

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

THE GENUINE POPULAR Punch Cigars HAVE THE INITIALS G. B. & Co.

Imprinted on Each Cigar. Garney, Brown & Co. Mfrs. COURT HOUSE SQUARE.

DR. H. B. WARE SPECIALIST. EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT.

OFFICE HOURS: 10 TO 5 P.M. 135 WYOMING AVE.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harley entertained a number of friends at their handsome residence at North Park Friday evening with a card party.

After sailing down the dark, mysterious Nile, viewing the pyramids, examining the quaint streets of Cairo and rambling over the continent, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Sturges and daughter will return to their home on North Washington avenue, this city, about June 1.

J. Ben Dimmick, who, with Mrs. Dimmick, has been travelling for several years in this country and abroad seeking the improvement of Mrs. Dimmick's health, will again take up their residence in Green Ridge about June 1.

Prothonotary and Mrs. W. J. Baker, of Montrose, were the guests of Attorney C. S. Woodruff at his home on sunset avenue last week.

N. F. Stahl, jr., a student at Princeton college, is spending a few days at the home of his father, Rev. N. F. Stahl, on Sunset avenue.

The Cape Argus, of Feb. 10, published at Cape Town, Africa, contains the following notice of the marriage of Anthony Maurice Robeson, who is well known in this city.

A very novel thing occurred on Saturday evening. Two prominent young men on the West Side decided to have a wheelbarrow race for a small wager. These articles were procured and the run was to be made from Scranton to Washburn street.

PERSONAL.

Joseph M. Boies was home from Yale yesterday. L. M. Rhodes, of Meadville, is at the Wyoming.

John L. Hargis is spending a few days in Philadelphia. W. M. Jennings, of Williamsport, was in Scranton yesterday.

Byron H. Jackson, of Wilkes-Barre, was in Scranton yesterday. Leonard Goodwin, of South Bethlehem, was in this city Saturday.

United States Marshal John W. Walker, of Erie, is at the Wyoming. H. Barman, of Binghamton, was on Saturday a visitor in this city.

Professor Carter will give a piano recital at T. H. Atherton's, Wilkes-Barre, March 27. H. S. Machin and William Sharpe, of Wilkes-Barre, were in Scranton yesterday.

Miss Mamie Beamish is visiting the Misses Cogrove, on Dana Place, Wilkes-Barre. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lewis, of Wilkes-Barre, made a pleasure trip to Scranton Saturday.

Mrs. Frances B. Swan is in New York and will today attend a reception given by Sorosis. Ira J. Meagley, G. L. Crandall and C. E. Tichel, all of Binghamton, were in this city yesterday.

John McGinley, of Philadelphia, brother of M. A. McGinley, of this city, was in this city yesterday. R. B. Knight, of Binghamton, is the guest of H. C. Wallace, of the firm of Connolly & Wallace.

Miss Helen Butler, of Wilkes-Barre, was entertained during last week by Miss Elizabeth Leonard. Prothonotary and wife, of Wilkes-Barre, were guests of Mrs. Jacob Aman yesterday.

Miss Fanny Foote, of Hamilton, Wayne county, is the guest of Mrs. W. B. Christman, of Providence. Frank L. Terry and E. J. Entellina made a wheeling trip to this city from Wilkes-Barre yesterday.

John H. Brooks came up from Princeton on Saturday and spent yesterday with his parents on Quincy avenue. F. O. Ebert, formerly of this city, and now of Minneapolis, accompanied by his brother-in-law, J. C. Walker, is visiting friends here.

Harry A. Lyons, formerly of this city and now of Montrose, spent Sunday here as the guest of Mark L. Smith, district passenger agent of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad. James Kearney, formerly travelling freight agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad, has accepted a position with the Delaware and Hudson Canal company. He is located in the freight station at the foot of Wyoming avenue.

Justice and Mrs. H. W. Williams, of Philadelphia, will have been at the Wyoming since Saturday, departed this morning for Hartford, Susquehanna county, accompanied by the remains of Justice Williams' brother, whose interment will occur there today. The business of Charles Schank, the well known Arcade shoe dealer, has of late grown to such large proportions that he has been compelled to add to his clerical force. On Saturday A. D. Miller, of Shamokin, accepted a position with Mr. Schank. Mr. Miller has had considerable experience in the shoe business and is a most affable and clever salesman, who will no doubt win many friends for himself and employer.

NEWS FROM WEST SIDE

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Hyde Park Readers.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S CONFLAGRATION

A Double Dwelling Occupied By Four Families Slightly Damaged By Fire. Death of Mrs. Eve Rinker—Lackawanna Council to Give an Invitation Concert—Novel Race of Prominent Men—Interesting News Notes.

The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 128 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.

The alarm of fire which sounded from box 822 at the corner of Teut and Luzerne streets about 10:30 o'clock on Saturday evening, was caused by a slight blaze in a two-story double dwelling owned by Dr. Heath and occupied by Patrick Feeney and Mr. Lamson. The fire occurred in the apartments of Mrs. Mulherin. It was caused by a paper shade over the lamp becoming ignited. This set fire to the furniture in the room. Chief Ferber's investigation proved that the walls and furniture in the front room were badly burned. There is no insurance on the goods.

Mrs. Rinker Dead. Mrs. Eve Rinker died yesterday at her home, 124 South Bromley avenue. Mrs. Rinker became ill in December last with rheumatism, and did not leave her bed from that time until she died. She was born in Monroe county, Pa., and was 50 years of age. She has been a resident of the West Side for the past twelve years. She was a very popular woman, and is survived by her husband and two daughters, Minnie and Ethel Rinker. Mrs. Rinker was a member of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, and a devout Christian. She was connected with the Ladies' Aid society and the Women's Christian Temperance union. The funeral will occur on Wednesday morning. Brief services will be held at the home by Rev. L. C. Floyd, at which the remains will be removed on the 9:50 Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train to Stroudsburg, where interment will be made.

An Invitation Concert. Lackawanna council, Royal Arcanum, will give an invitation concert on Thursday evening at St. David's hall. The programme prepared is an elaborate one, and the persons that will take part include the best talent obtainable in this city and Wilkes-Barre. Among those who will participate are Miss Adele Breakstone, of Wilkes-Barre, accompanist; Miss Julia Allen, violinist; Mrs. A. E. Connel, contralto; Mrs. O'Brien, soprano; Llew Herbert, basso; Edwin Bowen, tenor; Baus's orchestra; accompanist, Prof. Daniel Protheroe. Prof. George Howell will deliver an address.

A Novel Race. A very novel thing occurred on Saturday evening. Two prominent young men on the West Side decided to have a wheelbarrow race for a small wager. These articles were procured and the run was to be made from Scranton to Washburn street. The contestants started, accompanied by a shout from the large crowd that had gathered to witness the affair, and all went well for a short time. When in front of P. J. Leonard's store a fire came off one of the wheels, which caused the race to be postponed. The monkey was returned to the hardware merchant from whom it was borrowed, and the boys were severely reprimanded on account of its damaged condition.

Mrs. Barry Buried. The funeral of Mrs. M. F. Barry, who died at her home in Wilkes-Barre on Thursday last, was largely attended yesterday morning from the home of her mother, Mrs. O'Malley, of Jackson street. A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Patrick's church by Rev. Father McNally. The floral tributes were of exquisite design. Interment was made in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

Death's Harvest. The 15-month-old child of Thomas Jones, of Eynon street, died on Saturday. The funeral occurred yesterday from the family home. Harry, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bloom, of Bloom street, Bellevue, died on Saturday. Mrs. B. Benjamin Waldman died Saturday morning at her home on Back street. She is survived by a husband and three children.

Interesting News Notes. A large wallet containing several valuable papers was found on North Main avenue on Saturday evening. The article was placed in charge of Sergeant Williams at the West Side station. The owner may have the wallet on application. The Marquette will hold a social in Beers' hall on April 11. The rule of the Scranton Traction company relative to stopping at intersections and at the further crossings will be enforced today. Daniel Koch, hotel keeper on Lafayette street, will move his family to Philadelphia about April 1. E. G. Jones, of South Main avenue, visited his brother, John T. Jones, in Nanticoke, yesterday.

Some of the talented young people of the West Side are organizing a dramatic company. Those prominent in the formation are Hyde Park's most active young men, and success seems certain. Miss Maggie Carroll, aged 19 years, died Saturday at the home of her grandfather, Mrs. Mary Ryan, 1291 Division street. The funeral will occur tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's church, when requiem mass will be celebrated. Interment will occur at the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. Only twelve days remain in which to secure two Britanica.

NORTH END.

There was considerable excitement among the people of Park place Saturday evening when Alfred Wademan shot Joseph McDermott. The shooting took place on the road in front of "Battle Row," on Court street, at 8:15 o'clock. The cause which led to the shooting is as follows: Frank Jordan, a friend of the injured man, has persistently paid attention to a sister of George Wademan. Wademan objected and Jordan threatened to mete out judgment to him as soon as he saw him. Saturday night, Jordan, accompanied by McDermott, met Wademan at the place above mentioned and immediately a war of words ensued.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Many Tribune Readers.

DID NOT KNOW IT WAS LOADED

John Higgins, of Elm Street, Accidentally Kills Himself—Verdict of Coroner's Jury—Street Car Accident in Minooka Causes a Riot—Won First Prize—Personals and Other Interesting News Notes.

John Higgins, of 325 Elm street, died at 12 o'clock Saturday night from the effect of a bullet entering his brain, caused by the accidental discharge of a revolver which he was carelessly handling. Higgins was about 35 years old, and was employed as a brakeman on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad. He had not worked since Wednesday, and the theory that he purposely committed the deed isout of the question. On Saturday he spent the afternoon in the Central City, and came home at the usual hour for supper. About 11 o'clock he told his mother to get him a clean collar, which she did. He then started for his room to get a collar button and came across the pistol in one of the drawers of the dressing case. The weapon was similar to a toy cap pistol, having but one barrel and having a 22-calibre bore. After putting his collar on he walked out to the sitting room where his father and sister were. In a joking manner he pointed the pistol at them. They warned him to put it away, but he only said it was no good and wasn't loaded.

He snapped the trigger a couple of times without discharging the bullet and then playfully put it to his head. This time the pistol did its work, and the hapless did not cost him his life. He fell to the floor, his brains oozing from the wound. His remains were consigned until his death. Drs. Walsh and Manley were summoned, but could do nothing except bandage the wound. Father Moffat arrived and gave the dying man conditional absolution. Officers Coyle and Walsh reached the house and took possession of the fatal weapon. They remained on duty at the residence and kept back the throng of morbid curiosity seekers. Arrangements for the funeral are not yet made. Coroner Killy was notified as soon as the man died and visited the house yesterday. He announced the following jury: John Kane, Thomas Kearney, M. J. O'Toole, John Flood, Benedict Eledn and Owen Cusick. The following verdict was agreed upon after hearing the details of the deed: "We, the jury, find that death resulted by the accidental discharge of a revolver in the hands of the deceased."

MISS ROGERS' ADDRESS.

She Makes an Appeal for the Salvation of the Thoroughbreds. Miss Ella Clementine Rogers, the well known total abstinence advocate, delivered an address before the young men's meeting at association hall at 3:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Her subject was "Save the Thoroughbreds." By the thoroughbreds Miss Rogers said she meant first, those who have been reared in the atmosphere of refinement, go out into what may be designated a "wild" world and are exposed to the temptations it offers; and secondly, those reared in humble life, who have by means of their ambition and brain power, risen to prominence in the world. The speaker dwelt upon the danger to which these are exposed, and gave many instances where men of years and might have drowned their usefulness in the wine cup. An old crowbar of a horse, she said, would stand for years an amount of abuse that would kill a thoroughbred in six months, and from this statement she drew a moral, and asked for our extra development by extra care. In referring to the assertion of a newspaper writer that while Darwin declared that it took 20,000 generations to develop man from the monkey, yet three fingers of Chicago whisky would transfer a good man in an hour into a monkey. The speaker said that she supposed Scranton whisky would do the same thing. There was some good singing by the Young Men's Christian association quartette.

LECTURE AT EXCELSIOR CLUB.

A Wilkes-Barrean, Telle of Whittier's Relation to American History. Most of the representative Hebrews of this city and a number from Pittston and Wilkes-Barre were at the Excelsior Club's rooms yesterday afternoon to hear S. J. Strassman's lecture on "The Relation of John G. Whittier to American History." The theme of the speaker was unique and in substance was as follows: The subject is considered entirely in relation to the poet's influence upon the statesman of his time; it bore particularly upon the emancipation and independence of the States. When the states were constituted the opinion that slavery was wrong had but few followers, so the constitution was adopted as a compromise. Whittier in writing on this subject seems to have followed a logical plan. It was his poems which first taught the American people that the negro was a man and a chattel, he also pictured the horrors of the slave trade and created a sentiment against it; he severely dealt with the statesmen of the time and in "Ichabod" held up for public contempt Daniel Webster, because of his favoring the repeal of Missouri compromise. Whittier reached the heart and sympathies of the American people through school children who carried his poems into thousands of homes, and he saw what few men live to see—their ideas realized.

WONDERLAND'S PLAYERS RETURN.

Hidden Hand and the Two Orphans Will Appear This Week. The patrons of Wonderland will be pleased to welcome the return of its stock company. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be presented "Hidden Hand," a melodrama of the most popular type. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday "The Two Orphans," Kate Claxton's famous play will be produced with a stronger cast and in a more elaborate manner than when it was first presented at Wonderland. Matinees will be given each afternoon, excepting Monday and Thursday. The titles alone of the two plays ought to insure a hearty response from the admirers of the stock company, which has won for itself a reputation not exceeded by any company preceding it.

HOYT'S BRASS MONKEY.

George Marion and Company Please a Large Audience. Hoyt's well known farce, "A Brass Monkey," was produced at the Academy of Music on Saturday evening by a good company, headed by George Marion. The play had been seen in Scranton on a number of previous occasions, but the audience enjoyed its humor as though it was fresh from the pen of playwright Hoyt. Mr. Marion was a favorite, and when he sang and recited his famous Italian story of George Washington. In the second act, the applause that followed was simply deafening. There were several persons in the company whose services could well be dispensed with, but the organization as a whole was very good.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Many Tribune Readers.

DID NOT KNOW IT WAS LOADED

John Higgins, of Elm Street, Accidentally Kills Himself—Verdict of Coroner's Jury—Street Car Accident in Minooka Causes a Riot—Won First Prize—Personals and Other Interesting News Notes.

John Higgins, of 325 Elm street, died at 12 o'clock Saturday night from the effect of a bullet entering his brain, caused by the accidental discharge of a revolver which he was carelessly handling. Higgins was about 35 years old, and was employed as a brakeman on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad. He had not worked since Wednesday, and the theory that he purposely committed the deed isout of the question. On Saturday he spent the afternoon in the Central City, and came home at the usual hour for supper. About 11 o'clock he told his mother to get him a clean collar, which she did. He then started for his room to get a collar button and came across the pistol in one of the drawers of the dressing case. The weapon was similar to a toy cap pistol, having but one barrel and having a 22-calibre bore. After putting his collar on he walked out to the sitting room where his father and sister were. In a joking manner he pointed the pistol at them. They warned him to put it away, but he only said it was no good and wasn't loaded.

He snapped the trigger a couple of times without discharging the bullet and then playfully put it to his head. This time the pistol did its work, and the hapless did not cost him his life. He fell to the floor, his brains oozing from the wound. His remains were consigned until his death. Drs. Walsh and Manley were summoned, but could do nothing except bandage the wound. Father Moffat arrived and gave the dying man conditional absolution. Officers Coyle and Walsh reached the house and took possession of the fatal weapon. They remained on duty at the residence and kept back the throng of morbid curiosity seekers. Arrangements for the funeral are not yet made. Coroner Killy was notified as soon as the man died and visited the house yesterday. He announced the following jury: John Kane, Thomas Kearney, M. J. O'Toole, John Flood, Benedict Eledn and Owen Cusick. The following verdict was agreed upon after hearing the details of the deed: "We, the jury, find that death resulted by the accidental discharge of a revolver in the hands of the deceased."

MISS ROGERS' ADDRESS.

She Makes an Appeal for the Salvation of the Thoroughbreds. Miss Ella Clementine Rogers, the well known total abstinence advocate, delivered an address before the young men's meeting at association hall at 3:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Her subject was "Save the Thoroughbreds." By the thoroughbreds Miss Rogers said she meant first, those who have been reared in the atmosphere of refinement, go out into what may be designated a "wild" world and are exposed to the temptations it offers; and secondly, those reared in humble life, who have by means of their ambition and brain power, risen to prominence in the world. The speaker dwelt upon the danger to which these are exposed, and gave many instances where men of years and might have drowned their usefulness in the wine cup. An old crowbar of a horse, she said, would stand for years an amount of abuse that would kill a thoroughbred in six months, and from this statement she drew a moral, and asked for our extra development by extra care. In referring to the assertion of a newspaper writer that while Darwin declared that it took 20,000 generations to develop man from the monkey, yet three fingers of Chicago whisky would transfer a good man in an hour into a monkey. The speaker said that she supposed Scranton whisky would do the same thing. There was some good singing by the Young Men's Christian association quartette.

LECTURE AT EXCELSIOR CLUB.

A Wilkes-Barrean, Telle of Whittier's Relation to American History. Most of the representative Hebrews of this city and a number from Pittston and Wilkes-Barre were at the Excelsior Club's rooms yesterday afternoon to hear S. J. Strassman's lecture on "The Relation of John G. Whittier to American History." The theme of the speaker was unique and in substance was as follows: The subject is considered entirely in relation to the poet's influence upon the statesman of his time; it bore particularly upon the emancipation and independence of the States. When the states were constituted the opinion that slavery was wrong had but few followers, so the constitution was adopted as a compromise. Whittier in writing on this subject seems to have followed a logical plan. It was his poems which first taught the American people that the negro was a man and a chattel, he also pictured the horrors of the slave trade and created a sentiment against it; he severely dealt with the statesmen of the time and in "Ichabod" held up for public contempt Daniel Webster, because of his favoring the repeal of Missouri compromise. Whittier reached the heart and sympathies of the American people through school children who carried his poems into thousands of homes, and he saw what few men live to see—their ideas realized.

WONDERLAND'S PLAYERS RETURN.

Hidden Hand and the Two Orphans Will Appear This Week. The patrons of Wonderland will be pleased to welcome the return of its stock company. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be presented "Hidden Hand," a melodrama of the most popular type. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday "The Two Orphans," Kate Claxton's famous play will be produced with a stronger cast and in a more elaborate manner than when it was first presented at Wonderland. Matinees will be given each afternoon, excepting Monday and Thursday. The titles alone of the two plays ought to insure a hearty response from the admirers of the stock company, which has won for itself a reputation not exceeded by any company preceding it.

HOYT'S BRASS MONKEY.

George Marion and Company Please a Large Audience. Hoyt's well known farce, "A Brass Monkey," was produced at the Academy of Music on Saturday evening by a good company, headed by George Marion. The play had been seen in Scranton on a number of previous occasions, but the audience enjoyed its humor as though it was fresh from the pen of playwright Hoyt. Mr. Marion was a favorite, and when he sang and recited his famous Italian story of George Washington. In the second act, the applause that followed was simply deafening. There were several persons in the company whose services could well be dispensed with, but the organization as a whole was very good.

to the limit of their capacity become annoying and troublesome to the neighbors. Yesterday the patience of the other residents gave out and a message was sent to the hotel to have the place raided. Bugino is applying for a license at the present term of court, and intends to run a hotel on the premises. The citizens will expect him to observe the laws hereafter or he will be forced to close up his stand.

WON THE FIRST PRIZE.

Annie Durkin, of Brook street, a daughter of John Durkin, has added another laurel to the musical reputation of this side. She carried off the honors with ease at the old-fashioned Wilkes-Barre on St. Patrick's day in the competition also to have the place raided. Bugino is applying for a license at the present term of court, and intends to run a hotel on the premises. The citizens will expect him to observe the laws hereafter or he will be forced to close up his stand.

SHORT NEWS NOTES.

Thomas Moran, of Duryea, visited friends on Stone avenue yesterday. William Sloss, of River street, has been sick at his home for the past week.

Don't forget Jenkins & Morris' Easter military opening, Wednesday, March 21, 406 Spruce street.

Music Boxes Exclusively. Best made. Play any desired number of tunes. Gantech & Sons, manufacturers, 330 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. Wonderful orchestral organs, only $5 and $10. Specialty: Old music boxes carefully repaired and improved with new tunes.

Jenkins & Morris will have the greatest showing of fashionable military in the city on their opening day, Wednesday, at 406 Spruce street. McBride's new Turkish bath. Everything new, 506 Spruce street, opposite Court House.

HOUSEKEEPERS, ATTENTION

CARVING SETS, KNIVES, FORKS, SPOONS, DINNER SETS, TOILET SETS, LAMPS, SILVERWARE, &c. Largest and Best Line in the city.

CHINA HALL WEICHEL & MILLAR 116 Wyoming Avenue.

THE GENUINE New Haven "MATHUSACK" PIANOS ESTAB. 1866. New York warehouses No. 29 Fifth Avenue. E. C. RICKER & CO. Sole Dealers in this section Office 112 Adams street.

SCIENTIFIC EYE TESTING FREE

By Dr. Shimberg, The Specialist on the Eye, Headache and Nervousness relieved. Latest and Improved Style of Eye Glasses and Spectacles at the Lowest Prices. Best Artificial Eyes inserted for $5. 305 SPRUCE ST., op. Post Office.

UNION FOR EVER

WE ARE NOW OFFERING THE FINEST LINE OF BICYCLES AND TRICYCLES FOR MEN AND BOYS IN THE CITY. WE ARE SOLE AGENTS FOR THE LEADERS.

UNION Q. T. ROCHESTER and PREMIER HELICAL Florey & Holt Sole Agent, 205 Lackawanna Ave. Y. M. C. A. Block.

BELOW COST.

Going through our stock we made a careful selection of

300 CHILDREN'S BRAND NEW SUITS

To close out these odd lot we will sacrifice them,

Our Bargain Counters Filled with Surprises.

Martin & Delany

Coal Exchange, Wyoming Avenue.

SPRING... Styles of HATS Have arrived. Best quality and lowest prices. COLLINS & HACKETT 220 Lacka. Avenue.

Easter Opening OF Capes, Jackets AND Wraps

For the Spring and Summer of '94. Stock Large and Attractive. Prices the Lowest on Record. VISIT US, BUY OR NOT.

G. W. OWENS & Co. 508 COURT HOUSE SQUARE

SHOES HOW LIKE A MAN HE FEELS

Special for This Coming Week. Ladies' Kid Button, pointed and Philadelphia toes, patent leather tips; special price, $2.50; worth, 3.50. Ladies' Dongola Kid Button, hand sewed, special price, $2; worth $4.50. Misses' Kid Button, plain toes, spring heel, special price, $1.50; worth $2.00. Boys' School Shoes, Dongola top, sizes 24 to 34, special price, $1.50; worth $2.00. Men's Calf Patent Leather Lace, pointed toes, special price, $3.00; worth $4.00. Men's Calf Bluecher, hand sewed with tip, recently last, special price, $2.80; worth $3.50. Little Boys' Shoes, button and lace, spring heel, made "just like papa's," sizes 5 to 104, special price, $1.50; worth $2.00. Youths' Calf, button and lace, spring heels, Goodwear soles, sizes 11 to 21, special price, $2; worth $2.50.

SCHANK'S Arrade Shoe Store. WYOMING AVE.

THE CELEBRATED SOHMER PIANOS

Are at Present the Most Popular and Preferred by Warehouses: Opposite Columbus Monument, 205 Washington Av. Scranton, Pa. TRIBUNE BOOK COUPON. FOUR of these COUPONS, presented at The Tribune Office, corner Penn avenue and Spruce street, entitles the holder to all the privileges of the unparalleled offer for distributing popular books among our readers. The offers made by The Tribune management are as follows: 15 CENTS and Four Coupons for any volume in the Columbus Series. Over 100 titles to select from. 20 CENTS and Four Coupons for any book in the Rugby Series. 25 CENTS and Four Coupons for any book in the Oxford Series.