It involves an awful responsibility in how to direct and guide these young workers. They can become law-makers, messionaries or ornaments, if so trained. The relation the League bears to the University at Washington is in the earth-lishment of a fund of $500,000, of which $150,000 is for a building to be named in its honor and $300,000 for establishing professor, lecture and scholarships.

Rev. J. O. Peck, D. D., of New York, corresponding secretary of the Mission-

A SHOT AT DR. TALMAGE

Rev. Dr. Peck said: You will hardly believe me, but I moulded this Eim Park church into a cartridge, placed it late a rifle and fired it at Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage. He made the samouncement from his pulpit, that the Brooklyn Tabernacle had never been approached in its effort to build three churches. Through the Brooklyn nagle I refuted this by saying that you had exrefuted this by saying that you had ex-pended $400,000 on two churches within two years, and emerged from the debris free of debt.

This conference deficit of missionary collections could have been prevented; the decrease in the total monies for the society, which confronted us with an II

A Scranton business maninainated that A Scratton business man insunated that it costs us 50 per cont. to place our benefits in foreign lands. This leads me to tell you something of the administration of the society. The $,250,000 of yearly collections don't cost us a cent to collect. There is not a banking house in the world whose themcals standing is superior to that of the specials.

We used to buy over drafts of such banking houses as that of the Barrings and Brown Brothers. Now we have our own system of drafts, made possible by our solvency, which are honored the world over, and not one deliar of thirty million has ever gone to protest. Our economy of management is not equalled by any business concern in this valley. On Dec. 3: last a recapitulation of our affairs showed the cost of handling each dollar for the year, including all expenses of salary and office to be betted.

ENEMIES OF THE CHURCH.

People who crouch to Christ at the Sacrement and beiray Him at the crontribution box are indeed traitors. Of the enemies of the church, God says,
"they shall lick the dash." They crawl

General Conference Is Defented.

After consecration services Saturday moraing conducted by Dr. J. W. Webb, of Wilkes Barre, conforence was reguof Wilkes Darre, containing was regularly convened and these ministers much on Monday evening at 7.37 were named as having been pursuing evelock. Business of importance will freely among all, and individually unite in the power of good resolve.

Bishop Hurst said:

In this conference, particularly, is the Epworth Leaguest type of the church and it is more apparent here than elsewhere.

The secretary's report shows how remarks. A. Green. An able address by Dr. Morrow was followed by one from Rev. Dr. Payne, secretary of the board of education, detailing progress in educational work. Secretary H. C. Mc Dermott read a summary of the liftieth annual report of the trustees of Wyoming seminary. Dr. Payne elequently explained the seminary's good work.

At this point William Connell, speaking for the trustees of the Preacher's Aid society, nominated Dr. A. A. Griffin as agent for that society, and said that while the society already had $20, 600 at its command, he hoped it would soon have $100,000. Dr. Griffin, upon motion of Dr. Hard, was unanimonsly elected agent, and in his speech of acceptance paid a high tribute to Mr.

Connell, and other generous belpers. Conference then took up the ques tion of changing the representation of delegates to the general conference. Heretofore the ratio has been 1 to 14 of the clergy and I to 45 of the laity. was proposed to equalize these ratios. Speeches in the affirmative were made by Rev. Dr. Boyle, Rev. Mr. Faulkner, Dr. Griffin, Rov. W. L. Thorpe, Rov. Dr. McAsuity, Rov. Dr. Hard and others; and in the negative by Rev. J. G. Eckman and Rev. Mr. Len cock. Tue vote of the confer ence stood 103 sgainst the change in favor of proposition to increase the ratio of representation, one for every forty-five members and not less than two for very ninety members, was carried by a vote of 96 to 63. Dr. Griffin presiding, Dr. Raymond of Wesleyan university spoke briefly; Dr. J. Richards Hoyle read the annual gustoral letter and Statistical Secretary Wilbur read the annual conference report, which showed general progress throughout all departments of the Conference then listened to reviews of the work done by the Woman 's Foreign Missionary society. The programme as heretofore printed closely followed. The feature of the afternoon was an elequent and effective address by Mrs. William B. Osborne, president of the Brocklyn Training genool.

Dr. Sprague, president of Wyoming seminary, presided during the auniversary of that institution, the next exercise on the programme. The large est andience of the week was in attendance. A dost was sung by Messes. Thomas and Woolen. Dr. Raymond, offered prayer and then Dr. Bushford, of the Obiosu Wesleyan university, spoke on the subject of "Christian Education." Dr. Basisford is said to by the youngest spilege president in the United States lie is a brilliant speaker and his address was an able one. He dwait upon the defects of our present system of secular education, declaring that the time is coming when spiritual as well as the intellectual forces will be recognized.
