Mr. Wightman states that the electric railroad enterprise has been received with enthusiasm by residents of the New York City and that the opening of the new line will be a real let-off with the city and general rejoicing.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"The Old Homestead" moving story will be held at the Academy of Music tonight. It is a simple story—so simple that a child may understand it, and a few words suffice to explain the compass and outline of the plot—but there have been few contributions to stage literature during the present generation which stand out in as significant a light. It won't become a classic, but its influence on contemporary playwrights, editors, and reviewers in pointing a way for future successful achievement, is a very notable one.

THE NIGHT OWLS.

The latest novel craze from the Columbia Exposition, the Pleasure Dancers will be seen at the Academy of Music on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, in connection with the "Night Owls" beauty show, a high class burlesque and vaudeville entertainment. The company comes with the endorsement of the press, and ever it has been seen, and therefore a good performance of this kind of entertainment may be expected. Two burlesques will be given, "Society Gravel" and "Lively Reception to Uncle Sam." The olio contains the names of many clever people, and new and novel songs, and Professor MacCall's trained boxing dogs and monkeys are a very laughable feature.

PAULINE HALL THURSDAY NIGHT.

One of the pleasing events in operatic circles in this city is the presentation of Pauline Hall in the "Princess of Trebizond," which will be presented at the Academy of Music Thursday evening.

Dainty costumes and with an accomplished company including John Ramsey, Alf Wieston, Eva Davenport, Julie Ring and Josephine Knapp will make the rendition exceedingly attractive. The sale of seats will open at the Academy box office Tuesday morning at 9 a. m.

WOODLAND THEATRE.

This ought to be a big week at New Woodland theatre. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday a dramatization of Washington Irving's legendary story, "Rip Van Winkle," will be presented by the talented company. Mr. Davis has secured, and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday Fenimore Cooper's woodland romance, "Nick of the Woods," will be the attraction. These two superb plays will be attractively rendered and are bound to be received with great popularity. Do not miss seeing them both.

LIQUOR LICENSES TAKEN OUT.

The Revenue Derived from This Source Foots Up $145,000.

This is the last day on which applicants for liquor licenses for new houses can take them out, and Saturday ended the period allotted to those who were granted licenses for old houses. Consequently County Treasurer Powell was kept busy the last day of the week.

A few of the successful applicants did not take out their licenses, but most of them came around with the money. The receipts up to the present time foot up $145,000, of which $21,000 was paid in on Saturday.

Wanted—Young Men and Women Out of Employment.

We have had a good year. To meet the demands of the school extra teachers were employed—they are with us now. Over 100 young men and women are out of employment in Scranton. This spring and summer we propose to take these young people in our school on any terms.

The demand for people is not great in any line, but count up the people who do serious work in all the offices, stores, banks and manufacturing, and see what an array of book-keepers, stenographers and clerks are employed. These persons are the business men of tomorrow.

Hundreds of your friends have been at the college and hundreds have succeeded. The faithful ones win; the inattentive fail. Take these next few months and learn book-keeping or stenography, keep up in grammar, spelling, arithmetic; keep your eye on penmanship, get a good knowledge of notes, drafts, checks; know something of commercial law, and wind up with the ordinary practice.

You have the time come in and see us. WOOD'S COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND SHORTHAND.

F. E. Wood, Proprietor.

DIED OF HEART DISEASE

Mrs. Elizabeth James Expired Yesterday—Confirmation Services. Mrs. Cecelia Durkin Buried—Three Children Die and Many Are Sick of the Prevailing Epidemic—Other Hyde Park News.

(The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 140 Jackson street, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.)

Mrs. Elizabeth James, widow of the late Daniel S. James, died at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She suffered from an attack of pneumonia and endured great pain until death came to her relief. Mrs. James was born in South Wales about sixty years ago, and emigrated to this country with her husband, who died twenty-four years ago. She lived for twenty-four years in the house in which she died. Mrs. James was a woman of sterling integrity and worth, and leaves behind her a multitude of friends who mourn her loss. She is survived by three children, namely: Mrs. John Davis, Seminary James, of Providence, and Mrs. James George, of Avoca. She was a devout Christian and a member of the First Welsh Baptist church. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon. Services will be conducted by Rev. W. S. Jones at the residence in Washburn street cemetery.

Confirmation services were conducted in St. David's Episcopal church yesterday afternoon. Rev. Bishop R. H. R. Bishop of Central Pennsylvania. The exercises opened with the evening prayer service by the rector, after which William Conley, lay reader of the parish, read the lesson of the day. A most excellent sermon was delivered by the bishop, and the rites of confirmation were bestowed on the following: Misses Amy Howell, Lillian Konowd, Gertrude Miller, Marie Lewis, Sarah Davis, Etta Davis, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. J. Lewis and Victor Williams, Harry Sprouts, Will Davis, Luther Thomas and Edward Thomas.
