The town council will meet next Monday evening.

The stove works have suspanded op-erations until Monday next owing to a treak in the machinery "The Convict's Daughter" was produced at Music Hall last evening by the Adams company before an appre-ciative andience. It is but justice to say for the company that it is a shame their efforts are not appreciated as they should be. The company will close their week's engagement this evening. C. B. Smith has taken a position as correspondent for the Wilkes-Barre Record from this place. He will begin his duties in a few days.

The flag present ation exercises were earried out as per programme printed yesterday with a slight additional number of spee hes. They were made by Revs. N. G. Parke and H. Eckel, who responded at the request of Professor Steckler. After the presentation of the flig a "colored guard" numbering ten boys selected from the school were detailed to unfurl it to the breeze. This they did, capping the climax with three hurrals and a tiger. The singing was pronounced superb and was greatly appreciated.

John F. Langan and family left yes-terday for Wood River, Neb., where they will embark in the hotel business A large number of young friends "surprised" Miss Nettie Cleiland at the home of her sister on Oregon Heights last evening. The eleventh district justitute, comorising the boroughs of Avoca, Hughes-own, Pittston, Exeter, Duryes, West Pittston and the townships of Exeter, Jenkins, Marcy and Pittston, will be held on the 28th instant. It is not known at the present time where the institute will be held, but the belief is it will be either Avoca or Pittston. Among those who are expected to be present from out of town are State Superintendent N. C. Schaeffer, Professors Caughlin, Harrison and several other persons notable on Educational Cards have been issued announcing the coming marriage of Thomas Dickson Wylie, bookkeeper for the Pittston Stove company, and Miss Mand Sharkey, of Philadelphis, formerly of this place. The marriage will take place at the home of Miss Sharkey's sister, Mrs. Charles M. Compton, in
