DUGGAN THE REFORMER

Tells Dunmore Council How the Borough Affairs Should Be Conducted.

TEMPLES OF JUSTICE GALORE
 Turnpike Corporation a Band of Pirates—Mr. Duggan Was Always Solid on the Sewer Question, and a Borough Solicitor Caused the Muddle—An Additional Police Force and Other Items Recommended.

Thomas J. Duggan as Burgess of Dunmore, delivered the annual message to the borough council last evening. He told them in plain every-day English what he thought of the borough and what ought not to be; he impressed them, in fact, with the idea that if his recommendations were followed, Dunmore would be a paradise, but if the council proved contrivance, great would be the fall of Dunmore. According to Burgess Duggan's speech, the motto of the administration shall be: "For justice all places a temple and all seasons a summer."

TURPKIE CORPORATION PIRATES.
 The nucleus of the lecture was devoted to sewers and the corporation maintaining the Roaring Brook turnpike. He said the corporation was an organized band of road pirates, and that he was innocent of any effort to prevent the building of sewers for his Sixth ward constituency; in fact he favors sewers and suggests a plan for having them built.

BOROUGH ENGINEER CRITICIZED.
 It is useless to discuss the fact that the street commissioner and street and bridge committee were hampered in street work by the borough engineer's neglect to make plans for the sidewalks, in the street, in laying sidewalks and putting in gutters unless we have the assistance of a competent engineer. I have no desire to repeat the abuses of the engineer who has had such office for several years. The character of the work he has done is the best testimonial he could wish, but it is to be deplored that the nature of his employment with a great corporation does not permit him to devote more time to his borough office. The yearly salary of $50 is too small, therefore, I recommend that a great corporation should compensate him for his services.

RECOMMENDATIONS.
 I recommend the purchase of a fire alarm, and until one is adopted no fire department is considered complete or efficient. The interior of the public building should be repaired and a new fence be placed around the grounds, which the janitor should be required to keep in good condition. The ordinances and resolutions of your body should be published in book form and a new code of rules for deliberations adopted.

AN ORDER OF THE LAST LEGISLATURE PROVIDES that it shall be the duty of the president of a borough council, with the consent of the council, to appoint a board of health to consist of five persons, one of whom shall be a reputable physician, the members to serve one, two, three, four and five years, and after the appointment of the first board, one member each year to serve five years. The board is privileged by the act to appoint a salaried secretary.

A MESSAGE TO THE PUBLIC.
 "Two years ago I called attention to the disgraceful condition of Roaring Brook turnpike running from the Corners to Dunmings. The defiant attitude of this band of road pirates is a standing menace to the health of the traveling public and the condition in which they keep the road calls for prompt and decisive action. Under the extraordinary power of eminent domain this corporation has exacted tolls from the public and has refused to pay. The law provides that whenever twenty-five or more persons petition the court that any turnpike road on which tolls are paid should become a public road for the best interests of the community free from toll and gates, the court shall appoint a jury of view to condemn such turnpike for public use, and shall award damages to which the owners are entitled. Thereafter the road becomes free. I had the honor while a member of the state legislature to vote for the law giving citizens the right to lay sidewalks and gutters along the turnpike road. I urge upon you the adoption of the resolution directing owners to lay such sidewalks and gutters.

CAUSE OF THE SEWER MUCKLE.
 It was the duty of the borough solicitor to advertise for bids for the sewer construction and to award the contract and collect the assessments, or on refusal to pay, the liens within six months of April 1, 1892. No objections were filed on March 1, 1892. No objections were filed on March 1, 1892. No objections were filed on March 1, 1892.

Willie Loftus, Four Years Old, Instantly Killed—Motorman Blamed.

At 2:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon Willie Loftus, about 4 years old, a miner's child, was run over by an electric car on a trolley car at the corner of Brook and Hill streets. The car was in charge of Elmer Conrad, motorman, and W. H. Fuller, conductor. From a careful investigation of the case by a TRIBUNE reporter it appears to have been an unfortunate accident in which no blame can be attached to Conrad or Fuller, but which may show a certain degree of carelessness on the part of the child's mother, who locked and left the house, leaving the child and his baby brother playing about the street.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The various roles offered in the engagement of Felix Morris this evening at the Academy give evidence of more than usual interest when three plays will be given. "A Game of Cards," which is first in the list, is a delicately drawn pathetic work in one act, adopted from the French, witnessing Mr. Morris as the character, a brilliant, sparkling comedy farce, from the German in two acts, fairly bubbling over with humor, Mr. Morris being seen as Mr. Moses, a cockney Jew.

CHARLES A. LEADER, who will appear at the Academy on Wednesday evening, has made himself famous as a German dialect comedian and dancer in the character of "Judge Herman Potzgriser" in that great success, "Oh! What a Night!"

THE GIRL I LEFT BEHIND ME.
 "The Girl I Left Behind Me" will be the attraction at the Academy of Music Friday evening. It is a romantic drama—that is to say, a melodrama in the old and proper significance of the word. Charles Frohman's company will present this play, which has been dramatic success for the past two years.
