regularly installed President Daniels vacated the chair to his successor, Mr. Davis, and the programme of the evening was opened with a debate. "Resolved, that the present system of reformatory schools has a tendency to increase crime." The debate was opened for the affirmative by Charles E. Daniels, who spoke strongly on the subject, stating that there was a contamination in the atmosphere of reformatory schools. Wallace Moser spoke in the negative. The debate was decided unanimously in favor of the negative.

The next number on the programme was an essay on "Wit, Humor and Satire" by Charles House, which was very good. The inappreciable question box occupied the time of the members until adjournment.

Special Music.

A special song service was rendered at the Washburn street Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. Solos were sung by William Davis and Miss Clara Saunders with violin obligato. A male quartette consisting of Messrs. Miller, Helms, Richards and Stone, sang splendidly, and the Hayden quartette, composed of Fred Wilder, first violin; Richard Welschlar, second violin; Herbert Waters, viola, and Harry Blackwood, cello, executed the Austrian hymn by Hayden, in a masterly manner.

Vaccination Necessary.

The board of health will cause an investigation to be made this morning at No. 14 school for the purpose of finding out the number of children at present attending the public schools that have not been vaccinated. It is estimated that the percentage will reach 50 per cent.

Noted in Brief.

An entertainment and social will be held this evening at the Washburn Presbyterian church, and on Thursday evening the Juvenile Christian Endeavor society will conduct a similar affair.

T. M. Miller, of Washburn street, has returned from a business trip at Washington, D. C.

The employees at the Oxford, Bellevue and Dodge mines will receive their pay today.

The funeral of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Phillips, of 331 North Hyde Park avenue, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be made at Forest Hill cemetery.

Miss Louise Williams, of Chestnut street, a teacher at No. 14 school, B grammar grade, will leave for Bermuda Islands for the benefit of her health today.

T. B. Jones, a musician, formerly of this city, and son of Robert Jones, of Academy street, is at present engaged as first violinist with Kivala's "America" at Washington, D. C.

Rev. D. C. Hughes, D. D., pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church, is ill at his home on Washington street.

Miss Mary Davies, of E. E. E. street, has returned from Kingston.

Miss Josephine Brown, of Jackson street, is the guest of friends in Honesdale.

THE CARBONDALE CONTEST.

Matter Argued Before Judges Archibald and Edwards in Chambers.

Before Judges Archibald and Edwards in chambers yesterday arguments were heard on the exceptions to the report of Commissioners G. B. Gardner and M. F. Sando in the contest of J. J. Collins against P. F. Huges for the office of school controller for the Third and Fourth wards of Carbondale.

I. H. Burns argued the exceptions on behalf of Mr. Collins and Attorney C. C. Donovan and Attorney Joseph O'Brien on behalf of Mr. Huges. An opinion, with regard to the contest, is expected in a week or ten days.

FOR THE CITY'S UNEMPLOYED.

An Entertainment to Be Given at Penn Avenue Baptist Church.

This evening the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Penn Avenue Baptist church will give another of its pleasing entertainments. It will consist of a violin solo, male quartette, a piano duet, a debate and other interesting numbers.

Everyone, especially members, are urged to come, as the proceeds will be given to the unemployed in this city, through the church missionary. The admission fee will be only 15 cents and cake and coffee will be served free.

A Drama of the Regulation Style Falls to Please a Small Audience.

The audience at the Academy of Music last evening was small and those present were not much entertained by the play, "Blue Grass." The stereotyped situations of the old-fashioned drama were observed by the author of "Blue Grass" with much accuracy. In fact there was nothing particularly new nor refreshing in the piece.

A first class company could have made "Blue Grass" entertaining, but the players were not much better than the play. Mrs. Cyril Norman, whose name appeared on the programme in great big black letters as the star of the organization, did not give evidence of having sufficient ability to warrant her assuming the title role. Her work was crude and unimpressive. The strong lines were weakened by the fact that she did not put enough vigor into her acting. However, there were times when she started in well and the audience looked for her to redeem her pre-fall these expectations.

One of those caricatures of an American, styled an Anglo-manic, was portrayed by Albert Roberts. He was suffering a great deal with a monacle in his eye last evening, which appeared to worry him considerably, and this had a tendency to make him forget it was his duty to be funny once in a while.

Miss Florence Ashbrooke, who could have made a success in the title role, was very good as an adventuress. Miss Gerome Edwardy was also quite good.

WAS DOING THE TOWN.

George Walker, of Nicholson, Fined $10 in the Police Court.

George Walker, aged 31 years, a farmer from Nicholson, behind a pair of four-wheeled horses in a somewhat jagged condition, was "doing" the town yesterday. The whole outfit succumbed on North Main avenue, with Walker in the bottom of the buggy, three wheels only on the vehicle and the horses in a state of coma.

He was in a proper condition of mind nor body to give an account of himself, so Officers Lowry and T. Jones led him to the police station. Alderman Fuller decided he should pay $10 for his fine and the horses' hardships.

Walker has no money to pay the fine and is going to jail, but the team is at the Henry of Meridian Brothers on East Market street.

DUNMORE.

The borough building at Dunmore was taxed to its utmost capacity last night, it being the organization of the new council. The distribution of the plans at the council hands was the cause of the large audience who attended the meeting during the past year. Twenty-five dollars was for various cases and $35 more for services as borough solicitor. The bill was refused by all members except Taylor and Burke. President Payton also refused to entertain as the bill on the same grounds as last year.

Conciliator Taylor maintained that Mr. McDonald's bill was borough solicitor until his successor was elected. To settle the dispute the secretary was called upon to read the full ordinance concerning the borough attorneyship, but the chairman would have no part of it. SMALL BOYS TOY WITH A REVOLVER

Four Youngsters Handle a Dangerous Weapon Quite Carelessly on Pittston Avenue—John Kane Will Prosecute the Young Men Who Tied Him Up—To Be Tried for Raising Bills. Personal Points and News Notes.

The blood curdling sight of four young chaps, the oldest not more than twelve, with a large bulldog revolver passing carelessly from one to the other was gazed upon by pedestrians yesterday on Pittston avenue near Westfall's store. The revolver, as likely as not, had some bullets in it. A few women were passing at the time and their screams created much excitement. This seemed to please the boys and they flourished the weapon after that with great gusto.

That reporter watched them till an elderly man came along who seemed to have some control over them, and they forthwith disappeared into an alley.

John Kane Will Prosecute John Kane, of Minooka, whose woes were related yesterday, will prosecute his son and his abettors. They tied Kane's hands with a pair of new suspenders and when the tension in them relaxed the circulation of the blood in his arms was stopped. When he was released, his arms were limp and lifeless, and it took a few hours' vigorous rubbing before he was able to lift them. This may have been a fortunate thing for his assailants; for, if he were able to use a shooting iron, their lives would not be worth a pinch of salt. He cooled down, however, and now invokes the aid of the law.

To Be Tried for Raising Money.

Patrick Joyce, of Minooka, will answer the charge, at this week's session of the United States district court, of "raising" greenbacks. He went into a saloon in Wilkes-Barre some time ago and presented a "split" bill to the barkeeper as payment for a glass of beer. The police were sent for and Joyce, who presumed he was waiting for his change, was taken into custody. He gave bail for his appearance at court, his father becoming his surety. Joyce has always borne a good reputation in Minooka, where he lives, and is confident of acquittal. He avers that the doctored note came into his hands accidentally, and that he had no intention of transgressing the laws of Uncle Sam.

A Hungarian Pelted with Stones.

An unknown Hungarian was stoned yesterday afternoon near the silk mill on Fifth street by a crowd of boys living in that vicinity. He is not the first passer by who has met the insults of the same crowd, whose parents surely do not approve of their behavior.

Personal.

Kate Brown and James Thornton, an estimable couple from Minooka, will leave for housekeeping after Lent. S. R. Callary and Richard B. Sheridan of Nanticoke, are visiting R. J. Callary of this side. William Callary, of the same place, national secretary of the Ancient Order Hibernians Board of Erie, was visiting on this side yesterday and delivered a very interesting address to the members of Division No. 4, of Minooka.

John Siglin is improving rapidly under Dr. Walsh's care.
