SOLDIER BOYS' INSPECTION.

Companies C and H Pass a Critical Inspection with Credit.

Companies C and H, Ninth regiment, National Guards of Pennsylvania, located at this place, were inspected Saturday evening by R. F. Inspector Ridgway Wright and staff.

Company H was inspected in the Keystone Hall while Company C was inspected in Army Hall. Large delegations of friends gathered at each place to see the interesting sight and they were well repaid, for "the boys" never looked better. Their accomplishments show like bright new dollars and their guns were that smooth a fly would break it's neck were to light upon it. Company H showed up with a full company as did Company C also. Captains Flower and Callahan put the boys through the manual and marching evolutions with a vim and snap only to find a response from the boys in execution equal to their past record.

At the conclusion of the inspection, Inspector Wright expressed himself as well pleased with inspection. Inspector Wright was accompanied by staff officers Major C. Bowman Dugherty, Major Broadhead, Major Coombes, Quartermaster E. G. Mercier, Sergeant Major Kenny and Corporal Potts.

THE EARLIER symptoms of dyspepsia, such as distress after eating, heartburn and occasional headaches, should not be neglected. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla if you wish to be cured.

GATHERED HERE AND THERE.

The Events of a Day Recorded in Brief Paragraphs.

The appeal for a new trial in the case of James McLaughlin, convicted of manslaughter at the last term of court, will come up for a hearing before the supreme court at Philadelphia.

The town council will hold a special meeting this evening to pass upon current business.

Charles Richmond, aged 15 years, son of James Richmond, of Butler street, met with a painful accident while at work in No. 10 shaft of Pennsylvania Coal company Saturday morning by a runaway car jumping the track and passing over his right foot. His injuries while painful are not serious.

Fabian Coonsack, aged 35 years, was admitted to the hospital Friday suffering from what is known as Colic's fracture. Coonsack was injured while at work on the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern railroad in the vicinity of Yatesville.

The Presbyterian Sunday school orchestra delighted the inmates of the hospital yesterday afternoon with some choice instrumental music.

The diagram for Dr. Clark's lecture, "A Trip Around the World," to be given in Kerstone hall on Monday, April 16, will be opened at Ruggles & Manning's book store this morning at 9 o'clock. If the attendance is large checks will be distributed at 3 o'clock.

There will be a meeting of all the pastors of Pittston and West Pittston who are interested in the Mooly campaign, in the Young Men's Christian Association rooms this morning at 11 o'clock. Each pastor is requested to be prepared to name a business man who will represent his church on a business men's committee, the work of the committee being to have the oversight of the work in Pittston and to co-operate with similar committees in other parts of the valleys.

Treasurer Watson reports the following recent contributions to the Hospital: A. Friend, $10; Water Street Baptist Sunday School, $10; John B. Laver, $10; S. P. Penn, $10; Taco Hart, $10; John A. Collier, $10; W. L. Watson, $10; T. B. Lance, $10; Margaret O'Brien, $10; Valley Lodge, No. 49, F. & A. M., $50.

The Blessed Virgin sodality, of St. John's church, will, on the evening of April 23, give a literary and musical entertainment. The society contains some very bright young ladies and the entertainment will undoubtedly be a rare treat.

The grand jury on Saturday returned a bill indicting the case of Anna Pflugston vs. Law Downing, of West Pittston. This virtually is a clear vindication of whatever stigma was placed upon Mr. Downing, by the prosecutrix and his friends are correspondingly happy.

The bans of marriage of six couples were announced in St. John's church at the late mass yesterday.

An anniversary mass will be celebrated in St. John's church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock for the benefit of the late James Gilmartin.

Those were forcible arguments used by our townsman before the grand jury against the building of a new court house, but the jury, hypnotized as they were by the promoters, could do nothing more than carry out the dictates of "the powers that be." Such is political jugglery.

A WRECK

of the physical constitution often comes from unnatural, pernicious habits, contracted through ignorance or from excess.

Such habits result in loss of manly power, nervous exhaustion, impaired memory, low spirits, irritable temper, and a thousand and one derangements of mind and body. Epilepsy, paralysis, softening of the brain, and even dread insanity sometimes result from such reckless self-abuse.

To reach, reclaim and restore such unfortunate to health and happiness, is the aim of this interesting book written in plain but choice language, on the nature, symptoms and curability, by home treatment, of such diseases. This book will be sent sealed, in plain envelope, on receipt of ten cents in stamps to pay postage.
