GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT

CARBONDALE CHIPS. Little Local Gleaned on the Pioneer City's Midway. Special to the Scranton Tribune. CARBONDALE, Pa., April 18.—The following is the report of the business done in Carbondale post office during the year ending March 31: April 1, 1893, to June 30, $2,393.65; July 1 to September 30, $2,411.52; October 1 to December 31, $2,317.99; January 1, 1894 to March 31, $2,951.07. The report shows a neat increase over last year's business. Howard Johns, of Forest City, made a visit to this city this afternoon. J. J. Janzwick was a Scranton visitor this morning. The supper served by the Baptist Ladies' Aid society this evening in the chapel was liberally patronized. In connection with the supper a literary and musical programme was rendered during the evening. Joseph Alexander, of Scranton, was a visitor in this city this afternoon. The stores of many of our business places are being adorned with new awnings. Three hundred and forty-six dollars was the amount realized from the recent ball which was given in benefit of the Carbondale hospital. A sneak thief stole a pair of shoes this morning from the store of J. W. Dimock. He entered the Salem Avenue entrance and lifted them from the display in the window. George Mechem, of Binghamton, is on a business visit to this city. Miss Mary Deane, of Dunmore, is visiting friends in town.

BAD DRAINAGE causes much sickness, and bad blood and improper action of the liver and kidneys is bad drainage to the human system, which brings back Blood Bitters remedy.

The biggest bargain yet—those magnificent Multichromes.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT. Sacred Concert Given by St. John's Church Choir. Special to the Scranton Tribune. HONESDALE, Pa., April 18.—The grand sacred concert at St. John's church last night drew together the major part of the musical talent of Honesdale as well as a large number of the lovers of song. The church was well filled, but the programme which had been so carefully selected and prepared merited a packed house. At 8 o'clock the concert opened with a grand chorus, "Tantum Ergo," by St. John's choir. This thrilling piece was a fitting opening for what was to follow. One of the pleasant features, which perhaps escaped many unnoted, was the promptness with which each new selection was rendered. There were no tiresome pauses, which are usually the case. William Kallihan sang "Ecco Patria," Hilliard, in a specially pleasing manner. A duet, "O Salutaris Hostia," by Misses Madge Harman and Minnie Kelly, did great credit to the young ladies. Probably one of the finest pieces of the evening was the trio that followed, "Ave Maria," Benjamin Owen, by Miss Ella Boherty, Mrs. Hubert Kelly and Howell Davis. There was hardly a stir during the rendering of this selection; a long breath of satisfaction from the audience followed. The programme throughout was of the highest character, and the excellent manner in which they were sung was a part of each. "Softly and Sweetly," by Miss Mame Kelley; "Gloria in Excelsis," Gounod's, by the choir; tenor solo, "In Native Worth," by Howell Davis; duet "Rock of Ages," Miss Annie Callaghan and Thomas Finnerly, Jr.; and soprano solo "O Salutaris," by Miss Ella Boherty, with flute obligato by Charles Harney made a closing of the highest character.

IN AND AROUND ARCHBALD. Matters and Things in General Intelligently Discussed. Special to the Scranton Tribune. ARCHBALD, April 18.—Archbald is soon to have a weekly paper. It will be called The Citizen and will probably be the first of its kind in the neighborhood. A gentleman from Olyphant with considerable newspaper experience will be the publisher, and for the present at least it will be printed in Olyphant. There is room here for a live weekly and there is no reason why the new journal should not prosper. O'Rourke is expected to take charge of the post-office. Mr. Cosgrove has finished up his work and has everything in readiness for his successor. Fred Kinback has returned from a brief but pleasant visit in the west. Joseph, the infant son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Kelly, died early this morning after a brief illness. The funeral takes place tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon. By a singular coincidence three persons today sustained painful injuries by stepping on rusty nails. James M. Eaton stepped on one while doing carpenter work at James Simpson & Co.'s store, and Charles Tulin and Patrick Loftus, of Wayne street, sustained similar injuries while removing an old fence. No serious results are anticipated in either case. A large delegation of Knights of Father Mathew went to Mayfield this evening to attend the fair of St. Aliphan's society at Jermyn. Mr. John A. Fouts spent the afternoon in Scranton. Owing to a break in one of the engines of the Crescent Electric company there was no electric light furnished here last evening or this evening. Mr. Kinback, of South Main street, was in Scranton. The pupils of the graded school will hold a grand entertainment in the school building on Saturday evening. The proceeds go to the library fund. Mrs. D. Blake, of Hill street is slightly indisposed. Mr. F. J. O'Boyle has furnished each of the schools in the graded building with new fences and basins. Heretofore the water used in the entire building was drawn from one faucet.

STROUDSBURG NOTES. A Lively Letter from the Land of Thrifty Enterprisers. Special to the Scranton Tribune. STROUDSBURG, Pa., April 18.—The trout fishermen do not report the best kind of luck. The recent heavy storm has swollen the streams and made them very muddy. Visitors from out of town have not yet begun to arrive in large numbers. M. R. Savaacool was in Easton on business this morning. C. Van Etten and family have returned from Shohola, Pa. The Hon. George P. Kaser is visiting his friend, Joseph Kerr. Miss Helen Schook is at Phillipsburg, N. J. Miss Nettie L. Merville, of this place, is spending the week in Cresco. John Patrick and wife are guests of Aaron Crooks, of East Stroudsburg. Harry Racener caught seven trout yesterday, three of which were eleven inches long. Miss Lizzie Mervine, of Mount Pocono, spent Sunday and Monday visiting friends in Stroudsburg. Miss Adeline Hedig has returned home after a three week's visit among friends in North Wales, Quakertown and Easton. Frank Roberts, of Camden, N. J., formerly a resident of Delaware Water Gap, was in town this morning. Mrs. Jennie Burger purchased what is known as the Riley farm on Monday. The farm contains eighty acres, and with the stock was sold for $2,000. Thomas H. Farr and E. L. Steel, of Philadelphia, are guests of the Indian Queen hotel.

DURVEA DAY'S DOINGS. Entertainment by the Adzand Society. Other Notes. Special to the Scranton Tribune. DURVEA, Pa., April 18.—The Adzand Literary and Debating society will give a public meeting Friday, April 27. The following is the programme to be rendered: Music..... Mr. Frances Essay..... Miss Manwaring Recitation..... Miss Sadie Benedict Oration..... William Mainwaring Vocal Solo..... Miss Anna Ward Journal..... James Clark J. B. Lack, of Archbald, called on friends here yesterday afternoon. Mrs. White, of Clark's Summit, is the guest of Mrs. Charles Marcy. The many friends of Rev. J. L. Race will be glad to hear that the reverend gentleman will continue his pastorate here. The Presbyterian chapel will give a photographic concert Saturday evening. The employees of the Pennsylvania Coal company received their pay yesterday. M. L. Blair, Alderman, 3th ward, Scranton, Pa., stated Nov. 9, 1893. He had used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for sprains, burns, cuts, bruises and rheumatism. Cured every time.

FOREST CITY FLASHES. Current Events Correctly Reported for Hurdled Readers. Special to the Scranton Tribune. FOREST CITY, Pa., April 18.—British American Lodge No. 373, Order Sons of St. George, have engaged the celebrated Columbian quartette of Scranton to sing at their concert next Monday evening, April 23, in the opera house. This quartette is composed of young men of unusual musical ability who have established an enviable reputation for harmonious blending of tone, evenly balanced and well cultivated voices and for brilliant style they stand without a rival in the Electric City. Some of Forest City's best talent will appear on the programme, when is as follows: PART I. Selection..... Columbian Quartette Address..... Rev. F. Gendall Song, "Anchored,"..... Henry Carr Song, Selected..... Mrs. George Maxey Song, "Noble Boy"..... P. R. Thomas Recitation, Selected..... Maude Reynolds Song..... D. J. Jones Selection..... Columbian Quartette PART II. Glee, "Awake, O Eolian Lyre" By the Philharmonic Glee Society Song, "Only Speak Kindly to Me" Recitation, Selected..... Maude Reynolds Song, "The Song That Reached My Heart"..... May Watkins Song, "Fie as a Bird"..... Beulah Hines Duet, "How Gladly"..... D. J. Jones Prof. J. L. Morgan and D. J. Jones Song, Selected..... P. R. Thomas Selection..... Columbian Quartette The above is an unusually fine programme, and those missing it will have cause to regret. Prices, 15, 25 and 35 cents. The following were registered at the

Like a Young Man Although 71 Years Old Rheumatism Cured and Strength Given by Hood's. "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass." "I have taken three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and am now using the fourth. I can truly say it has made a new man of me at my advanced age of 71. I have suffered with rheumatism for many years. For ten years there has been a swelling in my sides and also under my knee joints. It was so severe I could not stop down without pain. Nothing gave me relief until after I commenced to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have continued to improve steadily and the pain has left my sides and knees, enabling me to stoop to the ground with ease. I am working like a young man, thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I cannot praise it enough in return for the good it has done for me, not alone for rheumatism, but also for kidney trouble." FREDERICK SELTER, St. Peter's, Penn.
