

Chest Pains Short breath, palpitation, weak and sore lungs, pleurisy, coughs, colds, asthma and bronchitis relieved in ONE Minute by the CURA ANTI-PAIN PLASTER...

THE NEWS OF NEARBY TOWNS

[Out of town correspondents of this Tribune should sign their names in full to each news item, not for publication out to guard against deception.]

FROM FACTORYVILLE WAY.

A Talented Correspondent's Budget of Brightly Written News. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

FACTORYVILLE, Pa., March 14.—The 1894 building boom has commenced in earnest.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. H. M. Harding...

The friends of the Rev. W. J. Watkins, at Starkville, will tender him a luncheon at the residence of Ann Stevens, on Tuesday evening, March 20.

Thomas Reynolds, of Green Ridge, expects to build a residence this spring on the hill near M. N. Reynolds.

The exercises at the armory last Friday in connection with the closing of the grade school were well attended.

The children sustained their parts in the dialogues and recitations in a way that showed careful study and reflected much credit on the teachers who trained them.

A large chorus under the direction of W. N. Manchester is rehearsing a special Easter programme entitled, "Christ Triumphant."

The Woman's Christian Temperance union has engaged Mrs. A. M. Holiver, a member of the state lecture bureau, to give a series of three lectures in the Baptist church, beginning with Sunday evening, March 18, and continuing Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Rev. M. J. Watkins occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church at Jermy last Sunday.

Mr. Morey, a senior of Hamilton Theological seminary, of Hamilton, N. Y., preached at the Baptist church here last Sunday morning and evening.

The correspondent of the Scranton Republican reported last week that the eight singing class under the direction of W. N. Manchester was a "knowing" success.

Mr. P. H. Swift, proprietor of the Globe Hotel, will retire from business on April 1. He has secured more desirable and profitable employment.

The employees of Jones, Simpson & Co. will be paid tomorrow.

M. E. Gilhooley, who has creditably represented the Metropolitan Life insurance company in this vicinity, has been promoted to the responsible position of assistant superintendent of the Binghamton district.

Mr. G. D. Moore, of Southern, N. J., will commence revival services at the Methodist Episcopal chapel at the Summit on Sunday evening next.

The mumm party held at F. S. Benedict's on Tuesday evening last was a great success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mullinax attended the last rites of Mrs. Peter Phillips, of Nicholson, a sister of the former, at Factoryville on Tuesday last.

H. Sisco is reported as being much improved.

Mrs. O. Chapman is suffering from a severe illness, and is as comfortable as circumstances will permit.

The protracted meetings at the Baptist church still continue unabated in interest.

Enlightenment enables the more advanced and conservative surgeons of today to cure many diseases without cutting, which were formerly regarded as incurable without resort to the knife.

MRS. Z. A. BOLL AND SON, of Carbondale, were the guests of Mrs. Nelson Bell yesterday and today.

John C. Miller, of Easton, Pa., and D. Walker, of Philadelphia, were at the Forest House yesterday.

The Hillside colliers will be idle until Tuesday. Their employees will receive their monthly "long green" tomorrow.

The Centula company that will produce "Boreca" at the opera house Saturday evening are making progress as they are practicing every other night this week.

JERMYN AND VICINITY. Our Live Representative's New Budget of Local.

JERMYN, Pa., March 14.—Rev. T. W. Jones, of Pittsburg, will preach in the Congregational church Sunday. The evening service will be in English.

good, Benjamin Milton and W. J. Maxey, decided in favor of the negative.

Mrs. Z. A. Boll and son, of Carbondale, were the guests of Mrs. Nelson Bell yesterday and today.

John C. Miller, of Easton, Pa., and D. Walker, of Philadelphia, were at the Forest House yesterday.

The Hillside colliers will be idle until Tuesday. Their employees will receive their monthly "long green" tomorrow.

The Centula company that will produce "Boreca" at the opera house Saturday evening are making progress as they are practicing every other night this week.

JERMYN AND VICINITY. Our Live Representative's New Budget of Local.

JERMYN, Pa., March 14.—Rev. T. W. Jones, of Pittsburg, will preach in the Congregational church Sunday.

The evening service will be in English.

NICHOLSON NEWS NOTES. A High Class Concert in Prospect—Personal and Other Items.

NICHOLSON, Pa., March 14.—The Universalist choir assisted by Mrs. E. M. Tiffany, will give a concert in the Nicholson opera house Friday evening, March 16.

My physician said I could not live my usual life of order, frequently vomited green mucus, yellow, small dry, nervous, stomach could not retain food.

Mr. P. H. Swift, proprietor of the Globe Hotel, will retire from business on April 1.

The employees of Jones, Simpson & Co. will be paid tomorrow.

M. E. Gilhooley, who has creditably represented the Metropolitan Life insurance company in this vicinity, has been promoted to the responsible position of assistant superintendent of the Binghamton district.

Mr. G. D. Moore, of Southern, N. J., will commence revival services at the Methodist Episcopal chapel at the Summit on Sunday evening next.

The mumm party held at F. S. Benedict's on Tuesday evening last was a great success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mullinax attended the last rites of Mrs. Peter Phillips, of Nicholson, a sister of the former, at Factoryville on Tuesday last.

H. Sisco is reported as being much improved.

Mrs. O. Chapman is suffering from a severe illness, and is as comfortable as circumstances will permit.

The protracted meetings at the Baptist church still continue unabated in interest.

Enlightenment enables the more advanced and conservative surgeons of today to cure many diseases without cutting, which were formerly regarded as incurable without resort to the knife.

MRS. Z. A. BOLL AND SON, of Carbondale, were the guests of Mrs. Nelson Bell yesterday and today.

John C. Miller, of Easton, Pa., and D. Walker, of Philadelphia, were at the Forest House yesterday.

The Hillside colliers will be idle until Tuesday. Their employees will receive their monthly "long green" tomorrow.

The Centula company that will produce "Boreca" at the opera house Saturday evening are making progress as they are practicing every other night this week.

JERMYN AND VICINITY. Our Live Representative's New Budget of Local.

JERMYN, Pa., March 14.—Rev. T. W. Jones, of Pittsburg, will preach in the Congregational church Sunday.

The evening service will be in English.

NICHOLSON NEWS NOTES. A High Class Concert in Prospect—Personal and Other Items.

NICHOLSON, Pa., March 14.—The Universalist choir assisted by Mrs. E. M. Tiffany, will give a concert in the Nicholson opera house Friday evening, March 16.

My physician said I could not live my usual life of order, frequently vomited green mucus, yellow, small dry, nervous, stomach could not retain food.

good, Benjamin Milton and W. J. Maxey, decided in favor of the negative.

Mrs. Z. A. Boll and son, of Carbondale, were the guests of Mrs. Nelson Bell yesterday and today.

John C. Miller, of Easton, Pa., and D. Walker, of Philadelphia, were at the Forest House yesterday.

The Hillside colliers will be idle until Tuesday. Their employees will receive their monthly "long green" tomorrow.

The Centula company that will produce "Boreca" at the opera house Saturday evening are making progress as they are practicing every other night this week.

JERMYN AND VICINITY. Our Live Representative's New Budget of Local.

JERMYN, Pa., March 14.—Rev. T. W. Jones, of Pittsburg, will preach in the Congregational church Sunday.

The evening service will be in English.

NICHOLSON NEWS NOTES. A High Class Concert in Prospect—Personal and Other Items.

NICHOLSON, Pa., March 14.—The Universalist choir assisted by Mrs. E. M. Tiffany, will give a concert in the Nicholson opera house Friday evening, March 16.

My physician said I could not live my usual life of order, frequently vomited green mucus, yellow, small dry, nervous, stomach could not retain food.

Mr. P. H. Swift, proprietor of the Globe Hotel, will retire from business on April 1.

The employees of Jones, Simpson & Co. will be paid tomorrow.

M. E. Gilhooley, who has creditably represented the Metropolitan Life insurance company in this vicinity, has been promoted to the responsible position of assistant superintendent of the Binghamton district.

Mr. G. D. Moore, of Southern, N. J., will commence revival services at the Methodist Episcopal chapel at the Summit on Sunday evening next.

The mumm party held at F. S. Benedict's on Tuesday evening last was a great success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mullinax attended the last rites of Mrs. Peter Phillips, of Nicholson, a sister of the former, at Factoryville on Tuesday last.

H. Sisco is reported as being much improved.

Mrs. O. Chapman is suffering from a severe illness, and is as comfortable as circumstances will permit.

The protracted meetings at the Baptist church still continue unabated in interest.

Enlightenment enables the more advanced and conservative surgeons of today to cure many diseases without cutting, which were formerly regarded as incurable without resort to the knife.

MRS. Z. A. BOLL AND SON, of Carbondale, were the guests of Mrs. Nelson Bell yesterday and today.

John C. Miller, of Easton, Pa., and D. Walker, of Philadelphia, were at the Forest House yesterday.

The Hillside colliers will be idle until Tuesday. Their employees will receive their monthly "long green" tomorrow.

The Centula company that will produce "Boreca" at the opera house Saturday evening are making progress as they are practicing every other night this week.

JERMYN AND VICINITY. Our Live Representative's New Budget of Local.

JERMYN, Pa., March 14.—Rev. T. W. Jones, of Pittsburg, will preach in the Congregational church Sunday.

The evening service will be in English.

NICHOLSON NEWS NOTES. A High Class Concert in Prospect—Personal and Other Items.

NICHOLSON, Pa., March 14.—The Universalist choir assisted by Mrs. E. M. Tiffany, will give a concert in the Nicholson opera house Friday evening, March 16.

My physician said I could not live my usual life of order, frequently vomited green mucus, yellow, small dry, nervous, stomach could not retain food.

Mr. Paul M. Weber. All Run Down Always Tired, Sleepless and Without Appetite Blood Vitalized and Strength Renewed by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY

There are hundreds of young men and young women in this country who have splendid ability, but they have never been wakened up.

Wood's College of Business and Shorthand

Has been an inspiration to hundreds of young people. If you are tired of inactivity and want to do something tangible, come to the College.

NEW GOODS (Upholstery Department)

CARD TABLES, Green or Red Billiard Cloth Covering, $2.25 each. JARDINIERS STANDS in Oak with Matting Top, White and Gold, Teak, Wood and Brass.

UMBRELLA STANDS, Hat and Coat Hooks, Easels and Screens.

Step Ladder Chair, $1.25. Oak Tables, 90c. to $1.15.

SPECIAL, to Close Them Out: Velour and Tapestry Table Covers at just one-half their former price.

KERR & SIEBECKER CARPET AND CURTAIN DEALERS.

Dr. E. Grever The Philadelphia Specialist. Temple Court Building 311 SPRUCE ST. SCRANTON

THE RICHARDS LUMBER CO. Scranton, Pa. $2 and 23 Commonwealth Building. TRY US.

THE TRADERS National Bank of Scranton. CAPITAL $250,000. SURPLUS $25,000.

ECONOMY TALK. The Same Way at the Economy. Greatest Parlor Suit Ever Offered for the Price.

Third National Bank of Scranton. Statement Feb. 28, 1894, called for by the Comptroller of the Currency.

MOOSIC POWDER CO. Rooms 1 and 2 Commonwealth Bldg. SCRANTON, PA. MINING AND BLASTING POWDER

ORANGE GUN POWDER Electric Batteries, Fuses for exploding blasts, safety Fuse and Repairs Co.'s High Explosives

Economy Furniture CO. 225 & 227 WYOMING AVENUE. SPECIAL—A 100-piece Dinner Set presented with all purchases of $75.00 or over.

GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT

OUR ANNUAL OPENING

Women's Muslin and Cambric Underwear

AS IN THE PAST, our efforts this year have been exerted to gather together a stock of Underwear that would give the greatest possible satisfaction in quality of material, carefulness of workmanship and perfection of fit.

And while the prices are as low as can possibly be afforded for such high class work, we do not enter into competition with the inferior grades of goods largely sold at seemingly low prices.

The stock now placed on exhibition is all new and fresh. No shop-worn or counter-sold goods in the lot and indeed only the latest styles and shapes.

Special Bargains

Fine Muslin Corset Covers, 19c. Fine Cambric Corset Covers, 23c. Night Dresses, 39c. Walking Skirts, 35c. Drawers, 21c.

In connection with the special bargains in Muslin Underwear, we have some unusual values.

In Children's White Dresses

Infants' Long Slips

It is well to remember that when we advertise special bargains it is not safe to postpone examination for a single day. The reason is that all our notices are eagerly scanned, and as we positively avoid all forms of sensational advertisements it has been proven by experience that everything mentioned in our notices is precisely as stated; therefore, the response is prompt and large lots are sometimes sold in a few hours or days, as it may happen.

IN AND ABOUT AVOCA.

Entertaining Paragraphs Concerning Prominent People.

AVOCA, Pa., March 14.—H. M. Howell and Attorney L. J. Baxter made a business trip to Moscow today.

Rev. M. F. Crane is in New York city.

Mrs. A. F. Rhoades visited her mother at Wilkes-Barre today.

Mrs. J. R. Sitterly spent today at White Haven.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McDonnell died yesterday and will be buried tomorrow afternoon.

Work has been commenced on the building of the addition of St. Mary's church. William O'Malley, of Wilkes-Barre, is the contractor.

Division 9, Ancient Order Hibernians, Board of Erin, and the West Side Drum corps will go to Wilkes-Barre to participate in the parade there St. Patrick's Day.

Misses Nellie and Annie Callahan left for a few days stay in New York city.

Miss Annie Cranston spent yesterday in Pittston.

Rev. Fathers Shanley and Ashley, of Carbondale, were visitors here yesterday.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard King died yesterday and will be buried tomorrow afternoon.

The choir of the Avoca Methodist Episcopal church will give an entertainment Thursday evening, March 29, consisting of choruses, solos, duets, quartets, recitations, and readings.

The admission will only be 15 cents, giving any and all an opportunity to hear some good music from our local talent. C. E. Clark will preside as organist.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gallagher died this morning. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 2:39 p. m.

AROUND ARCHBALD.

Pen Pictures of a Hustling Lackawanna Valley Town.

ARCHBALD, March 13.—Intelligence reached here last evening that Mr. Matheo Roche, who was well known here, died at his home in Potter county yesterday. Mr. Roche was a brother to Miss Ella Roche and a brother-in-law to T. F. Kieley of this place.

Mr. P. H. Swift, proprietor of the Globe Hotel, will retire from business on April 1. He has secured more desirable and profitable employment.

The employees of Jones, Simpson & Co. will be paid tomorrow.

M. E. Gilhooley, who has creditably represented the Metropolitan Life insurance company in this vicinity, has been promoted to the responsible position of assistant superintendent of the Binghamton district.

Mr. G. D. Moore, of Southern, N. J., will commence revival services at the Methodist Episcopal chapel at the Summit on Sunday evening next.

The mumm party held at F. S. Benedict's on Tuesday evening last was a great success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mullinax attended the last rites of Mrs. Peter Phillips, of Nicholson, a sister of the former, at Factoryville on Tuesday last.

H. Sisco is reported as being much improved.

Mrs. O. Chapman is suffering from a severe illness, and is as comfortable as circumstances will permit.

The protracted meetings at the Baptist church still continue unabated in interest.

Enlightenment enables the more advanced and conservative surgeons of today to cure many diseases without cutting, which were formerly regarded as incurable without resort to the knife.

MRS. Z. A. BOLL AND SON, of Carbondale, were the guests of Mrs. Nelson Bell yesterday and today.

John C. Miller, of Easton, Pa., and D. Walker, of Philadelphia, were at the Forest House yesterday.

The Hillside colliers will be idle until Tuesday. Their employees will receive their monthly "long green" tomorrow.

The Centula company that will produce "Boreca" at the opera house Saturday evening are making progress as they are practicing every other night this week.

JERMYN AND VICINITY. Our Live Representative's New Budget of Local.

FROM FACTORYVILLE WAY.

A Talented Correspondent's Budget of Brightly Written News. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

FACTORYVILLE, Pa., March 14.—The 1894 building boom has commenced in earnest.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. H. M. Harding...

The friends of the Rev. W. J. Watkins, at Starkville, will tender him a luncheon at the residence of Ann Stevens, on Tuesday evening, March 20.

Thomas Reynolds, of Green Ridge, expects to build a residence this spring on the hill near M. N. Reynolds.

The exercises at the armory last Friday in connection with the closing of the grade school were well attended.

The children sustained their parts in the dialogues and recitations in a way that showed careful study and reflected much credit on the teachers who trained them.

A large chorus under the direction of W. N. Manchester is rehearsing a special Easter programme entitled, "Christ Triumphant."

The Woman's Christian Temperance union has engaged Mrs. A. M. Holiver, a member of the state lecture bureau, to give a series of three lectures in the Baptist church, beginning with Sunday evening, March 18, and continuing Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Rev. M. J. Watkins occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church at Jermy last Sunday.

Mr. Morey, a senior of Hamilton Theological seminary, of Hamilton, N. Y., preached at the Baptist church here last Sunday morning and evening.

The correspondent of the Scranton Republican reported last week that the eight singing class under the direction of W. N. Manchester was a "knowing" success.

Mr. P. H. Swift, proprietor of the Globe Hotel, will retire from business on April 1.

The employees of Jones, Simpson & Co. will be paid tomorrow.

M. E. Gilhooley, who has creditably represented the Metropolitan Life insurance company in this vicinity, has been promoted to the responsible position of assistant superintendent of the Binghamton district.

Mr. G. D. Moore, of Southern, N. J., will commence revival services at the Methodist Episcopal chapel at the Summit on Sunday evening next.

The mumm party held at F. S. Benedict's on Tuesday evening last was a great success.

My physician said I could not live my usual life of order, frequently vomited green mucus, yellow, small dry, nervous, stomach could not retain food.

Mr. P. H. Swift, proprietor of the Globe Hotel, will retire from business on April 1.

The employees of Jones, Simpson & Co. will be paid tomorrow.

M. E. Gilhooley, who has creditably represented the Metropolitan Life insurance company in this vicinity, has been promoted to the responsible position of assistant superintendent of the Binghamton district.

Mr. G. D. Moore, of Southern, N. J., will commence revival services at the Methodist Episcopal chapel at the Summit on Sunday evening next.

The mumm party held at F. S. Benedict's on Tuesday evening last was a great success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mullinax attended the last rites of Mrs. Peter Phillips, of Nicholson, a sister of the former, at Factoryville on Tuesday last.

H. Sisco is reported as being much improved.

Mrs. O. Chapman is suffering from a severe illness, and is as comfortable as circumstances will permit.

The protracted meetings at the Baptist church still continue unabated in interest.

Enlightenment enables the more advanced and conservative surgeons of today to cure many diseases without cutting, which were formerly regarded as incurable without resort to the knife.

MRS. Z. A. BOLL AND SON, of Carbondale, were the guests of Mrs. Nelson Bell yesterday and today.

John C. Miller, of Easton, Pa., and D. Walker, of Philadelphia, were at the Forest House yesterday.

The Hillside colliers will be idle until Tuesday. Their employees will receive their monthly "long green" tomorrow.

The Centula company that will produce "Boreca" at the opera house Saturday evening are making progress as they are practicing every other night this week.

JERMYN AND VICINITY. Our Live Representative's New Budget of Local.

JERMYN, Pa., March 14.—Rev. T. W. Jones, of Pittsburg, will preach in the Congregational church Sunday.

The evening service will be in English.

GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT

OUR ANNUAL OPENING

Women's Muslin and Cambric Underwear

AS IN THE PAST, our efforts this year have been exerted to gather together a stock of Underwear that would give the greatest possible satisfaction in quality of material, carefulness of workmanship and perfection of fit.

And while the prices are as low as can possibly be afforded for such high class work, we do not enter into competition with the inferior grades of goods largely sold at seemingly low prices.

The stock now placed on exhibition is all new and fresh. No shop-worn or counter-sold goods in the lot and indeed only the latest styles and shapes.

Special Bargains

Fine Muslin Corset Covers, 19c. Fine Cambric Corset Covers, 23c. Night Dresses, 39c. Walking Skirts, 35c. Drawers, 21c.

In connection with the special bargains in Muslin Underwear, we have some unusual values.

In Children's White Dresses

Infants' Long Slips

It is well to remember that when we advertise special bargains it is not safe to postpone examination for a single day. The reason is that all our notices are eagerly scanned, and as we positively avoid all forms of sensational advertisements it has been proven by experience that everything mentioned in our notices is precisely as stated; therefore, the response is prompt and large lots are sometimes sold in a few hours or days, as it may happen.

IN AND ABOUT AVOCA.

Entertaining Paragraphs Concerning Prominent People.

AVOCA, Pa., March 14.—H. M. Howell and Attorney L. J. Baxter made a business trip to Moscow today.

Rev. M. F. Crane is in New York city.

Mrs. A. F. Rhoades visited her mother at Wilkes-Barre today.