THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE.

SCRANTON, MARCH 21, 1894.

THERE is something radically wrong in laws that allow the unscrupulous man owning a few feet of land to ruin the property of his neighbor by the erection of unsightly architectural nightmares.

SOUND AMERICANISM.

In a sermon delivered on St. Patrick's Day in St. Paul's cathedral Archbishop Ireland uttered some sentiments that will set every right-thinking American to applauding.

WE NEED A CAZAR.

There are times when one longs for the impetuosity of an emperor or a czar. General laws can fit only the common run of particular cases.

PECULIAR JUSTICE.

The plans for the new Hotel Jermyr, to be erected upon the corner of Wyoming avenue and Spruce street, call for a bay window four feet wide.

THE MILK COMBINE.

There was much complaint last year at the quality of milk sold to Scrantonians by some local dealers. Not a little of that milk gave plain evidence of having been adulterated.

FALSE CHARITY.

Upon a number of occasions THE TRIBUNE has found good reason to compliment Mayor Nichols of Wilkes-Barre upon his fearlessness in performing disagreeable official duties without favoritism or partiality.

NOTHING TO FEAR.

In a county whose constables, during three months of vigilant inquiry, can find no traces of real or attempted violation of the liquor laws, one is prepared to hear that this year's crop of licenses exceeds by sixty the harvest of one year ago.

THE ONE SUPREME DUTY.

Machine politics—bessien—exist through crime and murder and is the derelict resort of the professional criminals who belong to the time of the black and white.

trash that finds its habitual way into the mayor's court or alderman's office, he should be prepared to bear all the odium of his chosen associations, and screening him ought to be the last thing for any official to think of doing.

REPRESENTATIVE HATCH IS SAID TO BE HOPEFUL OF GETTING HIS ANTI OPTION BILL PASSED THIS SESSION.

Under a recent order of the court, the printing of the list of applications for license in this county was awarded to the Republican and the Times.

NO SENT, REDUCED FARE.

The strap passengers are a good passenger, but he isn't a multi-millionaire.

the reward that our honorable judges design to administer to faithful servants whose returns are messages of surpassing calm?

Luckily, the labor of these lynx-eyed minions of justice can stand a most searching investigation.

ham and Gravesand, is the duty of the hour. All other reforms are secondary to this, for without this reform first no other can be accomplished.

Truly a Great Country.

The total number of manufacturing establishments in the United States in 1890 was 325,401, against 228,812 in 1880.

Where the Buses Stand.

The constitution of the United States guarantees to every qualified citizen the right to deposit a free ballot.

The Original Vaccinator-Cotter.

It is not strictly accurate to speak of the seizure bill as Mr. Dians's bill.

The View of All Orderly Persons.

The lynching of the negro Puryear in Monroe county was even more atrocious than the crime for which he was put to death.
