Miss Alice Griffiths, cashier at J. D. Williams & Bros', Lackawanna avenue store, entertained a small company of young friends very pleasantly last evening at her home on Washington avenue, the occasion being the twentieth anniversary of her birthday. Several hours were happily passed by the guests with instrumental music and games, and in the enjoyment of an elegant collation. The following were present: The Misses Kays and Emma Griffiths and Ida Davis, of Stroudsburg; the Brink, of Carbondale; Frank Welsh, of Nicholson; Peter Decker, of Stroudsburg; Talbo Evans, of Pittston; Wil. John, Samuel and Arch. McCracken, Ben Evans, J. Baker, Alva Stewart, Walter Jones, Frank Mayo, John Clark, Bert Banning, Misses Margaret Evans, Jessie and Minnie Thomas, Ails Bodie, Hattie Brock, Frons Crowle, Eva Sweet, Marie Burlington.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE
Pleasure Rides Supreme at the Neptune Banquet Last Night.
WELL KNOWN PERSONS PRESENT
Nearly All of the City and County Officials Graced the Occasion. With Their Presence—Judge R. W. Archibald Was Toastmaster of the Evening—Other News of the South Side Briefly Told.
Neptune Entertainment, No. 2 was last evening held at the Neptune, a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Central Republican club was held at its new rooms in the Price building last evening at which E. P. Kingsbury presided. Six new members were proposed for membership. There are now 329 members on the roll. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, E. P. Kingsbury; vice-president, Major Everett Warren; secretary, W. S. Miller; treasurer, W. G. Yerdell. The following chairman of committees were appointed: Finance, E. P. Kingsbury; membership, Major Everett Warren; house committee, W. S. Miller; L. A. Waiter, a Philadelphia commercial traveler, who registered at the Westminster last Thursday, was found yesterday morning suffring from the effects of carbolic acid. Doctors O'Malley and Longstreet attended him and he is now pronounced out of danger.
Mr. Lewis obtained the poison Sunday from a drug store. Later in the day he drank intoxicants to some extent but was able to get to bed alone.
At 6 o'clock yesterday morning, a half boy heard groans issuing from the room and receiving no response was told to climb over the transom. This was done and unsuccessful efforts made to rouse Lewis, who appeared to be in a stupor.
Proprietor Truman dispatched a messenger for Dr. O'Malley and Longstreet. The former responded and, not suspecting carbolic poisoning, administered a heart stimulant. Some minutes later the odor of carbolic acid was detected and Dr. O'Malley administered proper antidotes. The man's recovery seemed for a time hopeless, but he began to mend during the morning and last night was thought to be out of danger.
When Lewis recovered consciousness he averred that he had mistaken the poison for whiskey. However, the circumstances would seem to indicate that the poison was taken intentionally. It is safe to say that a better attraction for the price of admittance was never seen in Scranton.
John Downie as Uncle Tom and Little Eva Sinclair as Eva, filled their parts admirably, as did Bessie Doyle to the standard in the role of Marrie the lawyer, who Miss Maria Downie as Long, the child that was nearer, was simply irresistible. R. A. Fisk as Phineas Fletcher was good, as was also the balance of the cast. The singing of the Puckaninies was greatly enjoyed by the large audience, and the performance on the whole proved most pleasing.

NEWS FROM WEST SIDE
Banquet of Hyde Park Literary and Debating Society at Fairchild's Hotel.
IT WAS A BRILLIANT AFFAIR
John R. Edwards Was Toastmaster, and a Number of Toasts Were Responded To by the Young Men in a Very Able Manner—Stereopticon Lecture—Funeral of Mrs. Margaret Samuel—Other News Items.
The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 1040 Jackson street, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.
The initial banquet of the Hyde Park Literary and Debating society was held last evening in Fairchild's hotel. Those present were: John R. Edwards, toastmaster; William G. Davis, Howard Davis, Emerson Green, W. Hayden Evans, Arthur L. Davies, Philip J. Davies, James M. Powell, Charles Hones, J. Myron Evans, A. L. Davies, Herbert Hall, John Hughes, D. J. Davies, Louis Howell, Gwilym A. Williams, of the Republic; Charles E. Daniels, of the Truth, and George T. Griffith, of THE TRIBUNE. Proprietor Hughes served an excellent menu. About two hours was consumed in discussing the edibles and then the literary portion of the programme opened with an address by the president, Philip J. Davies, after which Howard Davis responded to the toast, "The Society." David J. Davies spoke on "Our City" in elegant words, and Charles E. Hones, in a humorous way, gallantly discussed "Our Parliamentary Gymnastics." William Moser, the champion debater of the society, spoke of the "American Citizen," defining the words carefully, and Charles E. Daniels followed with a response to the toast, "The Renaissance of American Literature." A ninth proving response to the toast, "The Stage," was given by Myron Evans, and political affairs were well discussed in the toast of W. Hayden Evans.
The News Condensed.
A stereopticon lecture was given last evening in the First Welsh Congregational church under the auspices of the Junior society. A fair sized audience was present and the lecture thoroughly enjoyed. An interesting programme was rendered, including impersonations by D. Edward Vail, the humorist.
Charles Palmer, of Kingston, has returned home after a visit with relatives on North Main avenue.
The funeral of Margaret, wife of David Samuel, of Bellevue street, took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence. Rev. J. T. Morris, pastor of the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, conducted the services, after which interment was made at the Washburn Street cemetery.
The pall bearers were Morgan James, Lewis Roberts, Edward James, Frank Lewis, William Lewis, and William O. Williams, of Kingston.
George Mayers, of North Bromley avenue, has begun his duties as permanent man at the Columbia hose house.
Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Eldridge, of Brooklyn, Susquehanna county, was visiting friends here this side yesterday.
Mrs. D. R. Williams, of South Hyde Park avenue, left yesterday, accompanied by her daughter Annie, for Mt. Carmel, where Mrs. Williams will represent the Plymouth church and Sunday school at a Congregational convention in session at that place.
The West Side board of trade will meet in regular session at Clark's hall this evening at 8 o'clock. The nomination of officers for the ensuing year will be made, the election to take place next month.
The West Side Woman's Christian Temperance union will meet at 230 this afternoon at the Welsh Literary room on South Main avenue.

Scranton's Business Interests.
THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographs showing our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract attention wherever it is seen. An equal advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to the concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon various business houses and explain its nature more fully.
Scranton's business interests of their residences in this edition will please I have notice at the office.

NE DRINK CARBOLIC ACID.
W. O. Lewis, a Philadelphia Commercial Traveler, Makes a Curious Mistake—Was Suicide Intended?
W. O. Lewis, a Philadelphia commercial traveler, who registered at the Westminster last Thursday, was found yesterday morning suffring from the effects of carbolic acid. Doctors O'Malley and Longstreet attended him and he is now pronounced out of danger.
Mr. Lewis obtained the poison Sunday from a drug store. Later in the day he drank intoxicants to some extent but was able to get to bed alone.
At 6 o'clock yesterday morning, a half boy heard groans issuing from the room and receiving no response was told to climb over the transom. This was done and unsuccessful efforts made to rouse Lewis, who appeared to be in a stupor.

When Lewis recovered consciousness he averred that he had mistaken the poison for whiskey. However, the circumstances would seem to indicate that the poison was taken intentionally. It is safe to say that a better attraction for the price of admittance was never seen in Scranton.
John Downie as Uncle Tom and Little Eva Sinclair as Eva, filled their parts admirably, as did Bessie Doyle to the standard in the role of Marrie the lawyer, who Miss Maria Downie as Long, the child that was nearer, was simply irresistible. R. A. Fisk as Phineas Fletcher was good, as was also the balance of the cast. The singing of the Puckaninies was greatly enjoyed by the large audience, and the performance on the whole proved most pleasing.

AT NEW WONDERLAND.
Uncle Tom's Cabin Presented Before a Large Audience Last Night.
"Uncle Tom's Cabin" was presented before a crowded house at New Wonderland last evening by Andrew McPhee's well known company, an aggregation of superior actors. From first to last the play was well received, and it is safe to say that a better attraction for the price of admittance was never seen in Scranton.
John Downie as Uncle Tom and Little Eva Sinclair as Eva, filled their parts admirably, as did Bessie Doyle to the standard in the role of Marrie the lawyer, who Miss Maria Downie as Long, the child that was nearer, was simply irresistible. BASE BALL BRIEFS.
Pottsville claims to have signed Second Baseman John Tully, of this city.
George Wood, of last year's Wilkes-Barre team, has been signed by Manager Kelly for Allentown.
Hartman, of last season's Johnstown team, was given a trial by the Philadelphia phias last Saturday.
Secretary Diddelbock has 300 applicants for the position of umpire. Some of the applicants live in California.
George Basting, who pitched for Allentown part of last season, has been signed by Syracuse, of the Eastern League.
Allentown has less traveling to do than any other club in the State League. Allentown must do most, with Scranton a close second.
The Philadelphia Inquirer is of the opinion that "no paper" in the Scranton team is the strongest in the league. We hope it will prove strong on the field.
Scranton should have a strong base running team this season. Hogan, Smith, Westlake and Wegel are a quartette of base runners that have no superiors in the league.
Lennon, one of the best pitchers and the funniest man in last year's State League, will pitch for Pottsville. Lennon is in the outfit for Johnstown last season and did good work.
Scranton's new grounds will be opened next week with a game between Scranton and Murray Hills, a New York club with which Tommy Esterbrook, formerly of the old Metropolitan club, is playing.
The league season opens here on May 2 with a game with Hazleton. On Wednesday Scranton plays at Indian in the morning. In the afternoon the club will play in Hazleton.
Four of the players of the Democrat base ball team, of Wintonport, Hancock, Delany, R. and Patena, have decided to leave and join other clubs. Manager as to Wilkes-Barre, Scranton, Huntington, Rose to Allentown and Pottsville to Scranton.
A fellow that is the latest. It is made of regulation wood and is made placed two or three heavy iron balls, which slide back and forth in the stick. When a man goes to the back he looks at the stick, and the ball rest near his hands, but when he strikes at the ball the weightily outward by centrififical force, and makes the spurs at the right place. It is a horse-hoof squarely it is good-by ball. It is claimed that the new bat is only about half as heavy as the old style, and that light-weight batters can handle it as well as the big one.

THE DUDE IS DEAD
Young men have ceased to be howling swells. They can't afford it these poor times. That's partly why so many quietly dressed young men about town buy their Spring Footwear at Schank's. They know he deals only in the very latest and best. They know his stock is large, but never loud, and they know his PRICES ARE DOWN TO FIT THE TIMES.
This Means You
By the way, why not buy at Schank's ELEGANT NEW SPRING AND SUMMER DESIGNS? There's no change for losing. When you buy you pay. The chances are you'll buy.

20 CENTS and Four Coupons for any book in the Eddy Series.
25 CENTS and Four Coupons for any book in the Oxford Series.

SCHOOL IS ENTIRELY SAFE.
Officials Re-Report to Board of Control Regarding No. 25.
City Superintendent Phillips, the board of control building committee and Building Inspector Nelson yesterday visited No. 25 school building and had a night's meeting. The report stated that the building is perfectly safe. Mr. Nelson stated that while the structure is slightly damaged, yet its strength remained unimpaired.
Both the building committee and Inspector Nelson made reports of their examinations to the school board last night's meeting. The report stated that the building is perfectly safe. Mr. Nelson stated that while the structure is slightly damaged, yet its strength remained unimpaired.

KILL TWO BIRDS WITH ONE STONE
If you want to combine comfort with elegance look at SCHANK'S SPRING STOCK OF SHOES. There's the EMPRESS, for instance. What's next in cost or class? The lady that wears it is like a lady. And thinking that way, the chances are you'll not believe. Good clothes and good shoes make good deals easy and natural.

PERSONAL MENTION.
John Flaherty, the Coery street barber, and Patrick H. Coyne, book-keeper at the office of the Scranton Evening company, visited yesterday in Pittston.
Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Margaret Whelan, of G-net street, and William J. Burns, of Pittston avenue. The ceremony will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in St. John's Church.
A school-son of Jacob Bonner, of Prospect avenue, is very seriously ill of inflammation of the lungs.
Morgan Jones resumed his duties as clerk in the Meadow Brook store yesterday after being confined to his home for a long spell with a sprained ankle.
John McDonough, of 1735 Cedar avenue, is entirely recovered from his recent illness.
Shorter Paragraphs.
John Mikalka, of South Washington avenue, a Lithuanian aged about 40 years, died Sunday afternoon from a severe illness of peritonitis. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Minoaka cemetery.
The carnival at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian association on Cedar avenue last night was thoroughly enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience. upward of fifty children of the junior department took part in the entertainment and looked bewitchingly pretty in dresses made of tissue paper of variegated shades and tints. The affair was financially a success.
A telegram has been received from Chicago by Mrs. Bridget Flynn, of Minoaka, to the effect that her son James, of that city, who left here six months ago, fell from the fourth story of a building in course of erection and was seriously injured.
The marriage of Miss Annie Murray, of Stone avenue, and James Manzoni, of Prospect avenue, will be solemnized this afternoon in St. John's church.
