OUR ELKS AT WILKES-BARRE.

They Were Royally Entertained and Participated in the Speech-Making--Who Were There.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

WILKES-BARRE, April 24.--The large number of Elks who left Scranton on the various trains of last evening to attend the social session of the Wilkes-Barre lodge were most hospitably received in the sister city and right royally entertained.

Addresses were made by Judge Stanton Woodward, of the Luzerne county bench; District Attorney Germain, C. Ben Johnson, Colonel Frank J. Fitzsimmons, ex-Judge Peter P. Smith, Dan L. Hart, Sam Slaughter, Dr. A. N. Lewis, C. G. Boland, Adjutant W. S. Miller, Dr. Gunter and many others.

It fell to the lot of the only "Billy" Craig to give a realistic exhibition of the Sullivan-Kilrain fight.

Among the Scranton people present were Colonel Frank J. Fitzsimmons, A. Rose, F. L. Martin, Dr. L. C. Lyman, William Craig, John Grady, John H. Blackburn, Curtis Collins, William Knapp, W. L. Fryer, Charles Connor, Simon Lauer, Albert Kramer, John M. Stanton, M. Swarskoff, Marvin Smith, M. McCann, Dr. Gunter, Walter Hoshan, John A.
