THREE MULLOYS ARRESTED.

They Are Charged With Stealing the Goods of Benjamin Levy.

John Mulloy, Sr., John Mulloy, Jr., and William Mulloy, of Pine Brook, were arrested yesterday and at a hearing before Alderman Fuller were held for trial on the charge of stealing goods to the amount of $200 from Benjamin Levy, a Capone avenue peddler, on the night of February 19.

Frank Muraco and James D. Mangio, two Italians living in Green Ridge, were arrested at 4 o'clock yesterday morning by Sergeant Davis and Officer David Roche for complicity in the crime by having in their possession the greater portion of the goods. They will probably be given a hearing today.

The story of the locating of the goods and the arrest of the parties concerned reveals somewhat of a plot.

Although the burglary occurred so long ago as Feb. 19, Peddler Levy did not relinquish a watch for a clew which would lead to an apprehension of the offenders. While walking along Capone avenue Monday he noticed among the articles drying on a clothesline in the Mulloy's yard some articles missing on the night of the robbery.

The police were notified of the clew and the arrests followed.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

Marriage of Miss Julia May Shively to H. C. Wallace.

RECEPTION AT BRIDE'S HOME

Left on an Extended Wedding Tour. Funeral of David Jones—Death of James Moses, of Washburn Street. Capture of M. J. Neary, who attempted to Batter Down a Door. Other Notes.

(The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 1040 Jackson street, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.)

One of the most prominent West Side social events of the season occurred yesterday in the marriage of Miss Julia May Shively to H. Clifford Wallace, of the firm of Conolly & Wallace, at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. C. Floyd, D. D., assisted by Rev. R. W. Vanschrick of Albion, Mich.

To the strains from Lohengrin, played by Hayda Evans, the bridal party entered the church at 12 o'clock. Miss Shively was accompanied by Rev. Dr. Vanschrick, who gave her to the groom at the altar. She was attired in a mode color wool gown, more trimmed and carried a large bouquet of bridal roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Lillian Shively, wore a gown of changeable green and blue, trimmed with lace. She carried a bouquet of purple hydrangeas.

The groom was accompanied by William Wallace, of Yale, and was attired in a black frock coat and light colored trousers.

R. B. Knight, of Binghamton, R. J. Williams, U. S. Freeman and B. P. Conolly, of Scranton, were the ushers. Mendelsohn's wedding march was played as the party departed from the church.

At 3 o'clock a reception was held at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Julia A. Shively, at No. 305 North Hyde Park avenue, attended only by relatives and immediate friends. An hour later Mr. and Mrs. Wallace left the city via the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western for Philadelphia, Washington, Old Point Comfort, Lunay and other points of interest in the south. Her traveling suit was a brown granite tailor made, with brown wrap and hat. The groom's present was a diamond bracelet.

CONFIRMED AT GRACE CHURCH.

Bishop Nicholson officiated and preached an inspiring sermon.

The rite of confirmation was administered at Grace church last evening to sixteen young persons, by Rev. William R. Nicholson, D. D., bishop of the New York and Philadelphia synod of the Reformed Episcopal church, who, preceding the confirmation service, preached a logical sermon from the text, "Who was delivered for our offenses and was raised again for our justification."

In the beginning of his discourse, Bishop Nicholson stated that it was particularly to the last clause of the text that he would direct attention. The point of interest is, he said, that we find in the text that our justification is attributed to the resurrection of Jesus Christ, while the Scriptures ascribe our justification to his passion and death. How reconcile the difference? This, proclaimed the speaker is not a speculative point, but one of the most practical within the lids of the Bible and which, carefully pursued, leads to some of the deep things of God.

The sixteen candidates for confirmation came forward after the sermon and the bishop administered the impressive rite which solemnizes entrance into full membership in the Reformed Episcopal church. The address was also delivered by the bishop. It was couched in terms expressive of deep earnestness and contained advice calculated to inspire those for whom it was intended with a solemn realization of their duties as Christians. The pastor announced the names of six persons who had applied for admission by letter into the church.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Henry E. Dixey and Rice's big burlesque company, who made such an emphatic success at the Frothingham theater last evening, will repeat the performance tonight.

Augustus Thomas' famous play, "Alabama," will be at the Frothingham tomorrow evening. There is a large proportion of fun in the play, which keeps the auditor laughing through the four acts, while the exquisite pathos will surely cause a tear or two to trickle down the cheek. Above all, "Alabama" is a truly American play, American in theme, American in treatment, American in character, American in location, and was written by an American for Americans. The company presenting "Alabama" is said to be perfect.

Two-Year-Old Vitu Abate Instantly Killed by a Runaway Horse.

ANIMAL OWNED BY FRED MURSCH

Child Was Playing on the Sidewalk When the Horse Dashed Down Upon It—Peculiar Work of the Fire Alarm. Carpenter Getz Injured by Falling from a House—Other News Items of Interest.

Vitu Abate, the 2-year-old daughter of Gaspare Vitu, of 899 Pittston avenue, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Fred Mursch, of 801 Pittston avenue, an iron fence manufacturer, owns a horse and a single platform spring wagon. After dinner he drove to Providence with some material for the new Parker street bridge, at the instance of Street Commissioner Kirst. On his return home he got out of the wagon at the corner of Willow street and Pittston avenue to adjust some of the harness that had got loose. He took the reins in his hands to prevent a possible runaway. When getting on the wagon again the animal became frightened at some object in the street and Mr. Mursch was flung to the ground. The horse dashed down the street and midway between Willow and Birch streets veered to the sidewalk.

The child that was killed was playing upon the sidewalk near-by. She was too young to realize the danger impending and the maddened beast was upon her in an instant. The hoofs of the horse crushed the skull of the little one. After the runaway had passed on, people picked up the child and found her lifeless. Dr. Gates was summoned, but life was extinct when he reached the little sufferer.

Franks of the Fire Alarm A fire broke out in an out-building in the rear of the residence of Julius Mayer, on Prospect avenue, above Willow street, yesterday afternoon. An alarm was sent from box 47, and the engine sounded it correctly, but the indicators in every engine house in the city recorded it wrong. At the Century's rooms No. 4 was recorded, and at the Neptune's No. 114. Chief Ferber with the Eagle and Phoenix Fire companies, went to box 41 on Washington avenue. There they could find no trace of any blaze and had to return home. An hour or so later Supervisor Councillor C. W. Westphahl sent word to Chief Ferber to come to the South Side and release the key from box 46.

If this accident to the indicators happened at night and a fierce blaze was in progress the result would be disastrous.

FALL OFF A HOUSE.

A carpenter named Getz, aged about 24 years, employed by Contractor Charles Lewert, of 422 Willow street, fell from a house on Willow street yesterday afternoon and was seriously hurt. He was working near the edge of the wall and toppled off. His fellow workmen rushed to his assistance and found him unconscious. He was taken to his residence on Prospect avenue and Dr. Kolb summoned. His injuries were reported not fatal unless the shock and subsequent brain fever work serious results.
