NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE FOR

Michael Egan, Ball Player, Missing from Home for Two Weeks.

THERE IS FEAR OF FOUL PLAY

He Left Home on April 2 and Has Not Been Heard from Since-John Mc-Grath III in Philadelphia-Funeral of Michael Whelan's Daughter-Personal Mention and Shorter Paragraphs of News.

Michael Egan, aged about 30 years, well known as an amateur base ball player, lived until two weeks ago with his wife and family on the lower Flats. His occupation was that of miner in the Oxford colliery. Owing to the dull times he was not able to earn competent wages lately and became melancholic and very much depressed. On April 2 he told his wife that there was a probability of his getting an engagement on the Hazleton Base Ball team of the State league; and he left home that morning teiting ner not to expect him back that night, and to an-ticipate a letter from him in a few

The same evening, however, he came home and stayed a half hour. When he went out again he left no information concerning his intentions, but to some acquaintance he said that he heard a good account of the times around the docks in Buffalo, and de-termined to leave for that city.

Since late that night he has not been seen. His wife is extremely anxious about him, and believes that if he were alive something would be heard from him before this. It is feared that he met foul play or was drowned in the John McGrath, son of Foreman Henry McGrath, of South Washington ave-nue, lies critically ill at the hospital of the University of Ponnsylvania in Philadelphia. He is taking a course in medicine at the university, and became sick a short time ago. His ailment gradually assumed an alarming condition, and his father was notified to visit him immediately. Wednesday Mr. McGrath, accompanied by Dr. Hag-garty, left for Philadelphia. Drs. Pepper and White were called in consultation and decided that an operation was necessary to save the young man's life, but that he was too weak to undergo it then. However, they have no fear that death will result.
