ARCHBOLD PENCILINGS. Notes of Current Interests Compiled by a Graceful Writer.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. ARCHBOLD, Pa., April 5.—The suspense as to the postmaster-ship of this place was ended yesterday when James O'Rourke was appointed by the authorities at Washington. Aside from the brief announcement in the papers this morning there has been little information learned since. Mr. O'Rourke's appointment is a reward for faithful service to the Democratic party and since he merits it everyone should be satisfied. The retiring postmaster, Mr. T. P. Congrove, was a competent and careful official and gave the people very good service. There is no doubt whatever but that the same satisfaction will be given by Mr. O'Rourke.

Hood's Never Fails A Business Man's Experience—Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. T. W. Haus.

A well known business man in Pittsburg, Pa., writes the letter given below. Mr. Haus is general agent for the Maine granite quarries and contractor for cemetery and building work, having an office at No. 708 Penn Avenue.

"I had a very high opinion of both Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills at our house and with good reason. I have taken almost every remedy known for rheumatism, and feel justified in saying that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only one that does me any good. I must admit I have not taken it steadily, but only when the pains of rheumatism came on. Hood's Sarsaparilla
