Special to the Seranton Tribune. FOREST CITY, March 6 -The Methodist Ministerial association met at niondale yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the president, Rev. W. L. Thorpe, presiding, Rev. William Rawlings led the devotional service.

The order of the programme was aken up and Rev. James C. Hogan, of Forest City, presented a paper on "Evangelists and Revivals."

General discussion followed and was participated in by Revs. J. A. Transue, F. Gendall, H. P. Hathaway, J. C. Leocock, Pierce Butler, L. W. Kara-chner, C. A. Benjamin, D. N. Saip man, L. D. Van Campen, H. D. Harned, A. C. Olver, J. S. Lewis, B. F. Lara-bee and Reva. Hine, Brockenbery, Tower, Todd, Linaberry and Throps.

In the evening Rev. A. C. Olver had charge of a half hour's praise service, after which Rev. J. C. Leacock, or Dunmore, delivered an address. His subject was, "The Trials and Triumphs of the Methodist," and was a review and narrative largely drawn from personal observation and experience as a preacher. It was both serious and amusing and seemed to be greatly enjoyed by the audience. At the close of the address the following made remarks on the subject of the address, viz: Rev. W. L. Tnorpe, Rev. James C. Hogan, Rev. P. R. Tower, Rev. H. P. Hathaway, Rev. William Rawlings and Rev. F. Gen-

dall. A large number of the preachers of the Honesdale district have been in attendance from the opening meeting and a lively interest is taken in all the papers and the general discussion. The association will adjourn today after having been greatly benefited by the meeting.

The Newest Veils. The newest veils are certainly most be coming. Generally they are shaped, but some have straight cut ends, the lace border being carried along them. Fine black net and white, or Russian net of very simple pattern, are alone fashionably used. A charming example is of black net spotted with a white silk embroidered star and edged with a narrow applique of white lace, the design a scroll and flower. Another, bordered with an applique of lace, is powdered with lace sprips. A third is spotted with white chenille and bordered with a narrow valenciennes edging. Colored chenille spots have gone out. Nothing but black and white is considered the thing to wear.

An enthusiastic advocate of chocolate affirms in an exchange that for those who wish to keep the imagination fresh and vigorous chocolate is the beverage of beverages. However copiously you have lunched, a cup of chocolate immediately afterward will produce digestion in three hours and prepare the way for a good dinner. It is recommended to every one who devotes to brain work the hours he should pass in bed, to every wit who finds he has become suddenly duli, to all who find the air damp, the time long and the atmosphere insupportable, and above all to those who, tormented with a fixed idea, have lost their freedom of thought Housekeeping Hints.

Four Bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla Effects a Wonderful Cure. C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen: As a result of the memorable blizzard of March, 1888, I contracted muscular rheumatism; at that time I was engaged on a job of steamfitting in Plainfield, N. J., and it was necessary for me to wade through the snow to the building, a new residence, in which we were working. For eighteen months afterwards I was laid up with muscular rheumatism and sciatica. I then joined my son-in-law in Denver, Col., where I was engaged in steamfitting and engineering, and where I commenced to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for my theumatism. It cured me not only of the rhoumatism and sciatica, but also of outward piles, from which for thirty-three years I had suffered
